HARRIMAN YET TO BUILD

Union Pacific Headquarters May Be Started Before Great White.

LUMBER MAN SAYS THIS IS CERTAIN

Material Arrives for Construction of New Northwestern Terminals on Which Work Will Be Pushed.

From a member of a construction and lumber firm with which the Union Pacific company maintains confidential relations it was learned Tuesday morning that the new Harriman headquarters at Fifteenth and Dodge streets will be erected in the near future and that bids will be asked for its construction, with the exception of the steel work, which is to be done by the American Bridge company.

The person in question refused to have his name disclosed on account of the immense amount of confidential work transacted by his firm for the Union Pacific, but said:

"I can assure you the new headquarters will be erected within a short time, as originally planned, and that bids for material and brick and lumber construction will be asked for in the near future."

"We have received no new orders from the railroad company and the last instructions were to place the properties on the market for sale or rental, which we have done," said John L. McCague. "But I have what is vulgarly termed a 'hunch' that the trouble has all blown over and that the new headquarters may be erected after all. This is only a pure and unadulterated 'hunch,' however, and I have nothing definite upon which to base any such thought, but I sincerely hope that it may prove true."

Material for Northwestern. Preliminary work on the new Northwestern freight depot and office building at Fourteenth and Davenport streets was begun Tuesday morning by Contractor John H. Harte by the erection of a number of large sheds for the receipt and storage of building material and tools. The stone abutments on the site have been completed by the railroad company and several temporary tracks have been laid from the yards to the building site for switching cars of building supplies, which have been bought by Contractor Harte and will be put in the new sheds which are in course of construction.

A large force of bricklayers, carpenters and other mechanics have been engaged by the contractor and will begin work on the foundations of the new building about next Thursday or Friday. The new office building will be 50x30 feet and the freight depot will be 85 feet wide by 60 feet long, extending for two whole blocks from the northeast corner of Fourteenth and Davenport streets. The improvements will cost over $125,000.

ST. CECILIA'S NEW SCHOOL

Contract is Let for Parochial Building to Be at Thirty-Seventh and Webster.

The contract for the erection of the new St. Cecilia parochial school on the lot at Thirty-seventh and Webster streets was awarded Tuesday by the architects, Fisher & Lawrie, to F. J. Creedon & Sons at an approximate cost of $30,000.

The new school is to be built of brick, with a cut stone entrance, and will consist of three stories and a basement. The contractors expect to begin work immediately and the school will be ready for occupancy before the opening of the fall term.

SNOW WITH SUMMER HEAT

Clouds of Dust Sweep Over the City Still in the Orange Belt.

March is proving to be a month of record breakers. Monday it broke the heat record for months of that name by registering 91 degrees and Tuesday it broke all records known to weather scientists, when it presented the phenomenon of a snow storm with the mercury ranging around the W mark.

The perversity of Nebraska weather never showed itself to a greater advantage than Tuesday morning, when clouds of snow—and some people will persist in calling it dust—rolled up from the north, south, east and west and went whirling around the street corners with a viciousness that evoked some of the most artistic profanity that ever perforated the ambient atmosphere of Omaha. Between trying to keep your hat on and the clouds of dust (or snow) out of your eyes and mouth the sensation was thrilling.

The weather man said snow would come Tuesday; if not snow, possibly rain, and there you are. A few good citizens had the temerity to come downtown with overcoats and umbrellas and priced snow shovels.

The gray snow clouds that should have come up from the northwest didn't get any farther Omahaward than the horizon, but the dust did. The banana-belt reputation of Omaha was saved, the weather man to the contrary notwithstanding.

Way out west there was a little snow and up at Williston, N. D., and in northern Montana snow is reported Tuesday morning. At Valentine there was slight precipitation, but as only .05 of an inch fell, it is not yet decided whether it was snow or rain. Valentine reports a temperature of 30 and North Platte a temperature of 31. The local forecast is for cooler and showery Wednesday.

LILIES HIGH AND POPULAR

Easter Flowers Are in Great Demand at Prices Away Above Normal.

The approach of Easter is emphasized by the quantities and numberless variety of cut flowers and plants now on display at all of the florists. The bloom given the most conspicuous place is the tall white waxy lily. Many of these plants are imported, but the majority of them are grown at the local green houses and they are on a par if not a suggestion of eclipsing in beauty and size, those that have been sent in.

Omaha florists report that the Easter lily demand is large this season, exceeding that of last. While they have been able to fill all of their orders, this special variety of flowers is somewhat scarce. One noticeable feature, though, are the Easter prices prevalent on all of these floral beauties. The prevailing custom of all the churches in decorating the altars with white flowers is in favor, and this tends to increase the demand for the white beauties. So great is the demand for flowers that ministers in several of the churches have been obliged to call on the members of their congregations to bring flowers from home to assist in lending beauty to the decorations.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

conclusion Put in Most of Evening Listening to Kicks.

LACK OF VIADUCTS MAIN COMPLAINT

Southsiders Have No Means of Crossing Tracks Except to Crawl Under Cars or Make a Long Journey Around.

The session of the city council last night was marked by the number of delegations from different sections of the city asking for relief to many different conditions. Chiefly the petitioners discussed the question of viaducts. Mr. McCarthy from the south side asked for a temporary crossing of the tracks of the Rock Island and Union Pacific on U street between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth until the railroad saw fit to construct a viaduct to accommodate that portion of the city. As it now is there is no outlet from that section at all. Women and children have to crawl under freight cars often times at great danger. Otherwise they have to climb the hill to Twenty-seventh street and make a long circuit. The city attorney was instructed to communicate with the railroad company and see if it could not be arranged.

P. C. Caldwell and others of the west side requested the council to do all in its power to have a new viaduct constructed at Q street. The present viaduct is too narrow for traffic and in fact is practically out of business by reason of wear and rust. The mayor assured the delegation that he had been told by the Union Pacific that material for a new viaduct had been ordered over ten months ago. The spans will be replaced one at a time so as not to interfere with traffic.

Charles Cummings and Joe Hurt from the west side discussed the L street viaduct with quite as much earnestness as the other propositions. It was suggested that the street cars be allowed to cross O street and pass through the Union Stock yards and from thence to Thirtieth and L to connect with the new line from Hancock park. It was explained to this delegation that a conference could not be held for the reason that J. C. Kenyon was at the legislative session all the time during its session.

A contract and bond of the permanent sidewalk contractor was approved. The mayor recommended and it was ordered that the city employ special counsel in the case of the injunction suit of Frank Wallweber in the park site injunction and in the case of Hugh Murphy in the matter of removing material from Missouri avenue. The city attorney is instructed to go to Lincoln to attend to the charter amendments for South Omaha.

Treasurer C. A. Melcher requested that warrants be drawn on the proper funds in amounts aggregating about $5,000 to reimburse the treasurer for obligations of the city which he had paid.

L. J. Carpenter was refunded $60 scavenger tax.

An ordinance was introduced ordering a permanent sidewalk on the west side of Seventeenth street from M to N streets.

The plumbing ordinance was put on third reading and passed. It defines the duties of the plumbing inspector.

The city engineer was instructed to prepare an estimate for the cost of grading a street from Thirtieth to Thirty-second street.

The lists of the judges and clerks of election were submitted for the spring election to be held April 2. The lists are the same as last fall with the exception of a few changes by withdrawals.

Voting Machines in Readiness. The custodian of the voting machines reports that all the machines are set ready for the spring election. They will not be placed in the voting places until next Monday. He also announces that a school of instruction will be held at fire hall No. 1 this evening. All of the judges and clerks are required to be present to receive a schooling in the handling of the machines. Frank G. Hydock will be present to give instructions, he being the appointed inspector. He will personally inspect all the machines after they have been set up in the voting places.

Simms Returned for Trial. Chief John Briggs returned yesterday evening from Nebraska City, bringing with him John Simms, who is charged with assaulting the little 3-year-old daughter of E. W. Stephens. This case first came to light Saturday night. Simms was reticent and is apparently waiting for the other side to proceed with the accusation.

Preparations for a Carnival. J. A. Hall reports that arrangements have been made of an extensive nature for a carnival to be held in South Omaha from May 20 to June 1. Contracts have been signed with an amusement company to furnish a big bill of attractions. It has not been determined under what auspices the carnival will be held, but it will come off at all events on the date set. An effort will be made to secure the use of O street for the affair. Use of all the street and the vacant lots from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-sixth will be required.

A Greek Held Up and Robbed. A Greek is reported to have been robbed of $30 last night at Twenty-seventh and R streets. His name is Tertepas. He had been visiting at the Greek colony at Thirtieth and R streets and was walking to his home at 208 South Twenty-seventh. On reaching R street he was attacked by three men, who slugged him, felling him to the ground. They then went through his pockets, securing his money. The affair was reported to the police by a friend named Nick Dimante, living at 3015 X. The police investigated the affair as far as possible last night.

Magic City Gossip. Mr. and Mrs. John G. Kelley will give a party Monday, April 1.

Easter suits, business suits, dress suits, evening suits, fit and suit. H. S. & M., the best made, at Flynn's.

The Century Literary club meets this afternoon at Library hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bateman have extended invitations for an evening party April 5.

Letter's Gold Top Beer delivered to all parts of the city. Telephone No. 8.

Mrs. J. H. Baker is reported seriously ill. She has been suffering for some time.

James Lee was hauled out yesterday. He will have his trial this morning on a charge of assaulting George Siroba.

The women of the Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. B. Orange, 238 H street, Wednesday afternoon.

Out of twenty-four cases a police court yesterday morning Judge Kinland only one man is and costs. His name was Jack Mehan.

A prairie fire at Twenty-first and A streets caused a run of the fire department yesterday shortly after noon. No particular damage was done.

The death of Florence Usher, daughter of W. J. Usher, 2907 T, occurred Sunday. The funeral was held yesterday from the residence to St. Mary's cemetery.

The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners will meet this evening at 130. The saloon men will be treated to their first handling of the Sunday closing regulations.

The Christian association lecture course will be given next Friday evening at the high school auditorium. Hisawatha will be discussed.

Mrs. F. A. Cressley will entertain in honor of Miss F. J. Kenyon Wednesday evening. Mrs. Vaill has been her guest for a week past. Mrs. George Jones will entertain in honor of Mrs. Vaill Friday afternoon.

ARRANGING FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Senator Norris Brown Accepts Invitation to Deliver the Address.

The general committee of the Grand Army of the Republic and Woman's Relief corps having in charge the observance of Decoration day met Monday evening with a large attendance in the Water Board office, city hall. In the absence of the chairman, Dr. Spaulding, vice chairman Jonathan Edwards presided, and Miss Clara Feenan was secretary.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $115.50 in the treasury from last year as a nucleus to begin work on for the approaching Decoration day services. Mr. Edwards, appointed at the last meeting to secure a speaker for Decoration day, announced that he had written to Senator Norris Brown, and had received the gratifying intelligence of Senator Brown's acceptance of the invitation.

The chair then announced the following committees for Decoration day as appointed by Chairman Spaulding, and the secretary Miss Clara Feenan:

Finance—Jonathan Edwards, C. W. Allen, C. Hough.

Invitation—C. M. Harpster, W. A. Bell, George A. Gattick.

To select speakers for public schools—N. K. Van Husen, Thomas L. Hull, Charles Hiett.

Street Railways and Transportation—J. L. Hobbs, Jonathan Edwards, Conrad Eagan.

Grounds and decoration—Comrades A. C. Hough, W. A. Bell, Charles Hiett, Mrs. M. J. Matthews, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Swartz.

Monument—M. J. Foshan.

Music—C. M. Harpster, C. W. Allen, T. L. Hull.

Program—Comrades Eagan, Hobbs and Feenan.

Flowers—Mrs. Hough, Mrs. Stearns, Mrs. Shreveaux, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Carruthers, Mrs. Swartz and Mrs. Shields.

Entertainment—K. E. Van Husen, commander; T. L. Hull, officer of the day; T. J. Mackay, chaplain. Ritual, W. R. C.—Mrs. Walker, president; Mrs. Jenkins, senior vice president; Mrs. Stevens, junior vice president; Mrs. Remington, secretary.

The list of committees was approved, and an adjournment was taken until Monday evening, April 8, at which time the further details of the program will be completed, and the announcement made of the marshalling of the day, and as to whether the services will be observed at Hancock park or at Forest Lawn cemetery. There is a strong inclination among many of the veterans to have the services held at Forest Lawn cemetery.

BEFORE THE PEOPLE'S BAR

Doe Family Has Big Day in the Court of Commoners.

MORE NUMEROUS THAN SMITHS OR BROWNS

Reunion of This Distinguished Family is Held Without Any Effort at a Prearrangement.

The family of Doe was home numerous before the people's bar Tuesday morning, when it was opened by Police Judge Crawford, than either the Smiths or Browns are at an average gathering. One member of the Doe family was also among those present. It was not a prearranged family gathering, however, as might have been supposed, but merely meant that more than the usual number of people had imbibed far beyond their capacities and were physically unable to tell the desk sergeant their names.

This was not the case, however, with John Doe No. 2. This man was arrested on a warrant charging trespassing, and Richard Roe was arrested with him. All consulting modesty prevented them from making their names public, but a man's name is of smallest importance in police court just so he answers the right charge.

Richard Roe and Johnnie No. 2 are scenic artists. They are of the ilk which emblazon the heavens and the rocks of the mountains and the walls of the buildings and the billboards with startling injunctions so that the he who runs may read of the best whiskey and the best cure for its after-effects; the safest railroad and the best insurance company; the best cigar as well as the worst; and none dare say these painters nay. They go where they please and their footprints are enormous advertisements.

But this pair made a mistake. While applying the likeness of William Penn to the brick wall of a building at 186 Sherman avenue Monday they splattered white paint on the grass just turning green on the lawn at No. 195. The owner was not to have the signs of spring thus obliterated by the signs of business and ordered them to stop getting on his lawn, but they crawled up on their swinging ladder out of reach and made faces at him. This made him so angry he swore out a warrant for their arrest and Judge Crawford set the hearing of their cases for Wednesday morning.

John Doe, Nos. 1, 3 and 4, were not afraid to have the judge pass on the merits of their cases immediately. No. 3 said he did not know if he was drunk, but as the officer said he was not merely drunk, but so much so that he was asleep on the sidewalk and didn't know he was being taken to jail, his honor would not listen to his murmurs. No. 1 also tried to stave off a jail sentence by saying he had only drunk a couple of glasses of beer, but as he had been found stretched in an alley his testimony as to what had occurred the day before was not highly valued. Each was required to pay $1 and costs.

Dolly Dugan, which name is hers by law and nature, presented her bearded face before the countenance of his honor and blushed not a blush as John Callahan rather old and bent, told how she and Blanch Sharp had entered his home and "beaten him up." Callahan looked the part of a man beaten up, all right, the only question being as to who did it.

Considering the past achievements of Dolly Dimple Dugan, without the aid of Blanch Sharp or anyone else, to clean out most any old shack in the neighborhood of Ram Cat alley, near which is their home, the court was not disinclined to place credence in the old man's story, and the name of Dugan was dragged in the mud. Five dollars and costs was the tax imposed on each of the pugilistic dames.

"I was drunk, all right, your honor, but not beggins," swore Tom Brady.

"Well, the arresting officer isn't here, so you'll have to wait until tomorrow. Back to the bull pen."

"Never mind, your honor, I was beggins, too, I guess." And he got ten days.

MUZZLES ON ALL LOOSE DOGS

Order Will Be Mandatory from Mayor for April, June and July.

In view of many complaints received Mayor Dahlman has decided to issue a proclamation ordering that all dogs running at large during the months of April, May and June be muzzled.

The mayor is given authority under an ordinance passed a week ago. Every day for a week the mayor has been besieged with requests to order dogs muzzled if they run at large. Owners will be given until April 1 to tie their dogs up or muzzle them; after that date the police will be ordered to shoot all dogs found on the streets without muzzles.

Mayor Dahlman says he has acted in this matter only after he found that public sentiment demanded it. The last few months were an unusual period for rabies among dogs and according to reports this disease still exists to a serious extent. Only yesterday two children were bitten by stray dogs.

NEBRASKA CASE PLAY BESIDE THESE

Government Official in Authority Says Revelation of Names Will Be Sentiation to Colorado and Wyoming.

Owing to the fact that Special Assistant Attorney General Rusin will leave for Wyoming to be present at the session of the federal grand jury at Cheyenne April 1, the land fraud schedule for trial at the opening of the April term of the federal courts in Omaha will not be started before April 15.

The investigation of the Wyoming and Colorado land frauds are under the direct charge of Assistant Attorney General Burch. The investigations have been under way for several months, with a large force of secret service men employed in the work, many of them having been employed in similar work here in Nebraska during the last two or three years, which has already resulted in the conviction of a number of prominent land and cattle men.

An official connected with these investigations in Colorado said:

"The work here in Nebraska is child's play in comparison with what we are up against in Colorado and Wyoming. I do not care to say just what these investigations have reached thus far, but they are not little fish by any means. The statute of limitations may run against many of the criminal cases, but from the present outlook there will be a wholesale cancellation of patents in Wyoming and the government still has the recourse of damages against the land thieves. The same observation will apply in a way to the Colorado land deals; but there is much to be done there yet. A very large force of secret service men is in the field and some very interesting developments will yet result in that state. I might say that the work is but just commenced there and it will be prosecuted to a finish. Attorney General Bonaparte is determined to probe the land question to the bottom and bring the guilty parties to justice. The work started by his predecessor will not be permitted to languish, but will on the other hand be prosecuted with renewed vigor. Assistant Attorney General Burch will continue his headquarters in Denver so that he may be in personal touch with the work."

Advertisement for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Advised to Women. Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women. All sick women are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham, in advising. This she is especially well qualified to give advice to sick women. Write today, don't wait until too late. Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she is constantly receiving testimonials from women who have been benefited by her medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer. Neither has she ever disposed of her confidential letters in any other way. Every one of the hundreds of thousands of letters written to her by confiding women she has to-day under lock and key in the Company's laboratory at Lynn, Mass. Remember, the best medicine for women is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. EVERY WOMAN SHOULD CONSIDER THESE FACTS. First, that almost every operation in our hospitals, performed upon women, became necessary because of neglect of such symptoms as Backache, Irregularities, Displacements, Pain in the Side, Dragging Sensations, Dizziness and Sleeplessness. Second, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has overcome more cases of female ills than any other one medicine. It regulates, strengthens and restores women's health and is invaluable during the period of Change of Life. Third, the great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time being published by special permission, give absolute evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the illnesses of women.
