The Board of Fire and Police Commis oners met Saturday afternoon to pass the pay roll and transact such business as had secumulated since the regular meeting last Monday afternoon. It was generally understood at the meeting that it would be the last meeting for at least Commissioners Spratlen and Thomas, Commissioner Miller was absent. Broatch did not look on the meeting as a last one for him. When any reference was made to the "new board" the captain reminded his confreres that the new board had not been appointed and that there was no use in getting previous. Broatch intimated he would stay with the old ship until the end. It was reported at the meeting that Governer Shelden would appoint W. M. Giller to succeed Commissioner Spratien, whose term ends March 31. The mayor said there was now no doubt the governor would appoint Mr. Giller and John L. Kennedy, Robert Cowell and E. C. Page for the new

BOTH MUNGERS WILL PRESIDE Two Judges Will Be Present During

Term to Facilitate the Work.

The trial calendar of the United States circuit and district court of the Omaha division has just been issued for the April The calendar has noticed for trial in the circuit court thirty-one equity cases and twenty-five law cases, and eight civil cases for trial in the district court. The criminal cases to be tried in the district court are not printed in the new calendar. The criminal cases will, however, number about thirty.

Judge W. H. Munger and Judge T. C. Munger will be present during the term in order that there may be no delay in the disposition of the cases.

The first of the criminal cases set for hearing is that of the United States against Pat Hughes, allas Keagan, charged with seeking to fraudulently obtain a pension. The next case will be that of the United States against Tony Kuttler, charged with mailing an obscene letter. The land cases are set down for hearing on April 8.
