NEBRASKA FROM DAY TO DAY

Analyst and Curious Features of Life in a Rapidly Growing State.

Tree planters are getting busy in all parts of the state and the "timber trust" will receive another jolt.

Changes from "wet" to "dry" and "dry" to "wet" are of a character to defy logical analysis by an expert.

Grand Island recalls the fact that in 1873 Judge J. W. Paul brought thirty-nine families to Hall county.

The Nebraska hen will now proceed to demonstrate that all of the state's wealth is not in land and quadrupeds.

Muscle on Ether—We would as soon be followed by a yearling steer as by a big Newfoundland dog.—Nebraska City Press.

Unfortunate Julius-Julius Zamow fell over a fence and tore his trousers, while he was running cross country the other evening.—Archer Correspondence Central City.

Shortage in the Cash Box—it is charged that one Norfolk woman, who sold doughnuts as a means of boosting the Easter church offering, left town before Easter came and took the doughnut money with her.—Norfolk News.

Bees in Town Hall—A fugitive swarm of bees has wintered under the eaves and in the studding of Abbot's hall. A small knot hole furnishes the bees' way to their habit.

Where George is Wise—George Bennett, who went away to the land of big red apples, has returned to live among us again. He says he will try and raise corn and buy his supplies as cheap as he can get.

Adam's Ability—Fred Burns is breaking prairie for Adam Johnson, over in the east wing of the canyon. Adam is the general city marshal of minaret, but we have a private opinion about Adam's future.

Body Found in River. LOUISVILLE, Neb., April 3.—(Special Telegram.)—The body of John Shuler, who fell from the Rock Island bridge at South Bend on February 23 and was drowned, was found at this place today lodged against a sandbar a short distance above the Missouri Pacific bridge.

Head Body in River. NORFOLK, Neb., April 3.—(Special Telegram.)—A head was found in the river here today by Al Johnson, a colored fisherman. He caught a sack on his hook which contained the dead infant.

ELECTION RESULTS IN STATE

Nebraska Voters Generally Pass on Question of Saloon Licenses.

RETURNS SHOW VERY MIXED RESULT

Leitch Springs Surprise by Defeating Regular Candidates in Favor of Men Whose Names Are Written.

LEITCH, Neb., April 3.—(Special.)—The election yesterday was a quiet affair. There was but one ticket in the field, but it became evident that the people did not like the looks of it and the regular candidates were defeated.
