PARK BOARD ANNUAL REPORT

Humiliated at Necessity of Becoming Mayor and Council for Funds.

TRIES TO SPEND MONEY IN BEST WAY

Commissioner Expresses Pride at Park System and Gratification for Public Interest Manifested in It.

The annual report of the Park board is now in the hands of the printer. The report contains much interesting information about Omaha's park and boulevard system and includes something in the way of suggestions for further developments of the city's rest places and pleasure thoroughfares.

It is very humiliating to the board to be compelled to beg the mayor and council at the time of the passage of the annual levy ordinance to create a fund sufficient for the requirements of the park system.

The board endeavors to expend the money entrusted to it in such manner as to obtain public approval of its acts. Funds judiciously expended in the park system ought to make the city more healthy, more beautiful and generally more attractive as a place in which to live.

There is now before the legislature a bill to make the park fund not less than $50,000 nor more than $75,000 per year, and the belief is this bill will pass with other changes in the charter funds.

Gratified at Public Care. The board is much pleased at the interest taken in its proceedings by the general public.

NEW LAW AIDS OLD SOLDIERS

Saves Each of Five Hundred Twenty-Five Cents on His Pension Voucher.

Five hundred old soldiers had their pension vouchers signed in the office of the county clerk Thursday. Few of them knew, however, how they had been saved from paying 25 cents each for the use of the great seal of Douglas county on their vouchers.

There is a provision in the statutes of Nebraska which says a fee of 25 cents shall be paid into the county treasury every time the impression of the seal is placed upon any document.

Finally they secured the voluntary services of Auditor Smith dug it up a few months ago and demanded that the fees be charged as provided in the statute.

The county clerk secured the introduction in the legislature of an amendment to the statute making an exception in favor of the old soldiers and exempting them from paying this fee.

The board endeavors to expend the money entrusted to it in such manner as to obtain public approval of its acts.

CONFISCATION, SAY BREWERS

Gibson Bill Arouses Men Who Sell Liquor in Their Own Buildings.

GO TO LINCOLN TO ENTER PROTEST

Unless Governor Will Veto Bill, They Will Have to Fight It on Constitutional Grounds.

Local brewers, as well as the agents for outside breweries, which own property in Omaha are aroused over the passage of the Gibson bill by the legislature Wednesday, which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors in buildings owned by the brewer.

"If this bill is held to be the law we will have to give our property away," said one of the leading brewers as he was leaving for Lincoln. "There is nothing for us to do except to fight, for it means practically a confiscation of our property."

"I do not think anyone will deny that saloons are on a higher plane than they were some years ago before we began to build these brick structures for the saloon men. They say the bill was passed to keep the influence of the brewers from being felt in politics, but that is all both, just because we rent a building to a saloon keeper is no sign he has to vote the way we would like to have him."

Will Force Action with Schlitte. The law specifically states a brewery cannot own a building in which retail liquor is sold. This will force the Schlitte company either to sell its property at the corner of Sixteenth and Harney streets or force P. H. Schlitte, who has leased this hotel, to take his saloon out.

Mets Broe, have built large substantial buildings all over the city, the corner of some of these being occupied by saloons and remainder of the buildings being occupied by grocery stores, barber shops, meat markets and in some places as residences. All these will have to be sold under the new law.

The Schlitte company has made several large investments in Omaha. It has become the policy of this company to invest its surplus money in real estate and buildings and several substantial buildings have been erected in Omaha in pursuance of this policy.

There was some talk that the brewers could dispose of the real estate holdings to a separate corporation in which the brewers were the principal stockholders, but lawyers have advised this would be a "device" within the meaning of the bill.

Must Fight It Out. "The brewers will have to fight this measure and may be able to attack it successfully on its constitutionality," said one of the brewers.

When asked what the holdings of the brewers were he replied they did not care to discuss the matter until after the conference with the governor.

The new law provides against the brewers assisting saloon men in procuring their licenses. The law prohibits them from "assisting in any manner, directly or indirectly, under pretext or otherwise in securing a license." This is quite a blow to the saloon keepers, for it has long been the custom for the brewers to advance the $1,000 license money which the saloon men must pay to collect the money back at so much per week. This is strictly prohibited under the new law.

Minnesota Murderer Convicted. BEMIDJIE, Minn., April 4.—The jury trying James Wesley on the charge of murder in the first degree, for the killing of O. Paul and his daughter, about April 7, 1904, returned a verdict of guilty early today. The penalty is death by hanging. Sentence has not been pronounced.

Under the heading of "Pending Contemnation Proceedings" this comment is made: The board is now in possession of Central boulevard from Riverview park to Twenty-seventh and Burt streets. Proceedings are pending to extend the system from that point to Bemis park, and thence via Thirty-third street to Miller park, and also from Bemis park northwest to Fontanelle park with a connection with the former boulevard at Grand avenue.

The report includes an itemized statement by Superintendent W. R. Adams, showing the work done during the year in the various parks and on the boulevards. In the way of statistics it is noted that Omaha now has twelve parks, with a total area of 613 acres, Elmwood park being the largest with 208 acres, while Himebaugh is the smallest, having but 11 acres. A grand total of $1,232,824 represents the original cost and expenditures for maintenance and improvements for the parks, parkways and boulevards of the city since the establishment of the system. Figured on the basis of 150,000 people, the average per person would be $8.21.
