KAISER SHOWS DISLIKE FOR NEWSPAPERS

At Theater of Herr Bonn Emperor Takes Occasion to Compliment Manager on Attitude Toward Press.

BERLIN, April 6 - (Special.)-The question is everywhere being asked as to whether there is to be a renewal of the North Atlantic rate war in the not far distant future. Such an evantuality seems by when court reassembles. Some members build its own battleships. Eight coastal this, had to pay the penalty by dying by Central America if that result could be trict Attorney Heney, "that these municino means distant of realization in the light would introduce more testimony. The Cunard company has adhered to the agreement in principle, but it to defeat his policies. is claimed that when this is said it is about all that can be said. Moreover, the Cunard company's close relations with the Austro-Hungarian government in regard to the carriage of emigrants from the Mediterranean have always been a source of annoyance to the German lines, while the "all-British" company's share of the Scandinavian emigrant traffic is not a little begrudged in Teutonic shipping circles.

Shipping authorities say that it is, of course, possible that the Hamburg-American and Nord Deutscher Lloyd companies have outlined an expensive campaign, but the results of the last passenger war are declared to have been so disastrous to everybody concerned that there are those who regard its repetition as highly improbable. In that contest the Cunard company is always supposed to have come off the best, but now what appears to be a contingency is a fight in which the interests of the combine proper and the Cunard company would be identical. The peculiarity of the position would be that the combine would be guaranteeing by agreement 6 per cent dividends on certain proportions of the shares of the two great German lines with which it was in conflict. This would appear to be such an obviously absurd situation that it almost seems to predispose of the idea that matters will be carried to

It was the pride of the people of Japan that their emperors were all of one dynasty, and that their country had never been con quered by foreign foe. The emperors had always regarded the sorrows and sufferings of the people as their own, and it was a saying among the Japanese that "the emperors have suffered before the people and rejoiced after the people."

Baron Kikuchi gave two instances to show the feeling which animated the Samural in feudal times, when the principal virtues of the fighting race consisted of loyalty to the lord and devotion and self-sacrifice in his service. People Tired of War. "The conservative people of Central America are tired of these wars which have continued for half a century. They realize that if all the money that has been spent for slaughter and the satisfaction of the selfish ambitions of some individuals during that time had been turned to the building of good roads, schools and other instrumentalities of civilization, Central America would probably compromise a united, prosperous and happy nation today. Those means of communication that have been established already have brought the people of the countries into closer relations, but the time has not yet come when when it would be possible to amalgamate them into one confederacy, either by force or convention. The nation would again break up as a result of the insufficient means of putting down numerous insurrections. But within ten years the time may come when such a plan would be entirely feasible."

(From a Staff Correspondent.) April 6.--(Special.)--"The LINCOLN. legislature has accomplished a vast amount of good work, but whether it will be lasting or not depends upon whether tions, the good work done by this session may all be undone. It may be that in some details some of the laws enacted to have been expected when so much of importance had to be done. This session all dependent upon whether the people keep on the watch. It has, I believe, forever ended the secret caucus for the organization of the house. This legislature set the precedent and likely never again to the old way of organizing." The above is the way Speaker Nettleton spoke of the session of the Nebraska legissiding officer and having so much responsibility placed upon him would be so great paired, but no such thing resulted. the exception of being tired, the speaker said this morning he felt as well as he ever did, and he looks it.

"I have always been a republican," said the speaker, "but when I was elected ; TRINIDAD, Colo., April 6.—While former speaker I tried to remember that I was a United States Senator W. A. Clark of Nebraskan and to forget republicans and That the Total of Appropriations.

The bills carrying appropriations passed has a severe cold, but no serious results to $3.491,191.90 against the general fund, while bills approved carry appropriations amounting to $116,949.42, making a grand total of $3,608,141.32, against the general blennium is $3,476,370, a sum less than the total appropriations, which means that some appropriations will have to be the claims bill, $28,420.79; the current expense bill, $1,947,880, and the galary bill $864,560. By someone's carelessness the emergency Tonight Senator Clark had completely clause was not attached to the general appropriation bill and unless some way is found to get it attached, the state officers will not be able to use this money until July 4, while the employes of state institutions will also work on credit until that date. The engrossed bill has the emergency clause and the bill was passed with the emergency clause. The governor, however, has no power to attach the "get-the-money-

Senate Last to Adjourn. Probably no Nebraska legislature ever had a more trying time going out of existence and into history. Since Thursday at 12 o'clock both houses struggled in the death threes and it was exactly 1:35 NEW ORLEANS, April 6.-Fully twenty- before Speaker Nettleton knocked the house was due to the discovery of a couple of mistakes in the enrolled appropriation bill which had to be corrected after the house quit business. Two items had been left out in the runh incident to the final finish. One was, appropriating $27,000 belonging to the cash fund of the State university to the use of the university, money now in the treasury, and the other was a $2,000 item for furnishing the executive maneion. These were discovered when the bill taken to the governor's office and he executive. The engrossed bill, however, The women passengers were safely showed that the items were in the bill and that they were left out of the enrolled bill by mistake. The clerks were ordered to make the corrections and the senate waited, in session and able to do business. Very few members waited over until this morning, but there were enough to appoint on committees to carry messages from one house to the other and to the governor and that was all that were needed. Noyes of Cass, McCullough of Gage and Kelfer of Shubert of Richardson acted as the mem-

Lock Horns Over Dates. Governor Sheldon and officers of the over the date placed on bills delivered to the executive. So far as the legislature is concerned time stopped at Thursday noon and every bill passed and signed by the legislature bears date of April 4. Bills received yesterday and today by Governor Sheldon of course bore this date, but the five days after the session adjourns to TOLEDO, O., April 6.-- A report reached pass on measures, bills delivered today the police today to the effect that two men could only be considered for three days. had been drowned in the bay through the He holds the bills must be in his possescapsizing of a fishing boat. The night sion the full five days in which he has to watchman at the Casino resort reported consider them. The upshot was the govseeing a skiff in which two men were busy ernor has received the bills on April 5 pulling nets, overturn and disappear. No and 6 and it is so shown on the bills, trace of men or boat could be found. A while the records show they left the house heavy sea was running on the bay today, and senate on April 4. The presumption is Farrer was seriously hurt. Several Managers of fish companies are unable to that the bills had a rocky road to travel and were delayed in transmission.
