Society is again reveiling in the free and unrestricted joy of social pleasures, taking them up where they left them on Ash Wednesday-only with more arder after the protracted season, when the halo of quiet had to hang over the heads of many. They are again making acquaintance of the old world. He is like a merry old music for the dance of galety and diges them into the gliddy whirl of pleasant amusements. Spring marked by the departure of the Lenten season seems to be the critical time for the fun-loving element to imitate "Salome," who discarded her seven vells and emerged in the fluffy raiment of spring. The first real outing of the season was participated in by forty of the younger set last Wednesday, when they took their lunch baskets and went out to Minne Lusa pumping station at Florence, where they enjoyed a delicious will give a matinee party Thursday after.

Reports of the present condition of San. Francisco, which reach Omalia by various routes, are all encouraging to the rapid upbuilding of that city, as they indicate great activity in new buildings and the deaning away of the debris. The record of the building inspector shows that permits have been issued for the building of $63,000,000 worth of new structures since the fire. During the month of March 800 real estate transfers were recorded, valued at $4,100,000. The bank clearings for March show an increase over the same month last year, which was before the fire. The records show bank clearings amounting to $185,000,000, against $185,000,000 for last year. most gratifying development in breadth of work.

Mrs. J. J. Seerley of Burlington, president of the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs for this blennial report, has been indefatigable in her efforts to promote broader lines of endeavor, to reach out from self-culture to civic improvement and municipal betterment.

With the assistance of her efficient official board a most educative and suggestive program has been arranged for this approaching blennial. The variety of subjects to be discussed is in keeping with the diversified club movement of the day and each one will be presented by one of its most enlightened and enthusiastic exponents.

No one can fall to be aroused to new activities and enlarged interests who follows with keen mind and unfettered sympathies the excellent addresses that will nathes the excellent addresses that will be presented at this gathering.
