PART IV. HOME SECTION

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE.

A PAPER FOR THE HOME THE OMA'HA BEE BEST ME WEST

OMAHA, NEB., SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1907.

THAT JUDGING A SHADE BY THE SHADOW ON IT, IS AS BAD AS JUDGING A BOOK BY ITS COVER. NOW! IMAGINATION IS A FUNNY THING, IT CAN MAKE YOU BELIEVE ALMOST ANYTHING. SOMETIME IMAGINE YOU'RE A MILLIONNAIRE, WHEN YOU START IN THROWING AWAY MONEY, WELLION THAN DRAWING ON YOUR BANK AND LOTS MORE FUN AND NOT GOT OVER.

AH! BUSTER, AS EXPENSIVE. WELL! WE AND THE MAGIC LANTERN ENJOYED IT YET STOP MAKING FOOLING OUR FRIENDS, WHO THOUGHT THAT A SPOONY COUPLE WILL YOU GET FOOLED ON ALL FOOL'S DAY AND ON EVERY OTHER DAY PLEASE? BECAUSE THEY'RE ASLEEP WHEN THEY THINK THEY'RE AWAKE. TIGE AND I WOULD RATHER BE CLOWNS IN A CIRCUS THAN CLOWNS OUTSIDE A WINDOW, GETTING THE MERRY IMA'S HA! HA! FROM A LITTLE BOY, A LITTLE DOG AND A MAGIC LANTERN. WOULDN'T YOU?

BUSTER BROWN.
