BROWN IS NOT AN ATTORNEY

Admits the Fact in Answer Filed in the Contempt Preceedings.

INJUNCTIONS WAIT ON CONTEMPT CASE

Brown's Attorney Asks They Be Set for Trial, but Presiding Judge Refuses Until Action Against Brown is Decided.

sas, is not an attorney at law. He has at last been forced to admit that he has not been admitted to the bar. Despite the fact that when he rented an office Pearl street he hung out a shingle, Brown, law and real estate," that he signed the notices and petitions in the numerous injunction suits brought against the maloonkeepers of Council Bluffs and other towns throughout Pottawattamic ounty and seemingly conveyed the impression to the committee from the Pottawattamle County Bar association which waited on him that he was a duly practicing attorney, Mr. Brown yesterday in his answer filed in the contempt charges brought against him in the district court by County Attorney Hess states he is not, never was and has never assumed to e an attorney at law.

Brown's hearing on the contempt charges filed by Mr. Hess was set for yesterday morning before Judge Wheeler, out owing to the trial of Roy Green not being completed, the hearing was postponed until next Saturday. Mr. Brown was in court, accompanied by his attorney. N. A. Crawford, who filed the answer to the contempt charges on behalf of his elient.

Attorney Crawford, on behalf of Mr. Brown, asked the court to assign at least one of the saloon injunction cases for a the county attorney delaying the trial of these liquor cases" was the reply of Mr Crawford when the court declined to set one of the injunction cases for trial.

"No liquor cases will be heard until these contempt proceedings are disposed of. They will be heard first," remarked the court with sufficient emphasis to allow Brown's counsel to realize that he meant

From the fact that Attorney Crawford saloon cases, it is taken to imply that he will act for Brown in the saloon injunetion suits unless they are stricken from the docket. Motions to strike from the docket have been filed in all the cases.

Differences Over Statements. In his answer Brown admits filing the notices and petitions in the saloon injunction suits as "J. Brown, plaintiff" and "J. Brown, attorney for plaintiff." After making this admission he proceeds in the hands of the sheriff for service, the latter prior to serving the notices called at his (Brown's) office and then and Starr, rector. First Sunday after Easter. there asked him if he had been admitted Holy communion at 8 a. m., hely comto the bar in Iowa. In reply to Sheriff munion and sermon at 10:20 a. m. Canning's query he states that he said day school at noon, evening prayer and he had not. Then, so he relates in the sermon at 8 o'clock. Morning subject, Zoller Mer. Co., 100-102-106 Broadway. answer, Sheriff Canning informed him that "The Effect of Christ's Resurrection Upon he did not believe he (Brown) had any the Apostles;" evening sermon subject, right to practice in the court here. To "The Gespel in Its Simplicity as Taught this Brown states he made reply to the effect that he was the plaintiff in the actions and as such was appearing on his own behalf and acting as his own attor-

Sheriff Canning, however, denies these statements contained in Brown's answer, and vesterday stated he had made no such statements as asserted by Brown When Brown first appeared in the sheriff's office with his first batch of notices of injunction suits against a number of saloonceepers, Sheriff Canning said: "Hello, what are these?" Brown replied, Mr. Canning says: "They are notices for you to serve. I am an attorney." Sheriff Canning consulted with County Attorney Hess before serving the notices.

Further in the answer Brown admits appearing in court on the occasions set forth in the contempt charges, but says he "did not then nor never since has and does not now assume to be an officer, attorney or counselor of the court, or to appear as such on behalf of any one other than in his own behalf."

He asserts that when appearing it the latter he was the plaintiff in these saloon cases and as such appeared in his own behalf and did not assume to be an officer, attorney or counselor of the court He asserts he is a resident and citizen of Pottawattamie county and that the peitions clearly show upon the face of them that J. Brown, plaintiff therein, and J. Brown, attorney for plaintiff therein, were and are one and the same person. In his notices served upon the saloon men against whom he brought injunction suits Brown called particular attention to in each case. The notice, after briefly reciting that the petition would be filed m or before such a date, made promient mention of the fact that the plaintiff, Brown, "claimed of you the sum of $25 money as justly due from you as at torney fees." The way the notice worded would convey the Impression that the $25 attorney fee was the principal object sought and that the injunction suit was merely a secondary proposition.

It took a jury in the district court yes rday but a few minutes to determin that Roy Green, on trial for the theft an avercost from the store of the John Beno company last February, was guilt as charged. Green's trial was begun Friday and the case was given to the jury at the noon adjournment yesterday. jury announced its verdict a few minutes after returning from dinner.

County Attorney Hess will ask tha Green be sentenced under the "commo thief" act. County Attorney Whitney of Woodbury county and Detective Richardteed under provisions of the Pure Food, son of Sioux City testified at the trial that Green had been convicted of larceny three times in Sloux City in 1905 while going inder the name of Frank Brown. Green timself testified that he was in tall practically all the time he was in Sloux City. When asked as to whether a certain inciient mentioned by him while on the witcas stand in his own behalf occurred durng his first, second or third time in jail, Green replied: "I was not out of tall while in Sioux City. They would keep sending me back for thirty days." The manner in which Green made the admission forced a smile from everyone in the

EIGHT THOUSAND POLITICAL AGENTS

Intimation is Made that House Will Refuse to Adjourn Until Senate Comes to Time on This Measure.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., April 6 .- (Special passed by both houses. Telegram.)-The house for the second lime this session today refused to accept the senate's wishes on the anti-pass law and turned down the report of the conference committee, ordering a new conference committee. The objections on the part of the house are that the senate lowa brigade. amendments allow every railroad to have one or more doctors and one or more lawyers in each county riding on a pass, making upwards of 200 political agents in the state for each road. As they are about forty roads this would make possible 8,000 political agents of the railroads scattered over the state in the various counties riding on passes. The bill was sent back to another conference committee and the house may decide Monday to refuse to finally adjourn till the senate recedes and cuts out the lawyers and doc

Roosevelt for Another Term. Because of press dispatches that say that an effort is to be made to get the various state delegations to the next na tional republican convention for Taft, with the view to swing them to some corporation man, Holmes of Kossuth in the house this afternoon introduced a concurrent resolution declaring that the pub-He interest and the unfinished program of President Roosevelt demand that he be renominated and re-slected president for another term. Under the rules of the house the resolution was laid over without action till Monday.

The fesciution is as follows: The fesolution is as follows:

Whereas. By his wise initiative and courageous leadership the present president of the United States has become preeminently identified with the cause of political, social and husiness reform; and. Whereas. The great work of which he has been and now is the most distinguished exponent is yet unfinished; and. Whereas. With singular unanimity the great body of the propie of the United States, without regard to political affiliation have implicit confidence in his great ability unselfish patriotism and unswerving fidelity to his exalted trust; therefore, he it

Within eight minutes the legislature today made a law. It was discovered by the governor when he came to sign the indoterminate sentence law that no provision was made for keeping all the women at Anamosa, and that under the bill, if they were over 30 years old, they would have to be sent to Fort Madison. There is no woman's ward at Fort Madison and they would have to be put in with the men. Within eight minutes after the discovery a bill was written correcting the error and
