MONUMENT FOR ROSEWATER

Hastings Tribune Suggests it as Fitting Recognition of Life Work. ALWAYS STOOD FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

Some of the Results of His Labors Apparent in the Legislation of Last Session—Tribune Starts Fund with Contribution.

HASTINGS, Neb., April 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The Hastings Daily Tribune this morning came out in an editorial calling for the organization of a movement for the purpose of erecting a monument in honor of the memory of the late Edward Rosewater.

"We know of no man who has done more to help a state than Edward Rosewater. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

"In 1901 the late Edward Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, started a fight to compel the railroads in Nebraska to bear their fair and equal proportion of the taxation imposed on property in that state.

"The Tribune most heartily endorses the sentiment of the Post Telegram, and hereby appeals to the press and the public of Nebraska to establish a fund for the erection of a monument in honor of the memory of the late Edward Rosewater.

Lungs Diseased--Appetite Gone And Could Not Sleep

Miss Ella Agard of Eureka, Kan., who had grown weak and frail from a deep cough, caused by diseased lungs, loss of appetite and sleeplessness, joins the throng to sing the praises of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, which cured her after all other remedies failed.

The following unsolicited testimonial of Miss Agard is similar in its words of praise to many letters received daily from men and women throughout the world, in all walks of life, who have been permanently cured by DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY the greatest of all medicines.

"Having seen your advertisement in one of the papers I spoke to a lady friend of mine about it and she gave me a bottle of your Malt Whiskey as I was very much run down and scarcely able to go out. My lungs were badly affected, I had a deep cough, achy all over, had no appetite and could not sleep. I had taken different medicines for my troubles, but found no relief and was just about discouraged when I began taking DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY. It helped me from the start and very quickly cured me.

voate of it among my sick friends. I could have sold a lot of it when my good it did me. Thanking you, believe me, ELLA AGARD, Eureka, Greenwood Co., Kansas, Nov. 22d, 1906.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

If you wish to keep strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill yourself with drugs, they poison the blood while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system.

NEBRASKA FROM DAY TO DAY

Quaint and Curious Features of Life in a Rapidly Growing State. Norfolk "Show"—Omaha has its horse show once a year—Norfolk has its teacher show—Norfolk News. The report that oil has been found in Custer county is pleasing, but the Rockefeller donations will scarcely be reduced on account of the discovery.

Complaint from Hastings City—The daughter of Mrs. Margaret Adams started from Omaha last Friday, but owing to the disconnection of the passenger train service at Valparaiso was compelled to remain at the latter place until Saturday morning, when she came home on the freight. Excellent train service this, isn't it?—Hastings City Independent. Fritz in Trouble—Fritz Kirsh is having more trouble. A certain young woman sat on his hat. He has bought a dollar's worth of varnish and is going to try to repair it. If this doesn't work he will have to buy himself a "nifty" on the cherry tree and saving the fragrant and promising blossoms from a biting and eternal blast.—Kearney Democrat.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE. Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of the Well Informed of the World. A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.
