Corn opened strenger, but trading was inactive, as interest was centered in the wheat market. Liverpool prices were unchanged and the general tendency was toward a higher level in prices on account of the damage reported to wheat and oats.
May corn closed firm at alfac asked, and other options were steady.

There was active trading in oats, which opened slightly higher, the September options being particularly active. Receipts were light and extensive crop damage by chinch bugs was reported, but not verified.
May options advanced fac and then de-

The sterling exchange market, also, by its peralstent strength here, in spite of the decline in interest rates in London, points to the possibilities of unsatisfied money requirements abroad. Brokers today resorted a small values of processing for today requirements abroad. Brokers today reported a small volume of orders for stocks and early attempts to advance prices quite generally met with supplies of stocks which turned the room traders to the bear side of the market. The resulting decline was incompletely recovered later and the closing tone was rather heavy. The narrow net changes are significant in themselves of the professional origin of much of the day's transactions. day's transactions.

The irregular tone of the bond market showed some reactionary tendency from the recent uniform strength. Total sales, par value, $2,08,000. United States bonds were

TARIFF DEAL WITH GERMANY Haron von Sternburg and Secretary Root Reach Basis of Modus Vivendi.

WASHINGTON, April 8.-Baron von Sternburg, the German ambassador, and Secretary Root have reached the basis of a modus vivendi which will continue to American goods imported into Germany the privilege of minimum tariff rates. This arrangement is temporary in character, being intended to prevent a break in the present tariff rates on American goods until such time as congress may have an opportunity to pass upon a permanent treaty regulating the commerce between the two countries.

The modus vivendi will be taken to Germany by Ambassador Sternburg. The Reichstag must give its approval in order to render the arrangement effective. circuit court for the western district of a cotton broker of Memphis, Tenn., against the New York Cotton exchange. The suit was brought in the circuit court by the exchange to secure an injunction against Hunt prohibiting him from receiving or using its quotations, contrary to the regulations of the exchange and the injunction
