Prices on Board of Trads.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Reports of further spread of the "green bug" pest caused an advance of more than le a bushel today in the price of wheat. At the close the May option was up 187%c. Corn was up 198. Corn May 494c. July, 474c. September. 74c; No. 2. Style: The wheat market was firm the greater part of the day. A moderate reaction occurred as a result of the government repost, but the market quickly recovered from this slight setback and prices soon rose to a higher level than had existed prior to the announcement of the official statistics. The government figures on the expectations of the most radical bears, but fresh reports of damage by "green bug" in the southwest outwelphed the effects of the government's statistics, as it was considered the southwest outwelphed the effects of the government's statistics, as it was considered the southwest outwelphed the effects of the government's statistics, as it was considered the southwest outwelphed the effects of the government's statistics, as it was considered the southwest outwelphed the effects of the government's statistics, as it was considered the effects of the government's statistics, as it was considered the effects of the government's statistics. expeciations of the most radical bears but fresh reports of damage by "green bug" in the southwest outweighed the effects of the government's statistics as it was generally conceded that great injury has been indicated since the government figures were complied. Many reports received to day tell of further rapid spread of the "green bug" in the wheat fields of Kansas. The market closed strong, with prices near the highest point of the day, May wheat opened $40 to $1,20 to $1, Totals4,125 9,799 5,897 CATTLE-Receipts were of fair propor-tion today and if there was any change in the character of the offerings the quality was not so good as yesterday. account of the improved tone to re On account of the improved tone to re-ports from eastern markets and the better general demand, the market was rather more active than yesterday and prices were a shade higher for desirable cattle of all weights. While the demand was largely consigned to local dressed beef men, there was enough inquiry for shipping account to make a good lively market and practically everything was disposed of some time be-fore noon.

The supply of cow stuff was not very fore noon.

The supply of cow stuff was not very heavy, with the demand somewhat more vigorous than it has been lately. The trade was lively and prices a shade higher than yesterday for all useful offerings. Veal calves, bulls, stags, etc. were picked up freely at steady to strong prices and the tone to the market was healthy and firm throughout.

There was a good inquiry from both yard traders and country buyers for desirable feeding steers, particularly the cattle of good weight and quality, and prices were fully as high as they have been any time this season. On the other hand, there was a disposition on the part of buyers to discriminate against the light and medium weight stuff unless it had the quality. Grass is a little backward and the country is evidently not anxious to stock up with light stuff until the passures are in good shape to receive them. Prices for the light weights were generally a shade lower than yeaestrday and logs lower than the close of last week.
