Shorts Rush to Cover During the Last Hour-Material Advances in Metal and Railway

NEW YORK, April 18.—The conspicuous feature of the stock market today was the extreme duliness into which it fell. The downward tendency of the last few days was checked and some recovery ensued. The consequence, however, was a condition bordering on stagnation. The demand which put up prices was attributed largely to account of the bear operators, who have been attacking the market recently. That their buying received smail accession from outside sources is sufficiently attested by the small figure of the aggregate sales for the day. A large proportion of the meagor total was done in the last hour of the session, when the rush to cover by shorts gained considerable animation, making a buoyant closing. There was slight reflection of any outside events in the movement of prices. The copper stocks had the advantage of sharp rebound from recent depression by copper metal in the London market and these shares, if American Smelting be included, were conspicuous in the day's upward movement of prices. The coppers kept the same stocks in their company that have been conspicuous in all the later speculation. The Harrimans, the Hills and Reading made up the overwhelming preponderance of the dealings. United States Steel also was dealt in in the customary proportion to its huge shares in builk. The reaction late in the day gave the usual indication of a lighty professional market.

Money on call continued easy in spite of some further large syndicate transactions, including a $30,000,000 payment on American Telephone convertible bonds yesterday and a $6,000,000 payment on General Electric new stock today. The effect upon the loan account of the banks on top of last week's record increase in loans is subject of interest in conjecture. Subtreasury operations continue to yield liberal amounts to the banks, the gain on that account having reached over $3,000,000 interest here. Any intimation of a possible demand from the Bank of England for shipment to Paris Sterling exchange at Paris also continued to decline. London money

All classes of buyers showed a preference for the light and butcher grades and these showed the most advance, while the heavier loads were rather slow sale throughout and in no case showed more than a 2%c advance. Early buying was brisk and the bulk of the hogs changed hands in good season. Later trains swelled receipts combiderably and as most of the urgent orders had been filled the close was rather weak and on late arrivals most of the early advance had disappeared. Tops brought $6.50 today, as against $6.50 today, as against $6.42% yesterday, and the bulk sold at $6.4066.45, as against $6.37466.40 yester day.

SHEEP—There was a fair run of sheep nere today, 8,500 being reported in. The negatives onliques liberal and prices today were steady at yesterday's alg advance. A fair proportion of the run consisted of shorn stock. Packers were not after supplies again and as fast as rains arrived the offerings were picked up at good steady prices. Among sales today were wooled ewes at $6.35, the same as yesterday, and a small load of wooled twee at $6.35, a record price for his market. Clipped wethers fetched $10 and clipped ewes $5.90, also very satsfactory figures. Wooled lambs also sold at $8.50, pesterday's extreme limit, and prices.

day and the quality of the offerings rather better than usual. Advices from eastern markets were not very favorable, but the local demand was reasonably good, and there was also a fair inquiry for shipping account, so that values were not a great deal different from yesterday. On the fat, light and handy weight steers the market was active and fully steady. As usual, however, all classes of buyers were discriminating against the heavy stuff and in some cases bids and sales were as much as loc lower.

The supply of cows and helfers fell short of dealer's expectations and the market was active and stronger from stait to finish. Good helfers were in many cases as much as loc higher than a week ago. Veal calves were about steady and buils, stags, etc., steady to a shade lower.

There was not a great deal of life to the stocker and feeder trade, but conditions were pretty much the same as on yesterday. Anything that had the feels and quali-helfers, $2,5000.50; calves, $4.0095.50; calves, $4.0095.50; calves, $4.0097.00.
