

NEW CHURCH IS DEDICATED

Low Avenue Presbyterians Consecrate an Imposing Edifice to God.

DR. W. G. CRAIG OF CHICAGO PREACHES

More People Than Can Be Seated Attend the Ceremonies Conducted Within the Building.

The handsome new edifice of Low Avenue Presbyterian congregation at Fortieth and Nicholas streets was dedicated yesterday afternoon with impressive ceremonies. The act of dedication was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. S. C. Clarke. The sermon of dedication was preached by Rev. Willis G. Craig, D. D., LL. D., of the McCormick Theological seminary, Chicago.

The building was crowded to the doors. With the pastor and Dr. Craig on the platform were: Rev. T. K. Hunter, financial secretary of Bellevue college; Rev. Newman Hall Burdick, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church; Rev. Dr. W. H. Reynolds, pastor of the Castellar Presbyterian church; Rev. Dr. D. E. Jenkins of the Omaha Presbyterian Theological seminary. All these took part in the services.

Dr. Craig during their ministry days. Dr. Craig, in the course of a long life, has dedicated more Presbyterian churches. It is said, than any other minister now living. He took his text from II Chronicles, II: 5, "And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods."

There have been times frequently among the different peoples since the beginning of the Christian era when men have turned their faces away from God and have kept them toward the earth. "And in such a time there has always been someone called to point the way Godward. This divine dedication was performed by the different peoples since the beginning of the Christian era when men have turned their faces away from God and have kept them toward the earth."

Statement of Finances. Dr. H. M. McClanahan, chairman of the building committee, read a report showing the cost of the building to be more than $20,000. At the morning service yesterday $5,000 was raised in pledges among the members. At the afternoon service more than $1,500 additional was raised to apply toward wiping out the indebtedness. Of the latter sum $100 was given by one person who refused to have even the amount stated publicly.

WONDERFUL WORKS OF FAITH

Possibilities of Christian Limited Only by His Trust in God.

Rev. Dr. Leonard Groh spoke yesterday morning at St. Mark's Lutheran church on "Faith," and the New Testament things wrought by the strong and abiding trust of the true Christian.

"The possibilities of the Christian are limited only by the faith which he has," said Dr. Groh. "This is the great keynote which runs throughout the scriptures, the Old and the New Testament. Great things were wrought by the children of Israel by reason of their faith in the olden times. The account of the works of Jesus in the New Testament are full of instances of the workings of this marvelous power. His teachings to His disciples are a perfect mine of information on the wonders of that quality upon which successful Christian activities must be based."

SUNDAY AT THE THEATERS

Roselle Knott in "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire" at the Boyd.

"RICHARD CARVEL" THE BURWOOD SHOW

Good Vaudeville Bill at the Orpheum, Pauline Courtney at the Krug and Ruth Grey at the Lyric.

Miss Roselle Knott and company in "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire," a comedy in three acts, by M. Barrie, at the Boyd theater. The cast: Colonel Grey, recently of the East India army service, Eric Blind Amy Grey, a firm believer in what goes on the lines of the case, an innocent but troubled victim.

"Richard Carvel" at the Burwood. Another play of the same sort, something of the kind in which the company scored such a success last week, is the offering of the Woodward Stock company at the Burwood theater for this week. "Richard Carvel" in four acts, has some very stirring scenes, an intense love story, and is characterized by revolutionary days, and the members of the company take hold to portray exact conditions and passions does them a great deal of credit.

"Prize of Virginia" at the Krug. On Sunday afternoon and evening Miss Pauline Courtney appeared for the first time at the Krug theater in the melting and bewitching character of Virginia Graham in C. H. Banister's four-act drama, "The Prize of Virginia."

Richard Carvel is played by Albert Morrison in a way that thoroughly shows the spirit of those fiery youths in their hates and loves, and his boon companion in time of distress, Captain John Paul, falls to John Davies. The famous old sea fighter is "there" with the fire and noise which made it possible for him to cow his enemies on water.

What Quality Means. Among the best beers, the differences are not largely due to materials. 'Twould be folly to skimp there. Most differences in taste are due to the skill, or the lack of skill, in the brewing. And to the yeast. But quality refers, above all, to the purity. Pure beer has no germs in it, and it does not cause biliousness. It is not only good, but good for you.

Purity is rare because it is costly. And because its lack is not easily noticed. But in Schlitz beer it is the first requirement. We spend more to attain it than on any other cost of our brewing. Ask for the Brewery Bottling. Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz. To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded.

better than the usual run of song illustrations. The Sutcliffe troupe of Scotch musicians and acrobats add novelty to the bill. This family of seven persons appear in correct Highland costumes. The Sutcliffes do some clever acrobatic stunts and while their bagpipe and drum renditions are good of their kind, they do not attract popularity in those parts. Kinross and Moulton offer feats of strength and balancing, some average and some thrilling. The usual interesting kindred pictures conclude the bill.

for his country and the rebel spy, Lute Ransom, whose name is Jack Dunn—and who lives in Council Bluffs, tries to get her lover killed as a federal spy, and doubtless would have succeeded had not Virginia got hold of "those papers" and come to the rescue. Considering that the company is just starting out from Council Bluffs they did well. The house was well filled. The present engagement will continue tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Ruth Grey at the Lyric. Ruth Grey, the mystic, was at the Lyric last night. The house was about half filled. Blindfolded she answered questions which had been written on slips of paper by different ones in the audience, in each instance telling the name of the one who had written the question. Her work was mystifying to those present. Her engagement will continue throughout the week.

TWO LEAKS FOUND IN THE LID. Nothing Doing for "Whisky Squad" Until Well Along in the Afternoon. The demand for cold drinks to quench the thirst as a result of the warm weather yesterday, induced two saloonkeepers to try their luck at keeping open their places of business and they lost. The police were too much for them. The day passed well into the afternoon before any violations of the Stocumb law were discovered, and then Officers Ferris, Dunn and Hill walked into the bar-room at the European hotel, Tenth and Howard streets and bought two bottles of whisky. Then they told the proprietor, John Martig, and the bartender, Thomas Keogh, to go with them to jail.

Followed to her grave by scores of former schoolmates of the Omaha High school and war comrades of her husband, Mrs. Wallace Taylor, wife of Colonel Taylor of the Philippine constabulary, was buried at Forest Lawn cemetery Sunday afternoon. After impressive services at the home of Colonel Taylor's father, Cadet Taylor, 213 Hurt street, at 2 o'clock, Banks of beautiful flowers covered the casket during the sermon by the Rev. E. H. Jenks of the First Presbyterian church, and the singing by the quartet of the same church, and were taken to the cemetery with other floral offerings of friends.

body was brought to Omaha by the husband, who in the death of his wife was doubly bereaved, their child being buried with her. Colonel and Mrs. Taylor had been married but little more than a year, the ceremony having been performed by American missionaries at Hong Kong. GRAVE INJURY FROM FALL. Workman Seriously Hurt Externally and Internally by Descent from Building. Igo Iozzo, an Italian living at 729 South Thirteenth street, was badly injured while at work on the new bottling department building for the Metz Brothers brewery, Sunday forenoon, falling through an aperture in the second floor, eighteen feet to the first floor, striking his head on a pipe. His skull was fractured, both wrists injured, while there were internal and other injuries. Police Surgeon Arnaut was summoned and had the man removed to St. Joseph's hospital in the police ambulance.

False Appeal for Charity. DENVER, April 21.—Meyer Friedman, president of the Denver Chamber of Commerce, after a conference with the officers of the National Jewish Hospital for Consumption today, with their approval issued a protest against the irresponsible utterances made recently concerning health conditions in Denver. He said the efforts of agents to collect funds by arousing sympathy through statements that consumptives by the hundreds were homeless in Denver and lying in the streets were cruelly false and utterly unwarranted. These conditions do not exist in Denver.

The "Most Perfect Food" for Children. Children fed on white flour bread and pastries become pale, flabby and toothless, with no mental or physical vigor. The ideal food for growing children is Shredded Wheat because it contains all the elements for making good brain, healthy tissue and sound teeth. Keeps the stomach sweet and clean, and the bowels healthy and active. For breakfast heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness, pour hot milk over it, add a little cream and a little salt; or, sweeten to taste. Shredded Wheat is also delicious and wholesome for any meal in combination with fresh or preserved fruits. At your grocers.

Iozzo was wheeling a wheelbarrow of cement when he stepped into the hole. New Look Out for Rheumatism. The grip has been unusually prevalent during the past winter, and in many cases is likely to be followed by an attack of muscular rheumatism. This is the most common variety of that disease and least dangerous. There is no swelling of the joints and the pain is not so excruciating as in acute or inflammatory rheumatism. It is sufficiently severe to disable a man, however, and every movement increases the pain. Keep as quiet as possible and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely with a thorough massage, and you are certain to get well.
