ROURKE'S MEN PLAY GOOD UPHILL GAME

Land One to the Good in the Eighth. The Players from Salt Creek Come Back with Three More.

LINCOLN, April 22.—Lincoln got a 1 to 6 victory from Omaha today in a game wherein the playing by both teams was alternately brilliant and stupid. The locals deserved to win so far as hitting is concerned, but they spoiled their efforts with the stick by taking too desperate chances on the base lines. Zackert's wildness and errors of the men behind him were responsible for most of Omaha's runs. Jones relieved Zackert in the seventh, and once he had warmed up the visitors could do little with him. DES MOINES, April 22.—The champs took the second from Pueblo today by timely hitting. The game was a good one and Ryan, Miller pitched best as each for the locals, and though men were frequently on base, the Indians had few chances to score because of his steady work.

DETROIT, April 22.—The home team had the better of a hitting contest with Cleveland today. Score:

CORBETT PUNZES GREATLY. ST. LOUIS, April 22.—Corbett's effective pitching beats the Athletics in the Denver-St. Louis city game today by a score of 5 to 2. Hall was hit hard and the Denver hitters accorded him wobbly support at critical times. In the fifth errors by Zalusky and Hall enabled the St. Louis to drive in two runs after the side should have been retired. Score:

WHY ALTROCK IS SO EFFECTIVE. Keeps Eagle Eye on First Base, Says.

"Nick Altrock is one of the hardest pitchers in the world to beat, because he doesn't give base runners a chance to steal on him," says Frank Seibe, the former manager of the Chicago Cubs.
