

FIGHT ON TWO-CENT FARE

Union Pacific Intimates Railroads May Take Matter into Court.

OFFICIAL WRITES TO THE COMMISSION

George E. Lean May Not Be Appointed to the Position of Bank Examiner, as Secretary Thinks He Does Not Need Him.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., April 29.—(Special Telegram.)—That the railroads of the state are still contemplating resistance to the 2-cent passenger rate law was manifested by a letter received from a Union Pacific official by the Railway commission this morning.

Another reason for not reorganizing the passenger schedules of the state are still in Iowa and Missouri do not go into effect for two or three months yet, and to make up new interstate schedules now, for the benefit of Nebraska people only, would involve a great deal of trouble and expense.

The Armour refrigerator car line has refused to comply with the request of the commission and submit its rate schedules.

Quaint and Curious Features of Life in a Rapidly Growing State. After all, the present weather makes the "torrid season" shorter in the west.

Consolation at Bloomington

If the cold weather that killed all of the fruit, has resulted in killing all bugs that are detrimental to small grains, we can raise enough extra wheat, oats and corn to enable us to buy a few prunes for use next winter.

Chickens Are Deceived

A Norfolk citizen has solved the chicken nuisance. A neighbor, who prides himself on his garden, has heretofore been considerably annoyed each season by the citizen's chickens.

Discoveries in Thurston County

Our county superintendent has discovered some bad ones among the teachers under his authority. One leaves her school to see the mail carrier every time he passes.

Luck Not Appreciated

One of our subscribers took us to task this week for failing, as he remarked, to publish all that happened. It was fortunate for this particular individual.
