WILL J. J. HILL SHAVE, TOO

Order Abolishing Beards of Burlington Starts Colonel Bill to Thinking.

"I see James J. Hill's Burlington company has issued orders that after June 1, none of its conductors shall wear mustache or beard," observed Colonel Bill. "I have been wondering if Mr. Hill would set the example by shearing his own luxuriant locks. His beard is so thick and heavy as to be actually shaggy; in fact, it obscures all but a small portion of his face. The order says conductors with clean shaven faces will appear 'more business-like.' Well, maybe so; maybe a man with a neat, close-fitting mustache will look better with it off—and maybe not. But if it would make him more business-like why wouldn't it make his boss more business-like to get a lawn mower at work in that tall growth on his face?

"Now, I tell you, this order is going to work a hardship in at least one case—maybe more. But I know a conductor on the Burlington who wears a mustache that certainly would not look more business-like with it cut off. The lower part of his upper lip was hewed off when he was a youngster and he simply looks frightful without that mustache. Why, if you were to meet that man bare-faced at night with a lighted match between his teeth you would have the kimmies. His lip is like a pair of high-water trousers.

"The Burlington's order may be adopted by some conductors, but I'll bet this fellow will quit the road before he will shave off that bulwark of his beauty."

HEAVY SNOW IN MILWAUKEE

Lakes Section of Wisconsin Visited by Precipitation Which Lays on the Ground.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 30.—A rain and sleet storm last night developed into a heavy fall of snow. During the night six inches of snow fell in Milwaukee and vicinity, most of which covers the ground this morning, the weather being cold enough to prevent melting. The storm was confined principally to the lake section.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—Snow covers the entire state of Iowa from a depth of from three to eight inches. In Des Moines and central Iowa it is eight inches according to government report. Interviews with leading horticulturists today indicate that all the small fruit is irretrievably killed. The snow will do much good to grain and pastures, but the damage to fruit and some of the truck gardening is inestimable.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., April 30.—Snow today in the southern part of this county ranges from three to eight inches in depth. The snow is said to have entirely ruined small early fruits
