PRICE RECESSIONS SMALL IN AGRAINS Light Showers in Kanse 'gar'redictions of Further Prociption

Cause Easier Tone Dull Market.

OMAHA, Ar 10, 1907. More light showers reported. Kansas amed a fruther decline in we prices, although the receasions were a but the general tone was easier. The dire market weakened slightly and fining was very light. Prices hardened ship lear the close, with more commer displaye. Wheat receipts were liber except at Minneapolis and the Liver il market showed weakeness, with sympty with the break here yesterday. The reign crop situation is generally favered, although complishes or coid weather reported from Bulgaria.

complaints of cold weather reported from Bulgaria.

Liverpool was a good buyed September wheat and the Russian crophilook is unchanged. Light showers relied in Kansas and the prediction wastr continued showers Wednesday. Unused weather in other sections of the wastlet was predicted and was the character for the light depression in prices May wheat opened attady at 73c and and declined by. July and September options were steadier, however, and dilated only to. Closing prices were stead. There was only modern speculative activity in corn and receipts ere light. Sunstantial sales for export are reported and cables were firmer and dightly higher. May and July corn decled only to on light trading and the cle was dull and firm.

Oats were steady and he cash market for the better grades as considerably stronger, but poorer gras were lower and in little demand. Offerlis were light and the market declined onlies.

HA port gave 54 as the condition of winter who at against 59 as estimated by the government experts. The scenningly great disparity is figures was accounted for on the theory that the state report was based 52 statistics secured much later than those compiled by the government and after the crop had been subjected to the blighting effects of the drouth, which was now at an end. The selling was less urgent during the last half hour of trading and prices made a fair recovery. The close was fairly steady. July opened unchanged to the lower at $35,623c, sold off to $1c and closed at $15,3613c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to $5,000 bushels. Primary receipts were $35,000 bushels, against $29,000 bushels for the same time a year ago.

Minneapolis Duluth and Chicago reported receipts at $55 cars, against $25 cars last week and $26 cars a year ago.

The corn market was weak on active selling by longs and commission houses. The break is wheat prices was the chief depressing influence. The market closed easy. July opened unchanged to big higher at $15,000 sold of to $15,000 husher at $15,000 sold off to $15,000 husher at $15,000 husher a very good as a rule today, although there was the usual scarcity of strictly prime beeves.

The market was slow in opening as dressed beef men did not appear to have overly liberal orders to fill and seemed to feel that the ample supply would give them every opportunity to make their purchases on a lower basis. Early bids were generally loc lower on the bulk of the offerings and while competition for the fat, light and handy weight grades was good enough to prevent any serious decline on this class of stuff the market was dull, dragging and pretty close to loc lower all around on the heavy and common grades.

There were probably fifty straight loads of cows and helfers on the the market and the active outside demand prevented any serious decline on this class of stuff. In fact, desirable helfery grades found a ready sale at strong prices and one hunch of foopound helfers brought $5.10, the high price of the season. Veal calves generally sold in about the same notches as toward the close of last week and the market was not far from steady.

The supply of stockers and feeders included in today's receipts was comparatively small and it did not take long for dealers to effect a clearance at righ around steady quotations. The good fleshy steers were perhaps a little more active than they have been lately, but there was no noticeable improvement in the demand for the lighter grades.

HOGS—There was a very heavy run of hogs both here and at other western markets, and this fact, together with the bearlish advices from eastern points, created a very weak feeling and resulted in the 500c decline in prices all along the line. As usual of late, buyers picked up the light and bacon grades readily, but were inclined to be decidedly indifferent and bearlish on the heavy and packing grades, and these were slow and unsatisfactory sellers from start to finish, the market closing at the low point of the day. Tops brought $6.0, as against $8.55 yesterday and the bulk of trading was at $2506.30 as against $8.55 westerday.
