MAY FIXTURES SHORT IN WEIGHT

Sold Bronze Chandeliers Found to Be Plated Cast Iron—Pieces Costing $5 a Pound Found 20 Per Cent Short.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 1.—More testimony on the transaction by which S. Marshall Williams at Harrisburg an unsuccessful bidder for the $200,000 worth of electrical fixtures in the state capital, was loaned $10,000 on an undorsed note last August, will be taken by the Capitol investigating commission this week.

Yesterday, when on the stand, Williams refused to deny that Congressman H. Ford Casel of Lancaster had loaned him the $10,000 about the time he ceased trying to "get square politically" with Senator F. Short, editor of the Clearfield Republican, a democratic newspaper, will be called today.

Former State Treasurer Involved. The commission declines in advance of its meeting to disclose the name of witness. It is known, however, that John F. Short, editor of the Clearfield Republican, a democratic newspaper, will be called today.

Experts employed by the commission have found that chandeliers, standards and side brackets, furnished the state by Sander's Pennsylvania Bronze company, are under weight.

Spills for the Gang. Mrs. Walter Anthon, owner of a marble quarry, told the commission that State Architect Houston and Contractor Sander had approached her relative to supplying marble for the state house.
