

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM IOWA

COUNCIL BLUFFS

Office, 15 Scott St. Tel. 43.

MIROR MENTION

Davis, drugs. Blockett sells carpets. Ed Rogers' Tony Faust beer.

MAYOR IS TIRED OF DELAY

Presents to the Council an Ordinance Fixing Water Rates.

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Makes Material Reduction From the Rates in the Ordinance Compiled by Engineer Kiersted for the Committee.

MAKES MATERIAL REDUCTION FROM THE RATES IN THE ORDINANCE COMPILED BY ENGINEER KIERSTED FOR THE COMMITTEE.

Mayor Macrae, evidently despairing of the special committee of which Councilman Wallace is chairman, doing anything, submitted at the meeting of the city council last night an ordinance containing a schedule of water rates. This ordinance was drawn at the mayor's request by Earl A. Tinley, the legal firm specially employed by the city in the water works matter.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

PLENTY OF WORK FOR COURT

May Term of Supreme Tribunal Likely to be of Exceptional Length.

BARRIER IS RELEASED FROM PRISON

Governor Has Two Days More in Which to Sign or Veto Bills in His Possession Which Were Passed by the Last Legislature.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, May 6.—(Special.)—There will be but two sittings of the supreme court in the May term. One of those will begin tomorrow and the other will begin June 4. As a result the sittings of the court will be somewhat longer as half of the cases from the entire state will be up for hearing at each sitting instead of one quarter as heretofore. The hearings of the court will run over to next week considerably. At the sitting beginning tomorrow morning cases from Lee, Louisa, Henry, Des Moines, Monroe, Wapello, Van Buren, Lucas, Jefferson, Davis, Appanoosa, Decatur, Wayne, Union, Woodbury, O'Brien, Plymouth, Sioux, Cherokee, Osceola, Madison, Dallas, Marion, Guthrie, Warren, Mahaska, Washington, Jasper, Poweshiek, Keokuk, Scott, Muscatine, Delaware, Grundy, Hardin, Boone, Webster, Hamilton, Story, Wright, Franklin, Bremer, Winnebago, Mitchell, Allamakee, Fayette, Howard, Palo Alto, Kosciusko, Clay, Dickinson, Buena Vista, Ringgold and Polk will be argued. Cases from all the rest of the counties of the state will be heard at the June sitting and the cases from Pottawattamie county will be the first called at the June sitting.

NO PLACE SET FOR JONES' HEARING

Fire and Police Commission Suspends the Chief.

Although "official" announcement has been made that the Fire and Police commission will hear the charges against Chief Jones of the fire department Wednesday morning, it is not known where the hearing will be held. It has been suggested that the hearing be conducted in the city council chamber, so that the public, which is interested, could attend, but this, it is stated yesterday by a member of the commission, was not to the liking of that body.

LEADER FIGHTS COMMITTEE

Because of slight delay in the booster committee of the city gave to the labor circles a letter has been written by the labor leaders of the city to the order of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen informing them of some of the conditions in Des Moines as between capital and labor. The booster committee is trying to get the order to move its headquarters to this city. The booster committee neglected to have a union labor man on the committee and hence the letter. It is intimated by the labor union men that the letter will not assist much in getting the order to move to Des Moines. When the booster committee first started in business a few months ago it decided to get out a button. Later in the day when the button was put on sale it developed that the button was not wanted and the union men would not buy them. Members of the booster committee say that there is not a member on the committee who is there because he represents any interest, the members being selected solely on their ability to boost the cause. The labor union men say that is all the more reason for surprise at the absence of a union labor man.

BARRIER RELEASED FROM PRISON

George Burrier, convicted some years ago as one of the gang of diamond robbers that stole the Pay diamonds at Clinton, Ia., was released from the penitentiary at Port Madison today on a parole from Governor Cummins. Burrier was sentenced some years ago and has served the equivalent of a sentence of eight years with the good time off. Unless he keeps the terms of the parole he can be returned to the penitentiary without further trial of court.

RESTAURANT KEEPER STABBED

John Boudewyn, proprietor of a restaurant at 621 Mulberry street, was stabbed by O. G. Guffey at an early hour this morning. The restaurant is an all-night place. Guffey, who was intoxicated at the time, was soon after arrested and is now in custody. Boudewyn is in a critical condition and is not expected to recover. He was stabbed in the back.

HAS TWO DAYS MORE

Governor Cummins has two days more in which to sign or veto the three bills that remain in his possession. Wednesday is the last day on which he can act, or does not act, so that they will become law without his signature. One is the law relating to the sale of land belonging to the state that has been created by the Des Moines river changing its course. The other two are the smoke nuisance law and the law amending the inebriate law. The governor has indicated his intention as to the smoke nuisance law. It applies to cities of a population of Des Moines only and so affects only this city. He told business men he would sign it unless the city enacts an ordinance covering the matter. The city council has drafted along and the indications are the governor will sign the bill. There is reason to believe that at least one of the other two bills will be vetoed.

VOELKER BECOMES LECTURER

Prof. F. F. Voelker, who was superintendent of schools at Ackley, Ia., and later at Ida Grove and is now professor of German in Drake university, will next fall take to the lecture platform. Prof. Voelker has been prominent in the annual conventions of the State Teachers' association for the past several years and gained some prominence while connected with the Ida Grove schools by his stand for pure athletics among high schools and for the eliminations of all persons as contestants who were not bona fide attendants and members of the high school.

SHIPPING SAND FROM SHENANDOAH

SHENANDOAH, Ia., May 6.—(Special Telegram.)—B. E. Hutchins of Des Moines closed the preliminary today for a sand pumping plant which will be established here this coming season. He expects to ship 1,000 cars a year from here.

IDEAL FOR CHILDREN

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CEREAL FOOD makes the children plump and strong and prevents sour stomach and constipation. The best food for growing children, invalids and the aged. 10 cents a package. For sale by all Grocers.

Express THIS On Your Mind. There are just two kinds of Corn Flakes. One is the genuine—the other 14 are mere upshots—worthless imitations, placed on the market in less than a year. The intention of the imitator is to confuse you, by copying the name and package of the original. It is their business to profit by the wonderful demand for "Corn Flakes" which was created by the delicious flavor of the GENUINE TOASTED CORN FLAKES. But just remember: It took ten years to perfect this flavor. It is the product of the world's greatest food experts. The process of preparing is known only to the makers. And it cannot be copied. That is why we want to impress upon your mind the importance of the signature of K.K. Kellogg. It appears only on the package of the genuine. Look for it when you buy. It is your absolute guide in getting the right Corn Flakes—the only one with a real flavor. At all Grocers. A large package 10c. Battle Creek Toasted Corn Flake Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HOW SHOULD GOLFERS DIET?

Problem that Confronts Players at the Season's Opening.

ANOTHER FEATURE OF THE GAME SPRUNG

Whether to Hunt or to Eat Freely a Mooted Point—Odds Seem to Favor Consumers of Hearty Viands.

What food shall a golfer eat to play at his best? It is a question that is puzzling more than one player now that the tournament season has opened. More than one tournament has been seen by a player who has hunted the lobster palace until 3 a. m., each day of the contest and presumably trained on toasted cheese and champagne. To the contrary, more than one lost match has been blamed to a too heavy breakfast or luncheon. Who shall decide this vexing question?

WORK ON RURAL MAIL ROUTES

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The report of the operations of the rural delivery service up to May 1st, made public today by the fourth assistant postmaster general, shows that the total number of petitions for the service received up to that date was 54,837, upon which 15,827 adverse reports have been made. There are in operation 2,197 rural routes, served by 2,447 regular carriers. A balance of $1,349,478 remains of the appropriation for new service during the current fiscal year.

HALEY BROUGHT FOR TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Theodore V. Haley, former business agent of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, who is under indictment on charges of having bribed members of the Board of Supervisors in order to secure a franchise for that corporation, arrived here today from Manila on the steamer China, in custody of Captain Trowbridge of the Philippine coast guard.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Book containing valuable information free. The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES

Two hours of the session were consumed in the reading of a number of revised ordinances submitted by G. W. Scott, who is compiling the ordinances. One of these ordinances governing the duties, etc., of the mayor is to conform with the law as amended by the recent legislature, which gives the mayor considerably increased power. It places in the hands of the mayor instead of the city council the appointment and supervision of street and sidewalk commissioner, poll tax collector, city physician or health officer, superintendent of markets, which was formerly an elective office; poundmaster, custodian of city building, city electrician and chief of the police department. The only appointment left with the city council is that of city clerk.

City Scavenger. I haul dead animals, $1.00 per head. Garbage, nails, manure and all rubbish; clean vaults and cesspools. All work done is guaranteed. Calls promptly attended to. Ind. Phone 1229 Y. Bell Red 1873. J. H. SHERLOCK

Without Alcohol. A Strong Tonic. A Body Builder. A Blood Purifier. A Great Alternative. A Doctor's Medicine. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. We have no secret. We publish the formula of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Ditch Contract to be Transferred. The Western Dredging company of Omaha, which encountered so many obstacles in its work on the Boyer cutoff ditches, forming part of the drainage system now being carried out by Harrison and Pottawattamie counties, and which came near having its contract annulled recently

Here to Stay. We are daily receiving new lots of shoes and are selling them at our usual low prices. Dunlop Shoe Co. Lace curtains. Stockert Carpet Co.