

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Covering of Short Causes Sensational Advance in Wheat Options

Advances in wheat options were caused by sensational covering of shorts. Corn and oats were strong in sympathy with wheat...

OTHER GRAINS STRONG IN SYMPATHY

Large foreign shipments, decrease in visible supply and unfavorable weather forecast caused sharp upward movement.

OMAHA, May 6, 1907.

The market opened strong, though cables were lower and the receipts were large. Weather conditions were very favorable...

Wheat opened lower on account of heavy rains and heavy damage to crops in the southwest wheat belt.

There was good buying of July and September options by commission houses.

World's wheat shipments were 12,800,000 bushels against 12,500,000 bushels last year.
