The trial of the suit of Moyer against the Council Bluffs Nursery company in the district court came to a standstill yesterday at the close of the evidence for the plaintiff, pending the ruling of Judge Rice on a motion to take the case from the jury.

When the officers went to Dalley's house he admitted firing the shot, but claimed he shot in the air and not with the intention of hitting any of the boys. Dalley is said to be of quiet and orderly habits, but on account of his eccentricities has been made. It is said, the butt of boys in that neighborhood, was returning home from Cochran park and had reached the corner of Broadway and Twenty-third street in front of W. L. Smith's grocery store when they encountered Dalley, who is said to be somewhat eccentric.

Edward Ryan, 1520 Fifth avenue, filed an information against his wife, Johanna Rice, with being insane, and asked that she be committed to St. Bernard's hospital. The commissioners will investigate the case today.

William E. Bushy and daughters, Lillian and Helen, of 2044 Fifth avenue, left last evening for New York, where they will visit relatives and from where they will return later to spend the summer at their home.

Other Indictments Returned. City Solicitor Kimball will appear at the hearing of the Police commission at the hearing before Judge Wheeler in district court in matter of the quo warranto proceedings brought by State Senator Saunders on behalf of Fire Chief Jones.

The fire department was called yesterday morning to the premises of Samuel Christensen, 1001 Avenue P, where a small outbuilding and some dried grass were set on fire.

The blaze was quickly extinguished and the damage was immaterial.
