tempted sacrifice. Thomas went to third on Gagnier's hit, which, in itself, was a scratch as the ball hit Ragan on the shin and bounded out to right field when with the horseshoe present it would have been an out. Thomas scored on a passed ball, something very unusual for Johnny Gon-

Omnha Ties the Score. Omaha tied the score in the fifth inning Graham led off with a safe hit, his second of the game, and went to second when Gonding was hit in the ribs. Both advanced a base on a passed hall and Graham scored on Ragan's safe clout, his second of the game. The ball went back of abort and too far in for Davidson and neither could touch it. Two on bases and none out. The bunting game was tried and falled miserably. No more runs were brought across the plate when, with three hitters like Belden, Franck and Autrey, it looked as though Omaha should have scored. Belden tried to bunt and Gonding was caught at third. Franck hit to Steen, who caught Ragan at third, and Autrey flew out to Fenion. That, however, tied the score.

The Rourke family took a lead of one run in the seventh lining in this manner: Gagnier fumbled Gooding's dustraiser and Sonding advanced two bases on the outfield outs of Ragan and Belden and scored on Franck's single. The fans were resting quite comfortably, as Ragan was pitching magnificent ball and it looked as though the game was won.

Bad Period for Omaha. The eighth tuning was disastrous for Omaha. Zinran hit a hard ball just inside the third sack and was sacrificed to second by McKay, Ragan hit Ketchem and passed Fox, filling the bases with one out. Fenion hit to Graham, who had plenty of time to catch Zinran at the home plate, but he threw wide and Gonding had to pull his foot off the plate to reach the ball. The mighty Davidson struck out and Thomas came to bat. Ragan had him struck out according to popular judgment (but here is where the majority does not rule), and that would have left the score a tie, but Umpire Brennan, who was at the sack, ruled otherwise. Thomas hit the next ball for a single too far in for Autrey to reach and Ketchem and Fox scored. Fenion was caught napping at second and the inning was over, but Lincoln was two runs to the good and that was enough to win the game: The score: LINCOLN.

An even split on the series was the best Omaha could do with Lincoln after shutting them out twice.

Graham broke his long silence by making two hits, one of which was quite timely, as he circled the bases afterward for Omaha's first run.

Ragan was pitching some ball when he struck out seven of the first tweive outs made by Omaha. A few misstrokes, however, were enough to lose the game.

ever, were enough to lose the game.

There was no doubt in the minds of all the fans sitting back of the catcher that the bail which would have retired Thomas split the plate, but the umpire said no.

Gagnier's hit was full of luck, for ordinarly it would have gone where some infielder would have captured it after bounding off Ragan's shins, but instead it scooted out to Belden's garden.

College Team Applies the Bryan Ratio for the Score. The famous ratio of 16 to 1 was revived on the Creighton diamond yesterday, when the Blue Bonnets defeated the Fort Crook soldiers. The students were successful in finding the vacent lots and the soldiers would have been shut out but for a timely two-bagger in the fourth which brought in a score.

two-bagger in the fourth which brought in a score.

Until the sixth inning it was a hit and run and it was here the problem occurred. Fishback was on third, Delaney on second and Fitzgerald on first. The batter signaled for the first ball and Fishback went down while Fitzgerald and Delaney had leads. The ball was thrown to first, where it was held awaiting the action of the base-runners. The play resulted in the put-out of Fitzgerald and Delaney leaving Fishback on second.

After this inning the college boys played a bunting game and succeeded in seoring two runs.
