There was heavy selling for profits, as well as short selling, throughout the entire sa-sion and prices declined sharply at times, but slaways milled. During the last fifteen minutes of trading prices dropped abruptly on belated realizing sales. September de-livery touched a new low level for the day. Renewed support from the bulls, together with covering of short lines, however, caused a rally, the market closing firm. thousand acres of valuable oil lands on the unceded portion of the reservation and today left for Washington to confer with his associates in the deal as to their plans for the immediate development of this valuable tract. Oil springs exist in several places in this field, it being an extension of the Lander anti-clinal, in which no less than thirteen flowing wells have been drilled without a single dry hole having been found,

Many Claims Contested. LANDER, Wyo., May 20.-(Special.)-Sat-urday was the last day for homestead filings on the Shoshone reservation under he soldiers' declaratory statements filed last fall, and also for making actual settlement by those who filed on homesteads at that time. In consequence many valuable claims have become open to contest, and ontests have been filed in many cases.

Ask Twenty Cents for Wool.

LANDER, Wyo., May 20.-(Special.)-Freiont county wool growers are standing out for 29 cents for this year's clip, and it is thought that most of them will get it, as the wool is clean and the quality good.
