NEBRASKANS AT LOS ANGELES
 Several Educators of this State Will Take Prominent Parts in N. E. A.

The convention which marks the fiftieth anniversary of the existence of the National Educational Association will be held at Los Angeles July 8 to 15, and the city is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of delegates and visitors who are expected to arrive in large numbers. Reduced railway rates, as usual, under restrictions as to tickets, have been granted by all the railroads west of Chicago, with stopover privileges and extensions which will permit a visit to the Pacific coast until September 10.
 The program of the convention is of considerable interest and several Nebraska educators are to be heard on subjects of importance. In the department of secondary education Prof. George W. Lucey of the University of Nebraska will take part in the discussion of the subject of "Preparation of the High School Teacher." Miss Ada L. Atkinson of the Omaha High school will tell of the value of the note book in history classes. In the department of higher education Prof. W. A. Clark of the Kearney Normal school will discuss "The Pedagogical Laboratory in the Scientific Study of Education."
 In the department of school administration State Superintendent J. I. O'Brien will talk of the "School Board Management of Public Libraries from the View Point of the School Board," and James H. Canfield, formerly chancellor of the state university, but now of New York City, will tell of the same matter from the view point of the librarian.
 E. C. Bishop, state superintendent, will conduct the round table conference on agricultural education, and Miss Ruth E. Fyrite of Lincoln will discuss "Agricultural Education as Related to Domestic Science and Manual Training—How the Work May Be Done Without School Equipment or School Funds."

Two Men Are Bound Over
 Alleged Burglars Are Sent from Police to District Court for Trial.

Two prisoners were bound over to the district court by Judge Crawford in police court Wednesday morning on charges of breaking and entering, one instance being that of a carpenter whose tools were stolen and who found them at the police station when he went there to report his loss.

The first burglar to be bound over was Harry Kelly, who was arrested at Blumenthal's pawn shop, 25 South Twelfth street, late Tuesday afternoon by Officer Fahey while trying to dispose of a kit of tools. Kelly was intoxicated and the proprietor of the pawnshop reported the matter to the police. It was believed Kelly had stolen the tools and they were held until the next morning, when D. A. Steadman appeared at the police station to report the disappearance of his kit from the barn of Samuel Alcock, 1813 Chicago street. The charge of burglary against Kelly followed and his being held to the district court.

Richard Burns, a young man of about 25 years, was the next to be held on the same serious charge. Young Burns was charged with breaking into the home of W. M. Thomas, 1633 Howard street, early Monday morning and prying open Thomas' trunk, stealing a watch, two razors and a suit case. One of the razors was found on his person when he was arrested. Burns was waived examination and were held in bonds of $250 each.

COAL MEN STATE THEIR SIDE
 Say They Cannot Get Orders for Early Delivery of Fuel Filled.

Some local coal dealers arise to remark, in reply to W. L. Park of the Union Pacific, that the blame for not getting early supplies of winter fuel may not rest entirely upon the merchants, but partially at least upon the railroad owning this coal.
 "We sent an order to the Union Pacific Coal company-owned, as everybody knows, by the owners of the Union Pacific railroad—for ten cars of Hanna and ten cars of Rock Springs coal to be delivered by August 1. We received a letter from the company stating that it would be impossible for it to comply with our request and therefore 'cannot accept our order.' This statement was made by A. B. Cook, president of the Union Fuel company, 1514 Farnam street. He added: "So you see what the coal dealers are up against. I read the letter or interview of Mr. Park with much concern, knowing then more of the inside facts of the case than the public know. Mr. Park is right in saying supplies of coal should be laid in early, but how is that possible if the supply companies, like his own, refuse to accept the order? I merely mention this matter to let the people know both sides of the case."
 "We have not been able to get a car of Rock Springs coal since last September. We had an order in, but the Union Pacific cancelled it last December."
 "Now, we are going to do our best to prevent a coal famine here next winter, such as Mr. Park warns us against, but in order fully to succeed we shall have to be given the co-operation of such concerns as the one Mr. Park speaks for."

DATE OF HUNTLEY OPENING
 Twenty-Sixth of June Time Set for Opening of Irrigated Land.

June 26 is the date set for the opening of the Huntley land project in Montana for settlement. This is the most important of all the government openings to date, as the land is in the most finished state. Settlers lucky enough to draw in this opening will receive either forty or eighty acres of land all ready for cultivation, with the water at the very gates and ready to turn on for irrigation. The project comprises 33,000 acres on which the government has expended over $4,000,000 to put it in a state of readiness not heretofore reached on any other project. The townships are all ready for settlement and have electrical power and telephones all ready to install.
 When the Burlington heard of the date of the opening prompt steps were immediately taken for the establishment of rates for all who wish to register. The registration probably will begin two or three days in advance of the opening. Even the preliminary announcement of the opening which was made a few days ago brought forth volumes of inquiries and now that the dates have been decided upon the Burlington will put on extra forces to handle the correspondence which is sure to flood in.
 "Of all the government lotteries for the opening of large tracts of land this is the most unique," said L. W. Wakeley, general passenger agent of the Burlington, Wednesday morning, upon receipt of the telegram announcing the date. "It is unique in that it is a drawing for irrigated land which has an immediate value. Near the town a man may have a forty-acre tract and farther away he may have an eighty-acre tract. All this land has an estimate value of $60 an acre immediately, and the cost, with ten years to pay for it without interest, is but $30 an acre, of which about $20 is to be paid down."

NIGHT PROWLER REAL BUSY
Lone House Burglar Picks Out One Block and Does It Systematically.

A night prowler operated industriously in the neighborhood of Forty-first and Nicholas streets Tuesday night, breaking a number of houses, but securing little booty so far as the police have learned. The home of James Barrett, 429 Nicholas street, was entered through a window and $150 in cash secured. The Walker home at 417 and that of Mrs. Gibbs at 416 of the same street were others broken into by raising windows, a watch and $2 in cash being secured at the former place and $130 and a ring at the latter.

A man was heard trying to get into F. W. Snow's house, 640 Charles street, about 1 o'clock in the morning, but he was frightened away. He was tampering with a window also and it is believed he was the same busy burglar.

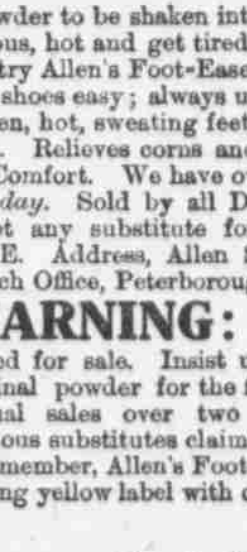

Other thefts of the night were a large number of tools from the new building at Eighteenth and Farnam streets, belonging to Harry Strasser, 320 Hartney street. Mrs. Eric Nelson, 318 North Twenty-third street, is minus eighteen chickens she once owned and kept in her chicken coop most of them being Plymouth Rocks. Mattie Stewart, 42 North Fourteenth street, said a bracelet and stick pin had disappeared from her room, but she did not know when he was about to return across the river. While waiting for a car the man

NEW FACTORY FOR OMAHA
 Manufacturing Plant for Patent Washing Machines is Located at Tenth and Clark.

With the backing of a number of prominent Omaha business men, a new industry for the manufacture of patent washing machines has been started in a large and complete plant near the southwest corner of Tenth and Clark streets. The new company, which was incorporated May 15, is known as the Key Manufacturing company, of which Peter F. Key of Albert Lea, Minn., is president and Robert N. Burgess, the shirt manufacturer, is vice president and treasurer. The other local men interested in the project are G. M. Barnes, who is in the optical business; T. L. Trout of Wright & Wilhelm, and George E. Reiff, who was formerly connected with the Standard Printing company.
 The new corporation has taken out papers under the laws of this state and acquired title to the patent rights of the Albert Lea Manufacturing company of Albert Lea, Minn., whose plant was burned last fall.
 Mr. Key, who was president of the Albert Lea company, decided Omaha was the ideal city for the establishment of the new plant and interested local capital in the project, with the result that the plant at Tenth and Clark streets was bought.
 About a dozen skilled workmen at the Omaha plant are employed and the factory is working to its capacity, as a large trade has been worked up in surrounding territory.
 The excruciating pains from corns or bunions may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm.
