Trouble Follows Decision of Umpire and He is Compelled to Enforce Order by Drnatte

Method.

Ragan and Gifford had their day at the Vinton street park Thursday afternoon on the last game Des Moines is to play in Omaha for some time and when the battle was over Omaha had won the game by the score of 2 to 1. Gifford had to prove to Des Moines that he was running the game, but to do that he had to put four of the Des Moines players out of the game, then put three of them out of the grounds and afterwards put a couple on the bench. It all happened in the first inning-that is, a greater part of the trouble happened

Des Moines had been retired, one-twothree, and Omaha came to bat. Belden was walked and stole second. In trying to catch him on the steal Shannon threw wild and Belden went to third, none being out. The trouble arose over whether Beltien stole second. Gifford said he had not, but the entire Des Moines team sur rounded him, claiming he had struck at the ball. Before they would resume play Gifford had put Dexter, Shannon and Gothnaur out of the game.

Players Ordered from Grounds. This quieted the bunch down a little, but in the fourth inning Andreas tried to act smart by sitting down at short while play was on and Gifford sent him to the bench. In the meanwhile the barred players were too vociferous from the bench and Gifford ordered them from the grounds. They were slow in going and he called a couple of policemen to make them hurry. Later quiet them. Des Moines was well hooked up with subs and until Andreas went out was forced to use but one pitcher, Gehring, and he made two of the three hits the Champions made

Ragan was in magnificent form, as was Clark, for that matter, as the Omaha team made but two hits and Ragan made both

OMAHA DEFEATS CHAMPIONS of those. Began struck out every man on the Des Moines team. In the second ininning he struck out three after he had Umpire Gifford Sends Des Moines Flayers passed the first two men up. He struck out thirteen altogether and allowed but three hits and these were scattered. To make it more of a gala day for himself GAME IS WON IN THE SECOND INNING Ragan made both the hits made by the Rourke family and the first brought in all the runs made by Omaha. He pitched himself out of several tight holes.

When Omaha Scored. Omaha made two runs in the second in ning. Dolan fouled out to Dashwood and Austin reached first when Yeager, who had come to to play first when Dexter went out, dropped a thrown ball. Graham walked and each advanced a base when Godwin missed the ball thrown by Dashwood to eatch Austin at second. Gonding fouled out to Schipke and Ragan hit a torker over the first baseman's head, which brought Austin and Graham home.

Des Motnes scored one in the eighth, after Dashwood had struck out. Ragan passed Clark and Schipke and things began to look had when Yeager flow out to Welch, Gehring was the next man up and he landed for a double into Autrey's garden, on which Clark scored, but Schipke was held at third and Corkhill failed to stage. Score: make good. The score:

Notes of the Game, There is surely plenty of excitement when les Moines is in town.

Des Moines is in town.

Hogriever was out of the game with tonslittis, so he was not in the mixup.

The Des Moine steam made a mistake when it undertook to bully Mr. Gifford.

Thirteen strikeouts is something of a record when it is registered against the Des Moines team.

Joe Dolan made a pretty one-handed stop by catching the ball in his glove hand and still holding onto the sack.

Adams Too Much for Stoux.

DENVER, May 23.—Rain fell during to-day's game almost from the calling of time. Adams was again at his best, Sloux City getting two hits in the first inning and only two more in all the rest of the game. Denver began hitting in the fourth inning and drove the ball about pretty lively from that time on. The rain made the balls so wet that the unnire kept constantly changing them. Score:

Lincoln Wins Early. PUEBLO, Colo., May 23.—Jackson was given miserable support in the first three given miserable support in the first three innings and Lincoln secured enough runs to make the contest one-sided throughout. After the third the visitors could do nothing with Jackson and the contest was a good one. In the third inning consecutive bunts toward first base, all of which inned safe, threw the locals up in the air and Lincoln nested five runs. The air and Lincoln nested five runs. The locals' first run came in the fifth inning on Cook's two-bagger and Melchior's single. Two passes and Melchior's single brought in the other run in the seventh. New Catcher for Omaha. New Catcher for Omaha.

Omaha will have another catcher for the team when the aggregation leaves for Dea Moinea. His name is La Brandt and he hails from Bedalta, Mo. Frank Selee had a call on him during the first part of the season, but he chose rather to keep Tonneman, because he could play first base as well. Captain Franck says he thinks La Brandt will strengthen the team, as he looks good to him.

Dashwood fried to duck a pitched ball and it lit him on the top of his head. It looked to the fans as if he was trying to let it so by to hit the umpire.

Franck and Austin got nearly all the assists, and they took them all except in the last Inning, when a grounder hit Franck on the arm by bounding crooked.

The fact that the Des Moines players were put out of the game made no difference as far as Omaha runs were concerned. The only difference therefore was that the regulars might have made a hit or two.

MITCHELL, S. D., May 22.—Special Telegram.)—Notwithstanding a half inch of rain fell this morning at an early hour, spotling the track for the college athletica, the sports were resumed this afternoon with a fairly good track except for the long distance races. Mitchell was selected this morning as the place for holding the athletic contests next year and the oratorical association will also be held here. Considerable ill feeling was manifested over a decision of the judges in the 100-yard dash, which they declared a tie, when Hubbard of Mitchell had the race easy by a foot, and the crowd hooted the decision but the students went into a frenzy when the referce decided it would have to be run over, the race then going to Cooper of Vermillon, when he was third in the heat before.

HOW JOE'S TRICK IS PULLED OFF Cantillon Can Score Two Runs on

Fly Caught. It took "Alderman" Joe Cantillon of the Log Cabin, Chicago, late manager of the Milwaukee Brewers, and at present man-ager of the Washington Nationals, owner ager of the Washington Nationals, owner of the Minnsapolis American association club, owner of the Des Moinos Western league club and prospective owner of seven or eight clubs around the hay press circuit, to show the Naps and Cleveland fans how to score two runs on a fly caught in the outfield when the ball is handled cleanly without an error.

When Joe maneuvered his trick the Cleveland rooters were amazed, but nevertheless they were able to give the pretty play the applause it deserved, although it gave Washington a load that looked safe for the visitors.

It was thought that this was the first time that this play had ever been pulled off in the big leagues, but such is not the case, Washington working it earlier in the season on their own grounds.

case, Washington working it earlier in the season on their own grounds.

Washington's great play occurred in the third inning. Ganley was on third base and Charley Jones, the fleet center fielder, on second. Hickman, statwart Charles, was at bat. Bing! And he smashed the ball to deep left. Hinchman made a splendid running catch and was forced to run a few steps to steady himself before throwing.

It was a cinch for Ganley to score, but no one expected Jones to also try for home —that is, no one except Manager Joe Cantillon, who stood on the third base coaching line and urged Jones in as well.

Cries of warning reached Turner as he was taking Hinchman's throw and he shot the ball home—but just too late to nip Jones. How that Cleveland crowd did then applaud. The fact that it was a visiting club that pulled off the play made no difference. It was the first time that it had ever been made on the Cleveland dlamond and the fans showed their appreciation of the trick.—Cleveland Leader.

Mullen of the Detroits is a player much interested in abstruse subjects and sperimuch time in reading up on such matters. The other day when the Detroit team was crossing on the heat to Cleveland he and Bill Coughlin were sitting next to each other, and Mullen, who was reading a paper, turned to Bill and said; "An article in this paper, Bill, says that Mullen of the Detroits is a player the older a man grows the smaller his brain becomes. What do you think of it?"
"Perhaps that's the reason," replied Coughlin, "that these young leaguers know so much more about the game than the old fellows."

Golf Play in New York. NEW YORK, May 23.—The big field of golfers who began the annual tournament for the men's Metropolitan Golf association championship on the links of the Nassau Country club, Glen Covex, L. I., has been reduced to eight players. Among those who are still in the contest are W. J. Travis, Findlay S. Douglas and Jerome D. Travers,
