THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER.

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omalia postoffice as second-class matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. inday Bee, one year... iturday Bee, one year.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Daily Bee (including Sunday), per week ...15c Daily Bee (without Sunday), per week ...10c Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week ...10c Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week10c Address all complaints of irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Department.

OFFICES. Omaha-The Bee duilding. Bouth Omaha-City Hall Building. Council Buffs-15 Scott Street. Chicago-160 Unity Building. New York-1525 Home Life Insurance Bidg. Washington-301 Fourteenth Street. COURDESPONDENCE. OFFICES.

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed. Omaha Bee, Editorial Department REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company. Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of final accounts. Personal checks, except on THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. Birate of Nebraska, Douglas County, 85. Charles C. Resewater, general manager of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, mys that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Delly, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of April, 1907, was as follows:

34,284

10110781			A DOMESTIC ADDRESS
Lauranana	23,670	17	35,090
2	34.090	18	35,090
8	34,110	19
4	34,390	20	35,010
ö	34,330	21	$3,350
6	34,330	22	35,090
7	31.400	23	35,300
8	34,280	24	35,430
9	34,450	25	35,470
10	34.500	26
11	34,410	27	35,530
12	35,790	28	34,000
18	35,590	19	35,510
14	32,400	80	35,650
15	34,690	100000000000000000000000000000000000000
16	34,880	Total L	039.410
Less unsold		urned copies.	9,864
Carrier and the second second second
Net total.			028,546
When $2.44 ments on the			94 004

Bubscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 30th day of April, 1907. (Seal) M. B. HUNGATE, Notary Public.

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city tempornrily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

A Chicago man has entertained his wife and three ex-wives at a dinner. Can Pittsburg beat it?

Paradoxically speaking, the timely rain should make the wheat come up and the price go down.

The millenium may not have arrived at San Francisco, but the day of judgment seems to be near at hand there.

Two London architects are writing a book on "Bricklayer's English." Portions of it may have to be printed on asbestos paper.

Mayor Schmitz says Ruef is a liar and Ruef retorts that Schmitz is incompetent. Apparently both men are telling the truth.

When wheat is worth $1 on the farm instead of in the grain pit of the Board of Trade, fewer farm boys will be heading for the city.

THE NEW INTERNATIONALISM. problems affecting international af- improvements and extensions may be foolish limitations requiring separafairs are not generally appreciated, expected if the law-makers interfere tion of funds. notwithstanding the remarkably rapid with the rate-makers and, "finally, growth of American participation in the effect of such legislation would be world movements. Dr. Nicholas Mur- a lowering of the value of railroad ray Butler, president of Columbia uni- property practically amounting to a versity, briefly calls attention to this confiscation." new distinction in his address before The proof of the pudding, however, the Mohonk peace conference, and is in the eating. The same tearful welcomes it as an augury of the splen- tales were told at Lincoln, coupled tion of American ideas and ideals to disaster, but the 2-cent fare is a fact the peaceable adjustment of interna- in Nebraska and the railroads here are tional relations.

America's influence as a world power has been exerted with most notable still doing business at the old stand. It is but a few days more than nine What contributed as much as anyyears since Admiral Dewey took breakthing to force the 2-cent fare in this fast in Manila bay and opened negotiastate was the apparent selfishness of tions which resulted in the United certain manufacturers and jobbers States being given a performer's part who, having secured a 2-cent mileage in the "concert of powers," which had book for their commercial travelers. for generations had undisputed au- put themselves in the attitude of obthority in the settlement of interna- jecting to extending the same privitional affairs. From that modest belege to other people.

ginning Uncle Sam has been advanced The contention that railroad rates until he is now recognized as the should never be reduced because the leader of the international orchestra. effect would be "a lowering of the The victory at Santiago gave America value of railroad property amounting recognition as a sea power and creto confiscation" would apply as well dentials to all councils and conferences to reducing freight rates as to passenaffecting world politics. With the acger rates, and if valid would mean autsition of the Philippines, the Mon- that railroad charges would always go roe doctrine, while still regarded as a up and never go down. The National western hemisphere proposition, Tol-Association of Manufacturers is either lowed the flag and now furnishes inlending its name to a bunch of railtangible but effective protection to the road lobbyists in disguise or it is woeisles of the Pacific, and incidentally fully ignorant of existing conditions has given America a direct interest in and the prevailing temperament of the the moral welfare of all nations.

BANQUETING THE HOBOES.

people.

results in effecting peaceful solution The silly season has opened earlier of problems long the cause of most than usual at Chicago, despite the late serious complications among the other spring, cold weather, green bug and world powers. America's presence in other factors that have served to keep China during the Boxer uprising prethe average mind diverted from occuvented the partition of the empire and pations that naturally invite the attenperhaps a general European war betion of the Fool Killer. Dr. B. L. tween the powers anxious to divide or Reitman, founder of the Brotherhood fight for the spoils. Later, American Welfare association, inaugurated the participation in the Algeciras conference forced an agreement between rate dinner at a hyphenated restaurant France and Germany, fixing their to 120 genuine tramps and hoboes, inspheres of influence in Morocco. cluding all the thirty-third degree American influence was again couragemembers of the species who could be ously exerted to bring about the peace rounded up for the occasion. The of Portsmouth, at a time when such lodging houses, barrel-houses, box action by any European power to end cars and gutters were scoured by the war between Russia and Japan agents of the association with invitawould undoubtedly have been the sigtions for these "soldiers of misfornal for enlarging the field of hostilities. tune," skilled in the high art of living American friendly guidance for Santo without work, and the responses were Domingo and Venezuela has brought generous. It was the most represenpeace and prosperity to those countries tative gathering of Weary Willies held in place of recurrent visits of foreign since the last opening of a free lunch warships on debt-collecting missions. saloon on South Water street. American overtures have done more

The purpose of the association, acthan all other influences to halt the cording to Dr. Reltman, is to find work Congo atrocities and check persecufor every man applying to it. "Whattion in Russia, Roumania and Turkey. ever the man needs," says the doctor, Dr. Butler rightly congratulates the we give to him if we can-clothes, world upon America's contribution to food, encouragement or a job; we the new internationalism, because our don't care whether he is good, bad or activity has done so much to elevate indifferent, so long as he has reached the ethical standard of international relations and develop world morality. standpoint of a professional sociologist foes?

with a theory and money to experi-every mill and factory, with employers offering fancy wages for workmen in

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1907. ON THE PRESIDENTIAL FIRING LINE.

service, and even then may be thrown county should ever pay interest on The extent of America's influence in | into bankruptcy. No one but "an ex- | warrants as long as it has money in Preliminary Warming Up of Repubthe moral education of the world and periepced railroad man" should touch the bank, and this could and should its power for good in the solution of any law pertaining to railroads. No be made a certainty by abolishing the Nothing could be more opportune than the proposed reunion of the "306," meaning thereby the delegates to the republican convention of 1880 who voted for the nomina Since their advent into office a year tion of General Grant thirty-six times-and ago the democratic mayor and council failed. Grant's prestige with the party was have set affoat one new twenty-five- greater than that of Roosevelt, incredible as this may seem to persons under thirty year telephone franchise and one years of age, and his campaign in the con fifteen-year garbage monopoly, and vention was conducted by three of the are now trying to lay the foundation most powerful politicians in the countryfor a new gas franchise. The distri-Roscoe Conkling, J. Donald Cameron and John A. Logan, But they failed. A redid results promised by the applica- with dismal predictions of more dire bution of franchises proved a very union of the "206" would be exfermely profitable business in San Francisco. timely at the moment when a lot of men with short memories imagine that nothing Former Senator Allen is still talking but Mr. Roosevelt's consent is necessary about testing the new direct primary to secure a third term for him.

law on the ground that it invades the secrecy of the ballot. The Nebraska supreme court passed on this very question when the Douglas county direct primary law was up for interpretation, but perhaps the ex-senator expects the court to reverse itself.

state officials have made a public declara-The Indians on the Wind River tion indorsing the Taft candidacy and asreservation in Wyoming have conserting that there will be more than one sented to let the government open up candidate for Senator Foraker's seat Chairman Brown of the republican state their lands to oil and mineral prospeccommittee is so strongly committed to the tors. The consent of a reservation ecretary of war that the senator publicly Indian is usually secured very much lenounces Brown's statement as "rank like the consent of a railroad passendictatorial, offensive bossism." Even Cox ger to the polite request of a train is for Taft, and the senior senator is left alone with Dick and the remnants of the robber. old machine. Mr. Foraker, who set forth > so jauntily to destroy the Taft candidacy, may in the end count himself lucky if he saves his own skin. Pennsylvania's Favorite Son.

Philadelphia Press (rep.). Senator Knox is thus more intimately and responsibly identified than any other man with the president's particular poli-

Is He on Ground Floor?

Mr. Cleveland laments "the unfortunate dissensions inside the democratic party." But does Mr. Cleveland speak as one with inside information?

Deeds Are What Count. Minneapolis Journal.

The way to check the ravages of the simple season by giving a most elabo- green bug is not to sit around in the post- Senator Knox as their representative and the railroad company for failure to prooffice and talk about it, but to get out in as Pennsylvania's choice for his successor. vide suitable equipment. the field and rub the bug between two shingles.

Publicity of the Slam. New York Sun.

Senator Foraker deserves the thanks of at least some of his opponents. He is to the country. bringing national notoriety to several patriots who hitherto have been unknown to fame outside their home state.

Giving Themselves Away. Wall Street Journal.

Confession seems to be the order of the day. A clergyman confesses his guilt in marrying a divorced person, a San Francisco boss confesses his guilt in selling sion of fellowship, a voice with just government to corporations, and a prominent railroad confesses its guilt in violating from being softly sentimental and a memthe anti-rebate bill.

> Fortunate in His Focs. New York World.

Again there is talk of a combination of far western politicians against President Roosevelt on account of his public land and forest program. Of course land thieves and their friends do not like a vigorous the bottom of the ladder." That all campaign against land thievery. But is sounds nice and interesting, from the not the president favored by fortune in his

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Is acknowledged to be the most successful remedy in the country for those painful ailments peculiar to women

For more than 30 years it has been curing Female Complaints, such as Inflammation, and Ulceration, Falling and Displacements, and consequent Spinal Weakness Backache, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life. Records show that it has cured more cases of Female Ills than any other one remedy known Lydia E. Pinisham's Vegetable Compound dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage of development. Dragging Sensations causing pain, weight, and headache are relieved and permanently cured by its use.

It corrects Irregularities or Painful Functions, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headnehe, General Debility; also, Dizziness, Faintness, Extreme Lassitude, "Don't care and want to be left alone" feeling. Irritability, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Flatulency, Melancholia or the "Blues." These are sure indications of female weakness or some organic deranget ent. For Kidney Complaints of either sex Lydia E. Pinkbam's Vegetable Compound is a most excellent remedy.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother in law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Thus she is well qualified to guide sick women back to health. Her advice is free and always helpful.

RAILROAD HOMICIDE.

Proposed Federal Investigation of Train Wreeks.

Washington Post. Investigation of the recent raitroad wreck at Honda, Cal., in which a score of

"At least." mused the philosophic motor-ist, as he hay under his upturned machine, waiting for the rest of the party to pry him out. "no funny guy can come along and say that this is a horse on me."-Balti-more American. Shriners and their wives were crushed the national campaign. His nomination and burned to death, has revealed that the cars provided by the Southern Pacific company were too frail for the heavy inevitable that his name should be care- service required of them. The same de fects caused another California wreck, at eligibles. It is time to take up this ques- Colton, according to the verdict of the tion seriously and earnestly. We believe coroner's jury. The Interstate Commerce commission has sent for copies of the testimony relating to the two wrecks, and it meets at Harlsburg on June 6 to endorse is supposed that an inquiry will be made the president's policies and to declare for into the feasibility of bringing suit against

It would be a novel thing, in the United ble to the president. We know it would States, to see a ratiroad company called to account for a wreck in a prosecution brought in the name of the nation. But its full import and strength come to be why not? Is not human life as important realized it will appeal with growing force as railroad rates? The list of the dead study of Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks and the slaughter be stopped without regard patiently analyzes his speeches need wonder to the corporate or other rights of the republican nomination for president of the treated with extraordinary forbearance, possibly because they tried in good faith. before the current of prosperity swelled to enough of the husky quality to keep it a torrent, to deliver their passengers alive the passengers look out for themselves.

An air of mystery seemed to fill The dining-room that night; I guessed at once that I was in For a surprise, all right. But not until dessert was served Much headway could I make; And then, with smiles, they told me that Fair Helen made the cake.

They called it angel food, and passed

3 LYDIA E. PINKHAM

Mayor "Jim" says he wants to find out whether a contract entered into by the city is binding. The ordinary rule of law is that a contract binding on one party is binding on both, and it ought not to require a long-drawn law suit with big attorneys' fees to be paid by the taxpayers to find this out.

Washington Herald.

it to be opportune and wise for the coming republican state convention which

We are sure this action would be acceptaexpress the undivided thought of Pennsylvania. And we are confident that as Hean Aspleants. Phündelphin Rocord (dem.).

Foraker's "Splendid Isolation."

New York World (dem.).

The net result of the Fornker-Dick cam paign to prevent the election of a Taff delegation to the republican national convention is the political isolation of Senator

Governor Harris and the republican

Foraker and his associates.

Boost for Fairbanks.

Cincinnati Enquirer (ind. dem.). No person who makes a careful personal at his endurance as a candidate for the United States. He has a warm profesory of faces and names as indelible as the stars. He has an equipment of words and phrases which bear such rich garnishment that only the most captious analyst doubts that they are true coinage. He is not going about the country with "fads." He never tries to smooth the fur in the wrong direction, and the public kitten is always purring with its eyes closed when he caresses. Mr. Fairbanks is a keen man mendous affairs, of which he delights to talk, there is not time to go into detai

Call for Leslie M. Shaw.

Hartford (Conn.) News.

west are wrestling with the chances of a be surprising if men of experience and precipitately early campaign, it would not discernment in the east, looking to wise stability in the politics, and to equally

Whilst aspiring statesmen in the near cies which are to be the touchstone of would be the pledge of their continuance. Under these circumstances it is natural and fully considered among the presidential and wounded in railroad wrecks mounts to appalling figures in the course of a year. The dealing out of disaster and death in any other form would meet with an instant demand from the public that slayers. But the railroads have been and unmaimed. The recent enormous increase in the number of accidents indicates that the railroads are no longer mainly concerned with the factor of safety. The quantity of business is the chief thing now. Let The Interstate Commerce commission and the Department of Justice could not employ their time and talents to better divine plan."

Commoner.

advantage than to call railroad companies to account for wrecks caused by defective equipment, overworked crews, or other of the world. He knows that in our tre- factors which might bring the offenders within reach of the law.

Foote Lights-I have a wonderful memory. I can learn a new play in a day. Miss Sue Brette-Well, to have a memory like that must be bad if the play is one you want to forget!-Yonkers Statesman.

Philadelphia Press.

The Sphinx had just propounded a riddle, "Why does a plain girl understand a ball game better than a pretty one?" Herewith they were fain to give it up.--New York Sun. New York Sun.

LAUGHING GAS.

"You can't get on this car; you're drunk," said the conductor. "D'ye s pose a sober man'd want to get on your old car?" replied the rejected, not without spirit.-Philadelphia Ledgor.

Mr. Jawback-How well Kipling has de-

Mrs. Jawback-How well kiping has de-scribed this plate of hash! Mrs. Jawback-How? Mr. Jawback-"A rag and a bone and a hank of hair."-Cleveland Leader.

"Really," remarked Miss Passay, "I don't see why, nowman should trively, I done all her age. Now I'm willing all the time to let people know I'm 25." "But," repited Miss Knox, "does it do any good? You know, Lincoln said: "You can't fool all the people all the time.""-

"Father, I am thinking of getting mar-

"Father, I am thinking of getting mar-ried." "All right, my son, but remember that love is not overything. Take care to select a wife who will support you in the style to which you have always been accus-tomed, or you run the risk of being very unhappy and maybe of having to go to work yourself."-Baltimore American.

WHEN HELEN MADE THE CAKE. Detroit Free Press.

The new deal in Chicago puts none but married policemen on duty in the der the personal direction of the govred light district. It is in order for the Woman's club to protest.

"Roosevelt discovered the ten commandments," says Senator Platt. The president was not searching Senator Platt when he made the discovery.

A man has been fined in Germany for sticking out his tongue at the emperor. That's almost as expensive as sticking out your tougue at a doctor.

into participation in house cleaning by of large amounts of money under old ernor boldly refused to listen to over- of human knowledge. carpets.

Having visited the navy yards of the legislature he would appeal to the peocountry, General Kuroki became really ple and continue calling special seseloquent in delivering the mikado's sions of the legislature until he semessage of peace and good will to cured a redemption of the party's plat-America.

"Mr. Bryan is saving money," says spite of his early efforts to the contrary, every dollar he saves is worth law. 100 cents in gold.

A city census shows 17,000 more women than men in Washington. The women clerks in the departments can not get away as soon as congress adjourns, as the men do.

The discovery by the bureau of corporations that the Standard Oil is defying the law will come as a surprise to folks who have been led to believe that the Oil trust was the law.

Mayor Schmitz has placed the affairs vice from the franchized corporations committee of seven and is now merely municipal politics. Incidentally, the it might accomplish more. an "official figurehead," with the $ victory of Governor Hughes will bring mark removed from the figures.

The Department of Agriculture asserts that the mustard is the one plant that has lost none of its virility by cultivation. The department must have overlooked the meek and lowly dandellon.

lines.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Jim Dahlman was known long before he elected mayor of Omaha .-- World-W25 Herald

It might be added that the prospects are Mayor "Jim" will be known much longer before he is re-elected on interstate commerce embodying almayor of Omaha.

For the first time on record, the recelats of the Postoffice department fare law in this state. have exceeded the expenditures for the first three months of the year. The

The bi-partisan political machine in ment, but it does not convince the New York has surrendered uncondipractical citizen as holding any possitionally to Governor Hughes, after a ble promise of good in the settlement most bitter fight over the "Public of the hobo question or encouragement Utilities" bill, a measure framed un- to deserving unfortunates. In the ernor and made, by reason of peculiar little need of sympathy for able-bodied political conditions, the test of power between him and the dominant forces in the management of the allied republican and democratic machine, manipulators of the state.

GOVERNOR HUGHES' VICTORY.

every line of commercial and indus-In the earlier stages of the fight a trial activity, the man without emsufficient number of republican sena- ployment is almost invariably so from tors joined with the democratic minorchoice and he merely laughs at the ity to prevent favorable action upon dreams of the sociologist and takes the measure and an effort was made, the good things offered in the eating The wise man will refuse to be lured to make certain concessions deemed sociological study of vagrants at a free American of the stege of Peking in 1960. essential by the machine managers for feed will be about as valuable as a bent the stories now current of discoveries their continuation in power. The gov- pin and will add nothing to the store tures, but declared that unless the utilities measure was passed by the too timid to beg and too honest to steal and extending aid to them inform pledges on the subject. The govasm among the voters that the recalthe privilege to indulge his whims, but the New York World. Yes, and in citrants in the legislature withdrew a primary lesson in sociology should their opposition and the bill is now a calling will work at nothing that does In soundness of judgment, appreciation of Mr. Snaw, like men of his type, is modest, The enactment of the bill is a sig-not promise to add cumulative evinificant triumph for the governor and dence in support of the truth of the the people, as it places the control of old saw about a fool and his money. regulation of public corporations, both in New York City and the state, in pointed by the governor, and removes Omaha is very welcome to the use of Governor Sheldon for its trade excursion He was the most accessible and paternal them from the hands of the political to the Pacific coast. Mr. Sheldon's presence machines in New York City, which in the crowd will give to the excursion a have always used them for political, if not personal, profit. Honest enforcepeople in his western speeches that Omaha is not the whole thing. ment of the new law promises much If Lincoln would put in half as for the public in the way of better ser-

Here is an example of sour grapes the hands of commissions, to be ap- from the Lincoln Star:

much time and effort at building itself

Americans.

o this day.

The State Railway commission has him into more prominence in the politbeen figuring out the ratio of mileage ical field that is not bounded by state in Nebraska to total mileage of the different railroad systems as compared with the ratio of their net carnings in in an atmosphere of aristocratic Angioism Nebraska to total earnings. The Some of the smooth railroad lobby-chances are that the railroad bookists who were in attendance upon the keepers computed the total earnings late Nebraska legislature must have on the basis of mileage, and, if so, the smuggled themselves in as delegates state commissioners are simply figurto the meeting of the National Assoing in a circle. clation of Manufacturers in New York.

The association listened to and Consul Anderson is giving American adopted a report from its committee dealors advice on how to ship coal to Brazil. It is hoped the dealers defor most verbatim, with a few extra flourthe lesson until they learn how to ship ishes, the pitcous pleas entered coal to Minnesota and North Dakota against the enactment of the 2-cent in the winter time.

The committee's report sees in the No interest is being paid by either movement "an indirect attack on pubcity or county on outstanding general | u:an. Edwin Hugh Corner was honored in government's one business enterprise seems to have been put on a business basis basis basis business business will have to be "compensated" by higher freight charges or give poorer is no good reason why either city or basis betted the from his birth.

Corporate Indifference to Law. Springfield Republican.

and split hairs on subordinate issues. He It may be that the anthracito coal roads wastes no shots in insignificant inlets or are intending to ignore the act of con- on desolate islands, but he plunges into gress requiring them to dispose of their the wide ocean and braces the world on coal lands by May 1 of next year, as the "general principles." He makes a platform Standard Oil company is practically ignor- big enough to stand and even prance upon first place, even in Chicago, there is ing another section of the new rate law. and softens rough places with a solution The Delaware & Hudson company, instead of rhetoric. And everything he says is of selling coal lands, has been adding to orthodox. men out of employment. With "Men its holdings, and so far as appears nothing Wanted" signs on the doors of nearly has been done by the other coal roads in preparation for complying with the new law.

A REPRESENTATIVE AMERICAN.

Distinguished Career of Major E. H. Conger of Iowa.

wise devělopment in the business and af-Philadelphia Press. Major Edwin Hugh Conger, who died fairs of the land, should suggest the name last Saturday, will be best remembered by of some candidate wholly devoid of selfby holding it up, to force the governor line. The information acquired in a the present generation as the foremost seeking, whose known policy and proven the manipulation, the scheming, the unfair capacity would serve as an assurance of competition, the lawless lives, the divorces That he played a creditable part in those united conservatism and progress, and and godlessness of those men of wealth tense, dramatic scenes everybody knows; thus furnish to the whole community a and high station whose sole idea of life but how creditable was that part the world pledge of continued prosperity and peace- appears to be to use their power for their has yet to learn. The freely expressed ful expansion. Men of the needed chara personal gratification. They parade also In Chicago, as in every large city, opinion of the men and women who were acter and ability can, happily, be found the gross crimes and violence of the lowest there is a field for real philanthropic besteged with him is that he was the in our midst, men such, for instance, as class, the vile wickedness to be found in work in seeking out the unfortunates strongest figure in those days that tried Leslie M. Shaw, who, in the field of admen's souls.

Other nations showered honors upon intelligent and painstaking devotion to duty the crimes which are reported in the newstheir representatives in the siege; Major in a position of supreme trust and far- papers that had men were the rule instead stead of wasting time, money and un- Conger was content with the consciousness reaching importance, and who has so of the exception. We are apt to forget necessary sympathy on professional of duty well done, and with the honor and thoroughly won the respect and approval that the newspapers simply report what ernor's attitude aroused such enthusi- hoboes. Of course, Dr. Reitman has affection of the men and women who were of those of our leading citizens best able is abnormal, because it is abnormal things in the best position to understand his to judge the requirements of the times, that which are the most interesting. Goodness worth. He must have known that it was he has just been honored by election to is usually tame and it is so general as to a cause of regret to the besieged that he membership in the New York Chamber of seem common place. Eadness, on the other convince him that a hobo proud of his was not a dozen of the diplomatic corps. Commerce.

> the conditions of an unprecedented situa- and, by habit as well as instinct, disposed tion and an unruffied courage, he was the | to think more of the calls of duty than of foremost among the efficial representatives the suggestions of ambition; but it is preof the nations who were penned up ht the cisely men who think, work and sympathize close confines of the slege, in hourly dan- as he does, who may be most readily trusted, and from whom results of real ger of massacre.

In simple, unassuming democracy, also, consequence may be fairly and continuously expected. We therefore hope that if ap-Minister Conger was a typical American. peal should be made to him to accept a official in the slege; even the subjects of responsibility for which his own efforts in the cause of good government have speciother nations were accustomed to go to state-wide importance and he will tell the him for news and counsel. As it was in ally qualified him, he will not refuse to consult the wishes of disinterested fellow the hour of danger, so also it was throughout Minister Conger's entire career at citizens who seek rather the advantage of Peking. He never played to the galleries all than the profit or preferment of either themselves or of some special class or in nor sought the notice of the public. But every American in China believed in him terest with which they may have chanced of Ean Francisco in the hands of a and freedom from their domination in up as it does at pulling Omaha down and found him a friend and protector, to be affiliated.

married men to office He knows they need

"Bill" Sinclair, an Oklahoma citizen musclesseems to have given offerer to the Vinland Vine, which says of him: "Bill is of no more use than the noise he makes when a Walter H. Langshaw of New Bedford, Mass. He rose rapidly from the humble who now controls the most successful cotton mill in the world.

nated as exchange professor with the University of Berlin is Prof. William Henry Schoffeld, head of the newly reorganized Berlin term of service is for the academic Year of 1507-8.

Scotch-Igiphman.

BADNESS THE EXCEPTION.

calfe's beautiful and uplifting book entitled

"Of Such is the Kingdom." Mr. Metcalfe is subeditor, under W. J. Bryan, of the

The thoughtless reader of the daily newspaper might casily get a different idea than that put forth by Mr. Metcalfe in the paragraph quoted. The daily press is constantly parading before the people the bad

Two slices on to me: Then, just to please our Helen, I Attacked it greedly. But suddenly I paused the while. "There must be a mistake," Baid I, "Now, what cement was used When Helen made this cake?" "It is Natural that Men and Women Be Good and Do Good." Wall Street Journal.

I've eaten food, I guess, A thousand times or more; But none that fell with such a thud When dropped upon the floor. And none on which my teeth would most A slight impression make. Until the night I tried to eat Of Helen's angel cake. "Bad men are the exceptions. It is natural that men and women be good and do good. Love and sympathy are part of the These words are to be found in one of the essays contained in Richard L. Met-

And now I am "a mean old thing," Likewise, a "heartless brute," Now I am called a hundred names That are not kind or cute. I cannot got a minute's peace, I see my sad mistake; I never should have told the truth, When Helen made a cake.

soothes and cools the skin and its tiny capillaries, tending to reduce the redness; also cames the Poud's Extract into the pores and thus to the Poul's Extract this the pores and thus to the capillaries themselves, causing them to contract. Its free, persistent use will transform red or rough-ened hands to those of the patrician—soft, deli-cate, ivory white, with rosy finger tips and shell-like nails. Its whiteness indicates its purity.

From Your Druggist Armour & Company

Man's a Man For A' That"

Be he a bank president; be he the | Plano purchaser from the sliding price head of a great railroad, be he the dealer and the species of grafter owner of a dozen Automobiles, or be known in the Plana business as the he only an everyday worker earning commission taker. his livelihood by the power of his

IT'S A SPLENDID SAVING you make in buying your plano from the A. Hospe Music company. Bear in mind our stock is as large and more varied than that contained in ten ordinary piano stores.

As factory distributers of the best Piano makers of the country we can show you a stock in which you are bound to find what you want, and if To require that would not be giving you cannot pay all in cash, there will be a charge of only a small interest Likewise secret commissions are for the privilege of settling monthly. We are factory distributors for the Kraulch & Bach, Kralaner, Kimball, he must pay to the third party, the Bush & Lane, Cable-Nelson, Weser pernicious "capper," a specified sum Bros, Hallet & Davis, Conway, Whitfor inducing the customer to buy of ney, Eell, Kensington, Cramer, Hinze, Imperial Kingsbury Inner Player, etc., THE HOSPE PLAN protects the ctr.

WE SAVE YOU "O to $150 ON A P A. HUSPE CO., 1513 Douglas St. WRITE FOR FREE CATALOGUE

PERSONAL NOTES. Detroit's mayor won't appoint any but at Feking who worked more assiduously and conscientiously for the interest of the money. Although always a gentleman, Minister he ents soup."

htm

Wisconsin, is the richest man in that state He will be 78 years old on June 18, but h vigorous and resourceful. The bulk of his fortune was made in lumber. He was born New Brunswick, his father being a

Conger never lost his plain Americanism

He did not aspire to be a social lion or to play the game of parlor politics. In fact, he demonstrated the futility and shortsightedness of this sort of diplomatic career by winning for himself a place at

Among the textile kings of New England the Chinese court more enviable than that osition of barefooted bobbin boy to a man ever held by any other foreign minister. Mrs. Conger, likewise, was closer to the empress downger than any other white The third Harvard professor to be desig person; indeed, the friendship of the Congers with the Chinese court has continued if he chooses the time payment plan. him a square deal. unfair to the purchaser. A dealer cannot soll a Plano for its real value if

In the death of Major Conger there passed away a type of the best American department of comparative hierature. His citizen and public servant. His name remained spotless to the end; his works grew in importance the longer they were Isaao Stephenson, the new senator from contemplated. Citizen, soldter, statesman

It is common report in China that this government has never had a representative

"the submerged tenth." One would almost think from reading of ministrative politics, has shown as much hand, is dramatic and exciting because it is as compared with the bulk of human transactions so rare. The fact is that most people are naturally good. Their tenden cics are in the right direction. They reflect the stamp of the divine which is upon them. Were this not so this world would be a pretty poor place, to live in. There believe the best you can of people your judgment then will be more nearly right than if you believed the worst.

Bughouse Activity. New York Tribune. Betting on the green bug continues brish in the wheat pit.

A square doal is his due. The value of one man's money is equal to the value of another's and because the one can afford to pay for a Plano

the less affluent one, should be compelled to give a much greater price in cash is no reason why the other,