Laramie Starts Nyc Monument Fund. LARAMIE, Wyo., May 24.-(Special.)-On the conclusion of the reading of a petition containing the names of sixty-five of the most prominent business men of the city, Councilman Schwatke last night moved that the city council appropriate $50 as the initial contribution to the American Press Humorists association's "Bill" Nye monument fund. The motion carried unanimously and the clerk was instructed to draw a warrant for the amount pledged. Several weeks ago the council found that they could not make such an appropriation unless at least fifty taxpayers of the city petitioned it. A petition was then put into circulation and without solicitation sixty-five names were secured in a few days. The names on the petition represent every business house of importance in the city.

northwest, east and south the volume of retail trade is behind a year ago almost without exception. As to jobbing, it is to be noted that re-order business has also been backward, but order business has also been backward, but this week has seen a fair trade in this line east and west. A few western and more large eastern mar-kets report good fail orders, but the general disposition is to await a clearer view of crop development before ordering heavily for fail. At leading east-ern centers the demand for cotton goods is a feature of activity and high raw matched and cost of manufacture is reflected on the vanced quotations for cotton of many kines. Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Further progress was made in the dis-tribution of spring merchandise this week, but the season is still very backward and much stock will be carried over. Confi-dence is not generally shaken, although some evidences of caution followed the violent rise in prices of wheat and fre-quent rumors) of crop disasters. Latest re-ports indicate that warm weather in some states and much needed rains in other sec-tions have given the tardy igrain and cotton a better start. Leading manufacturing in-terests have not curtailed operations, sev-oral advances in wages have occurred and there are numerous encouraging develop-ments to offset the slow progress on farms, including more prompt mercantile collec-tions at many cities. Much new business is now pending in the iron and steel indus-try and a large tonnare was placed during Including more prompt mercantlle collections at many cities. Much new business is now pending in the iron and steel industry and a large tonnage was placed during the last week, but the furnaces and mills are sold so far ahead that interest is great in specifications on old orders. As these are of noteworthy size it is evident that consumption is fully maintained and no setback can be discerned in any department. A conspicuous feature is the domand for bars from makers of agricultural implements. This business is larger than last year's, indicating that no anxiety regarding the crops is feit in this industry, although wholly dependent on the prosperity of the farmer. Business in street rails includes large quantities for Japan and China and large quantities for delivery during the first half of next year, while light rall traction companies are under negotiation, but this large tonnage depends upon funds being raised for projected lines. Structural steel mills still have extensive inquirtes for most interest during the wester at the sharp rise in cost of raw material from many buyers.
 The textile industries the event of most interest during the weak was the increased firmness in cotton goods on account of the sharp rise in cost of raw material from many buyers.
 While leather is not especially active, there is a good movement of sole, but side upper has declined still further. All foreign hides are weaker, owing to the poor businese of European tanners. Several grades are fractionally lower for the week because stocks have accumulated, tanners buying less than the slaughterer. 10.8 B.3 13.6

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

norrow will say:

morrow will say: Crop and trade are irregular, but there is a slight improvement visible as a whole, owing to higher temperatures. This is most marked in the rain growing sections of tho west, southwest and northewest where warm rains has encouraged crop sentiment and buying. Leading eastern traders re-port business lagging, while the coun-try's distributive trade needs steady warm weather to enable the heavy rail business of the spring of 1906 being equalled. Relatively, the best reports as to whole-sale and retail trade come from the Facilie northwest. In the central west, southwest.

Business for 1968 is appearing in various lines. Within the week 25,000 tons of malle-able Bessener were sold in Cleveland for delivery in the first part of 1968, the price basis being $22 per ton, valley furnaces. Some southern fron has also been disposed of for first quarter shipment, the quotation being $35.50, Birningham. The demand for basic pig for delivery in the first half of 1967 is quite heavy, with much business in aight. Large orders for steel rails for de-livery in 1808 have been placed, the tonnage aggregating about 100,000 tons. Makers of farm implements have decided to wait no longer for price concessions and they have ordered steel bars rather heavily -have taken more in fact than a year ago. have taken more in fact than a year ago Business in structural material is good and specifications are heavy, but orders for shapes are not so large as for other fin-shapes are not so large to be week ending ished lines.
