None of the passes figured in the scoring, the two runs coming on three hits in the eighth inning after Detroit had a lead of nine runs, when Donovan eased up. Kitson was hit hard at all times and his support was extremely poor. Score: Hatch Bloves Up in Eighth.

PUEBLO, Colo., May 24—After Hatch had plached a great game and held the Si ux to one scratch hit for seven innings he was pounded all over the lot in the final two and backed up by dumb support during this time, the visitors garnered ten runs and had the first game in a walk. A base on balls, singles by Corhan and Hatch and Nobilt's fumble of a grounder, gave the locals a lead of two in the second. In the seventh the visitors secured their first run on errors by Elwert and Corhan and a ressed ball. In the eighth singles by Williams. D. Sheehan, Nobilt and Weed and a home run by Hart gave the visitors four runs, and in the ninth Noblet, Granville and J. Sheehan secured singles and Weed placed a three-sacker in right field. This, together with a flyout, netted tour runs. Three passes and a single gave the locals one run in the ninth. Shore: Hatch Bloves Up in Eighth DETROIT. WASHINGTON. B.H.O.A.E.

DOUGLASS AND TRAVERS LEFT Veterans Will Play Final Round for Metropolitau Golf Title Today.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Findlay S. Douglass of the Nassau Country club, who ence held the title of national champion amaleur golfer, and Jerome D. Travers of Montclair. N. J., present holder of the Metropolitan title, are the survivors out of a field of seventy players who started in the annual championship tournament of the men's Metropolitan Golf association.

The most sensational match in the earlier part of today's play was the defeat of Walter J. Travis by Fred Herreschoff, his younger golfer beat the veteran, 5 up and 3 to play. Travis won only two holes, and five were halved. They did not play out the bye holes. Herreschoff put up another stiff game against Findlay Douglass in the afternoon in the semi-final round. It was a very close contest all through. Douglass won out by 1 up, after Herreschoff falled on a long put for a three on the same hole. Jerome D. Travers always had his semi-final match with W. B. Rhett well in hand. He was 3 up at the turn and won out by 3 up and 2 to play. Results:

Third Round—W. B. Rhett, Crescent Athletic club, heat J. R. Maywell, ir. Nassau, 1 up, 20 holes; J. D. Travers, Montchair, beat S. J. Graham, Fairfield, 5 up and 4 to play; F. S. LaBrandt, Fa's new catcher, arrived in Omaha Friday morning and left in the afternoon to join the team at Des Moines. His home is in Sedalia, Colo., and he has been playing with Seattle. He is a young player of stocky build and comes well recommended. War Sanders, Pa's southpaw, missed his train for Des Moines Thursday evening, but he caught the next train and arrived in Des Moines in pienty of time for the game. Semi-Final Round-Travers beat Rhett 3 time for the game.

What Various Club Managers Have Done in That Live.

business it is to produce successful base Conroy, Hartsel and Waddell. ball teams, though it doesn't show on the surface as much as other duties, is to get the material. There are managers who can turn out a winning team once they have the material to hand; others who not only can do that, but forage for and discover material, and still others who can picked out and improve it. The ideal manager is he who can do all of these things, but in the manifold requirements of the position the manager is bound to excel in some detail, rather than the whole. The purpose of this article is not to go into that, but to tell of a number of big league stars, who discovered them, or who developed them, or who was responsible for bringing them into fast company. There are cases in which more than one manager had a hand in bringing players into promi-

Frank Selee, who so successfully managed the Boston and Chicago teams before his falling health sent him to the far west, was at once a capable manager on the beach, and one of the best of judges first, his best work in the box has been unof raw material. ner and a strong batsman. Many are the players who have come into diamond fame through the agency of Ned Hanlon, now managing the Cincinnatis. One of these is the celebrated Willie Keeler. After Keeler had been bought from the Binghampton team to New York by John Ward he was turned over to the Brooklyn club. Shortly afterward he and Dan Brouthers were traded to Baltimore for Billy Shindle, the third baseman, and Treadway, the outfielder. Keeler at that time was supposed to be a third basemanat least he was tried out in that position Lewis. It remained for Comiskey, howby New York. on a base runner. John McGraw was really a Hanlon prodtimore, but it was under Hanion that Mc-Graw rose to stardom. He was playing and the only Terry Turner. short under Barnie and was shifted to third by Hanlon. Of course nobody but himself could give him his shrewd base ball sense, but Hanlon saw that he had this, and the ability of the latter as a manager consisted, for one thing, in surrounding himself with men of that kind. Robinson was no spring chicken when he became an Oriole, but he improved vastly as a backstop under Hanlon, and Reitz and Brodle were his pupils. Pitcher Joe McGinty was a Hanlon dis-

he (Hanlon) managed the Brooklyns, and it was with McGraw as overseer that Mc-Ginty made good. McGraw did more to develop him than anybody else. Frank Kitson, the pitcher, was a Hanlon product, It has been said of McGraw that he does not develop new material, but the facts are at variance with that assertion. He brought out Bresnahan for one, to say nothing of McGinnity-and you don't unearth a Bresnahan every day. Moreover, with McGraw as guide, philosopher and friend, Arthur Devlin has come to be a top notch third baseman. Burnham of Newark is the discoverer of Devlin, so far as his professional career is concerned, for he sold Devlin to McGraw; but he became the finished performer that he is under McGraw. Nor did McGraw lose any time in finding out for himself that Devlin would fill the bill. Devlin is one of the National league's best base runners and nearly all that he knows about that accomplishment he learned from Mo-

George Browne, cast loose by Philadelphia, was taken up by McGraw, and his fielding improved 100 per cent after the change of berths. He is a fine thrower, which McGraw was not slow to find out; a fair batter and a swift man on the bases. Not the least of McGraw's feats was to discover that there was the making of a crack outfielder in Si Seymour. Seymour was so erratic as a pitcher that he came near falling into oblivion as a ball player. McGraw hunted him up, took him to Baltimore and made an outfielder of him. His value is too well known to dwell upon. Ames, Wiltse and Ferguson are pitchers whom McGraw has brought out, and doubtless Mathewson has learned a few things from his manager.

A capable judge of young players is Clark Griffith, the New York Americans' manager. Griff, like all managers, depends in a measure on the recommendations of his scouts; but once the new player is in his hands he has to be his own judge as to whether or not the player will do. Furthermore, he has to handle and develop the player to bring out what there is in him. The biggest prize Griff ever drew was Hal Chase, recommended to him by Denny Long. One glance at Chase in ac tion, and Griff made up his mind he had s coming star. Griffith's advice has had a good deal to do with Chase's improvement as a batter. Jack Kielnow, who has become one of the best catchers in the country, was found in the minor leagues by Griffith

He was a success from the start and it was not long before he was recalled take material that somebody else has by Boston, He was an artist from the ground up, but it did not take the Louisville club long to find an able successor to him in diminutive Tommy Leach.

Dreyfuss saw Jimmy Williams play in Kansas City one day when on a reconnoitering expedition out that way and grabbed him in a hurry for his Pittaburg team. He lassoed Wid Conroy in Milwaukee and he and Harry Pulliam, with customary enterprise, coralled Hans Wagner in Paterson, N. J. As soon as they heard about Wagner they hurried to Paterson, saw him in action and negotiated for the Dutchman's release before anybody else had a chance to forestall them. Jack Warner first made a name for himself as a catcher on Dreyfuss' Louisville club.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $5.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.50 per pair, but for advertising and and ound them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.50 per pair) if you send PULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at ODE sepense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Earnker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better,
