Although only about 270 out of the required 300 have turned in their money for camp, the boys have been told that the camp will be held this year, even though no more turn in their money. The place selected by Captain Welsch for the camp is Glenwood, ia. Wednesday Captain Welsch will inspect the battalion to see that everything is in order for camp and for the Memorial day parade.

Commendable Example.

The popular afer dinner speaker rose to respond to a toast.

"Gentlemen," he said, "the unexpectedly flattering manner in which your toastmaster has introduced me this evening reminds me of a story which strikes me as being appropriate to the occasion. By the way, how many of you have heard the story of the Pennsylvania farmer and the young wolf he bought for a 'coon dog?' Will those who are familiar with it from having ilsened to it half a dozen times or more please raise their hands?"

An overwhelming majority of his auditors raised their hands.

"Thanks, gentlemen," he said. "I shall not inflict it upon you."

With their rapturous applause still ringing in his ears he sat down.

He had made the hit of the evening.

A Great Sacrifice Sale

I ONDAY Morning promptly at 8:00 A. M. this reliable exclusive cloak and suit house will open its doors with a sale of very finest wearing apparel for women and misses that will be the talk of Omaha and all surroundings—it will accomplish our aim in reducing our great spring stock and will also serve as an advertisement.

The people will learn from this great event that when this store announces it's clearance that it is not a sale of undesirable merchandise or some bankrupt run down stock of odds and ends but that it is a sale of very finest wearing apparel for women and misses that we hold semi-annually in order to adhere strictly to our announced policy of never carrying over a dollar's worth of goods from season to season.

If you expect to attend this sale be here on time.
