MRS. SMITH CRITICISES IOWA BIENNIAL

Says Business Was Settled by Board Without Being Brought Before Convention—Program Was Too Compact.

While club women are untiring in their praise of the recent biennial convention of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs held at Oskaloosa, now that it is all over and there has been time for sober reflection...

While there is no question that much time and trouble are saved and better results often attained in the end by transacting all business possible in the board, this same method has frequently been the cause of disastrous undercurrents in federations and clubs...

Pocahontas Monument. The appreciation of historic value among women has been so well demonstrated the past few years that now almost any enterprise undertaken by women, whether it be the marking of historic places, the preservation of records or the erection of a monument...

ECONOMY OF NERVE FORCE. Resisting the Tired Mind, as Well as the Body, Brings Good Health.

It is not work that breaks down the health of the average woman, who is both housekeeper and homemaker for her family. It is because she has never learned to take up a duty or task until she is ready to do it, and to let loose of it when it is done.

Musicians Offer Prizes. The executive board of the National Federation of Musical Clubs met at the close of the biennial convention recently and formulated plans for a contest for the best composition by an amateur composer.

BECOMING HATS WORN AGAIN. Experimenting Season Past and Beauty is Now Considered as Well as Style.

The season of experiments is past and modes for the summer are gradually crystallizing into definite form. As usual, the radical departures have been looked down upon as the work of the aggressives.

It is not set far back on the head, revealing a monumental structure of front hair and utterly obliterating the lines of hair, neck and shoulder in the back.

Summer hats are having their innings, despite the lack of encouragement in the

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much as it is to love the beautiful and pure.

The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror.

There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger.

NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

New Week Brings Fresh Budget of Lavitations and Announcements.

COUNTRY AND FIELD CLUBS ARE QUIET

Sunday Night Suppers Few and Small—Cold Weather Increases Popularity of Omaha Club and Home Suppers.

It was quiet indeed on Benson way Sunday evening and the Field club barely escaped being "dark." It was too cold and wet to make the summer clubs popular, and many who ordinarily depend upon them for the Sunday night supper preferred the Omaha club or tea at home.

Leighorn is much liked for such a hat, the brims often having a two-inch border binding of black or colored taffeta. A smooth facing of silk also appears upon some of these light hats.

Neapolitan is popular for the flower-trimmed summer hat and in place of the lingers hat many milliners are showing models with soft crowns of lingerie, or preferably of lace made from plateaus whose scalloped edges form a small part of a wide flapping brim of Neapolitan.

A charming model in pale blue straw had loose masses of such violets in all the violet shadings almost entirely covering the crown and showing out over the left side and back of the drooping brim, the only other trimming being a scarf of pale lavender folded around the crown.

The windmill hat, with wide brim worn tilted well to the side, and the hat turned up slightly in the front and drooping deeply at the back are pronounced favorites and the wide brim sailor without bandeau and trimmed in big wings is monotonously prevalent, though slight variations in the color and adjustment of the wings and scarfs relieve the monotony.

Personal Mention. Mrs. R. S. Hall will entertain at dinner tonight at the Country club in honor of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. McClanahan and Miss Katherine McClanahan.

Miss Ethel Tukey who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Morrison, in Kansas City, is not expected home until next week.

Miss Ella Mae Brown left Monday for a brief visit with friends and relatives in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Loose who arrived Saturday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Kirkendall will return Monday evening to their home in Des Moines, Wash.

Miss Eudora Whitmore, who has been attending school at Mrs. Dow's, Briarcliffe, N. Y., will spend the summer abroad with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Whitmore.

Mrs. Edwin Swobe is visiting in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Metcalf, who have been spending the winter in California, will arrive Wednesday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Smith.

Miss Hortense Clarke, who is visiting relatives in Sioux City, has extended her visit another week and will not return home until Sunday or Monday week.

Mrs. O. McCaffery and son William have gone to Washington, D. C., to attend the commencement exercises at Trinity college, Miss Cecelia McCaffery being a member of the graduating class.

SUNDAY AT THE THEATERS

Summer Opera Season at the Boyd Opera Favorably.

COMPANY IS MUSICALLY A STRONG ONE

"The Mikado" Sung with Excellent Effect. Solo Parts Being Especially Well Rendered and Audience Well Pleased.

The summer opera season in Omaha was opened at the Boyd theater Sunday, when the "Beggar Prince" opera company sang "The Mikado."

The audience at the Boyd last night was a fairly good sized one, and its pleasure was vented in much applause for the songs. If the opening is an indication, the company will be very popular in Omaha before the week is over.

As Hester Trent in "Zira," which is the bill at the Burwood this week, Miss Eva Lang has a part requiring a deeper emotional interpretation than any she has had since her return to Omaha.

The plot reaches the climax in the third act, where Hester Trent, known as Ruth Wilding, is almost driven into a refusal to unmask. The interview between the two is a strong one, and the act grows in power until the end, when Hester, having confessed everything, falls prostrate before Lady Claverling, whom she has deceived, and begs forgiveness.

Miss Lang shows herself in hearty sympathy with the part and for the greater part gives a very satisfactory interpretation of it. In the love scene which closes the last act she is at her best.

Miss Vivian Forrest is Katisha, and a good one, which is praise enough. Mr. Roach brings to Nanki Poo a tenor voice of excellent timbre and effective range. He exhibited a little nervousness last night, but this was scarcely noticeable in his singing; when he was once fairly launched on a song he carried it through with fine results.

Stanley Felch, an established comedian, is the Ko-Ko of the cast, and gives much occasion for merriment during the evening. It is to be regretted that he has been unable to restrain his desire to improve on Mr. Gilbert's libretto; such humor as he has substituted is more modern, maybe, but he might as well take liberties with the Sullivan score and expect to be excused.

Mr. Murray is impressive as the Mikado, and sings it well. Mr. George E. Metcalf is musical director of the organization, and has drilled his chorus very well.

SLOW TRAINS HELP OMAHA

Metropolis Fares Well by Chances in Time Made by Burlington.

REVISION EFFECTIVE NINTH OF JUNE

Same Day on Which Other Railroads of the West Will Put Into Operation Their Slower Trains.

Announcement is made of the time changes on the Burlington effective June 9, the time decided upon by all western roads to put in effect their new schedules made under the agreement to slow up the trains of the west.

The fast Chicago train No. 2 will arrive at Omaha from the west at 4:30 p. m. and leave for Chicago at 11:30 p. m. No. 6 will continue about as now, arriving from the west at 6:45 a. m. and leaving at 7 a. m. for Chicago.

The popular Omaha-Chicago train, No. 12, will leave points in Nebraska about one hour earlier than now and leave Lincoln at 4:30 p. m., arrive at Omaha at 6:30 and leave for Chicago at 11:30 p. m.

The Omaha-Schuyler local will run via Bellevue, instead of via Fort Crook as at present, both going and coming, and will leave Omaha about 2:30 p. m. The trains from the northwest are about the same as at present.

ADMIRAL DEWEY IN COURT. Arraigned Before the Juvenile Judge for Insubordination to His Mother.

George Dewey Rhelms, who proudly calls himself Admiral Dewey, was before the juvenile court Monday morning under serious charges of disobedience to orders made by his mother. They live at 187 North Twentieth street, and George, though only 5 years old, has given his mother considerable trouble.

Judge Kennedy gave George a lecture on obedience and told him, if he wanted to live up to his distinguished name he would have to learn to obey. George promised to do his best hereafter and he was allowed to go home with his mother.
