

BELIEVE NALL IS THE MAN

Suspect in McCook Case Rushed to Red Willow County Jail.

BIG CROWD SURROUNDS THE PLACE

Injured Woman Too Weak to Attempt to Identify Man, but Authorities Confident He is the Right Person.

M'COOK, Neb., May 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Suspect Charles Nall, arrested at Grand Island yesterday for the alleged murder of Mrs. Claude Spaulding, eight miles north of McCook, last Wednesday afternoon, was brought to this city on the noon train today. The train slowed down before reaching the depot and the suspect was rushed to the county jail in an automobile. Considerable excitement prevails and a crowd hangs around the jail seeking to gain a view of the man and to hear such rumors as leak out.

The man has not yet been identified positively, although the authorities feel confident they have the right man. The injured woman is still in a precarious condition and at present would not be able to identify the man if he were taken to her bedside.

FIND HUMAN BONES AT BLAIR

Farmer Uncovers Ten Skulls Buried in Circle.

BLAIR, Neb., May 28.—(Special.)—Edwin Howendick, a farmer living about two miles south of this city, while plowing in his field today unearthed a lot of human bones, and returning later with a pick and shovel he carefully removed the earth to the depth of about one foot and there found ten skulls and a lot of bones, among which were several thigh bones and some ribs. The most curious part of the find was the position in which the skulls and bones were found. The ten skulls were in two half-circles facing each other, with one or two more in the north half circle. The skulls were in an upright position and in the center between the half circles were piled the bones. One of the thigh bones was plainly seen to have been broken at some time and had knit together. Many of the teeth were in a well preserved condition and most of them well worn down on the sides, showing that they had belonged to old people. Some of the skulls were so unlike the others in shape that it would seem to have belonged to an entirely different type of people. The position in which they were found shows plainly that they were not buried that way at the time of death. One of the skulls was on one side as if by a heavy blow. It is surmised that some party of hunters, campers or others had frozen to death or been murdered and someone later on had buried their remains in this way. They were all within a space of less than a yard square. Some dozen feet away some small bones were found that looked as if they were those of a small child. No trinkets of any kind were found. The place where Mr. Howendick plowed out these old-time relics is on the high bluff overlooking a long, deep valley that extends eastward toward the Missouri river, and only a mile or two from the high bluff where old settlers say another high bluff where old settlers say some high officials of the Mormon church had their camp one summer during their stay in this part of Nebraska. Others recall some stories of bloody encounters along this side of the river, as told to them years ago by still older settlers.

Aged Man Found Dead.

RED CLOUD, Neb., May 28.—(Special.)—The body of an aged man, stark naked, was found lying on the river bank near the old dam a mile up the river west of this place last night about 8 o'clock. The discovery was made by a woman who, with her husband, was doing some work about the dam. They immediately notified Sheriff Hedges, who brought the body to Red Cloud and placed it in the undertaking room to await the coroner's inquest this morning. Charles Hicks of Bladen was notified and arrived this morning and identified it as that of his father-in-law, J. Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler was 82 years of age and leaves a wife and children.

In a case appealed from the district court of Kearney county, in which a liquor license was issued over the protest of a number of citizens, the remonstrator, G. L. Among the objections cited in the remonstrance are the following:

Unless Board Changes Its Mind Railroads Must Pay More Taxes.

ROADS FILE LIST OF PASS HOLDERS

Numerous Politicians and Men conspicuous in the Lobby Are Found in List—New Line of Attack on Liquor Law.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 28.—(Special.)—Provided the members of the State Board of Assessment listen not to the strenuous voice of the representatives of the railroads who are objecting to the assessment of this class of property, the taxable wealth of the state will be increased $5,000,000. The total assessed value of all the roads in the state is $4,706,000. Last year the assessed value was $4,706,000. The actual value of the railroads in Nebraska as found by the board last Saturday is $5,176,000. This sum is divided among the various systems as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Railroad Name, Value. Includes Burlington, Union Pacific, Spaulding & Western, Northwestern, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, Rock Island, Missouri Pacific, Pacific Railroad, St. Joseph & Grand Island, Winmar & Sioux Falls, Omaha Bridge and Terminal company, Illinois Central, Wabash, Chicago, Minneapolis & St. Paul, Santa Fe.

List of Pass Holders.

The Northwestern and the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroads threw under the limelight today the names of those persons who, as railroad attorneys and surgeons, are provided with railroad transportation. This was done in accordance with the order of the State Railway commission issued some days ago for the names of all persons to whom transportation had been given, either for nothing or under contract. The names were filed with the commission, the last named in the morning and the Northwestern just before closing time. Each contains numerous names familiar in politics in Nebraska.

No other road reported, though the time given by the commission was up today. The commission announced that it would at once delegate a representative to visit the headquarters and demand the information wanted and if it were not forthcoming, legal proceedings would be instituted to get it. There is some talk also that action will be started by one or other than a commission against the railroads for discrimination in giving out transportation for other than the 5-cent rate.

Among the names filed by the St. Joseph road is that of James H. Woolley, a local attorney of Grand Island, who did service here during the legislature for the railroads against the passage of the terminal tax bill. Also C. H. Epperson, of Lincoln, member of the reform measures and voted for all the reform measures and against the wishes of the railroads.

The Northwestern list contains the name of A. M. Post, ex-chief justice of the supreme court and referee in the suit against the Nebraska Lumber Dealers' association; C. C. McNeil, who stood out bravely for the brewers and against the terminal tax; F. Stanley, former county attorney of Hamilton county; H. C. Bromberg of the Government Ownership League and Civic Federation of Omaha; F. H. Woods of Lincoln, head of the independent telephone lobby; J. A. Douglas of Bassett, who opposed terminal tax during the legislature; A. H. Dickson of the insurance lobby; R. B. Dickson of O'Neill, who helped the railroads some during the legislature.

Among the surgeons reported by the Northwestern holding contract mileage is J. G. Conaway, ex-state senator from York and one time candidate for governor; J. P. Gilligan of O'Neill, ex-state senator; W. A. Meserve of Creighton, ex-state senator; A. R. Aleson of Winster, ex-state senator.

Those Favored by Northwestern. The Northwestern road announced that it has made contracts with local attorneys that they shall receive during the continuance of the local attorneyship, in lieu of any other compensation, a compensation whatever, an annual pass in the state for themselves and trip transportation as needed by themselves or dependent members of their family upon the company's own road.

not such a man of respectable character and standing. Second—Because the issuance of a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors is contrary to a portion of section 19 of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, which says that liquor and morality are essential to good government. Third—Because the issuance of a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors is contrary to section 19 of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, which reads as follows: "The legislature shall not grant a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors, except by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality and industry and frequent recurrence to fundamental principles." Fourth—Your remonstrator further objects to the issuance of a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors for the reason that that part of chapter 28 of the statutes of Nebraska, which reads as follows: "The legislature shall not grant a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors, except by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality and industry and frequent recurrence to fundamental principles." is unconstitutional and therefore unlawful and unenforceable.

First Pardon Hearing. Governor Sheldon today granted his first hearing on an application for a pardon under the new law. The petitioner was Dave Archer of Cherry county, sentenced for one year for shooting Louis Bock, a neighbor. Senator Hanna appeared for the prisoner and County Attorney Tucker opposed the application. Archer said he shot Bock after the latter had shot at him and he repeated what he said was his story told on the witness stand. He said his attorneys got $5 from him to hire another lawyer to keep him from appearing for the prosecution and that they wanted $50 more to "fix" the county attorney. Tucker denied that he had ever had any conversation with the prisoner along those lines and the prisoner admitted Tucker had made no such proposition. Tucker produced affidavits from the county commissioners and others that Archer was a bad man and people were afraid to attend picnics because Archer was always on hand to start a rough house. The members of the jury signed the petition for a pardon, but Tucker said this was not an indication that Archer should be released. He said the whole affair was an effort to get Archer out of the prison so he could testify to save another man from getting in.

Senator Burkett had had to cancel one or two engagements for high school addresses because of the disease, while reports have come in from along the line of the Northwestern toward Bonesteel that a large number of towns have cases. So far the state has done nothing toward assisting the local authorities, but the matter will come up tomorrow night.

Today the Board of Secretaries is examining sixty-five students who want to practice medicine. The board proper will meet again tomorrow to ballot on a state health inspector.

IN IT TEN YEARS As Unconscious Slave to Coffee. "I had not the slightest idea that coffee was the cause of my continued sickness for the last ten years until I quit its use and took up Postum Food Coffee. I never had a natural movement of the bowels during a number of years, because of the coffee, and I was continually taking medicine. "Very frequently just after breakfast a dizziness would come on, which would force me to lie down and remain absolutely quiet until relief came. I was also the victim of severe headaches and miserable all the time. Finally it occurred to me that coffee was the real cause of my trouble. "I therefore procured a package of Postum Food Coffee and began its use in place of coffee. At first I did not like it, but I soon discovered that I had not made it properly. I had a delicious Java taste, a beautiful deep rich brown color and altogether it makes a charming beverage. "I soon grew very fond of it; in fact I liked it better than I did the old coffee. My health improved and this gradually increased. The bowels resumed their natural functions and the dizziness feeling disappeared entirely, also the headaches. "This happy change in health fixed my mind permanently and forever never, under any circumstances, to go back to a drug that had held me a slave for ten long years. A curious thing about all this is that people do not realize the cause of their troubles. They go on year after year just as I had in drugging themselves with something that holds them in a condition of sickness and they don't seem to understand what it is that causes the trouble. If each people would leave off coffee and use Postum Food Coffee the trial would tell its own tale. "There's a reason."
