Paddock, American consul at Amoy, China, stating that an armed uprising had been reported at Joan, fifty miles south of Amoy. Mr. Paddock says several officials were killed by mutinous soldiers and the cause of the trouble is unknown. So far as known, the uprising has not affected any foreign interests.

GUATEMALA CITY, May 29.—The correspondent of the Associated Press has interviewed the foreign diplomats here in regard to the arrests made in connection with the attempt on the life of President Cabrera. While the majority of the diplomats refused to discuss the matter, it was authoritatively stated that no joint action in connection with the cases of the prisoners will be taken. It is believed light will be thrown on the situation when the appeals are heard, as the proceedings will be public. Meanwhile the representatives here of foreign governments are watching the cases of the accused and are prepared to assist compatriots among the prisoners should circumstances require it.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.—The discussion of the agrarian question in the Duma closed today, only forty-three monarchists voting to continue it. SUSPEND HILL'S SENTENCE

Harrison Intercedes on Behalf of Man Who Made Public Webster Letter.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Frank W. Hill, former secretary of E. H. Harriman, who some time ago sold to a newspaper the now famous Sidney Webster letter, written by Mr. Harriman, and the publication of which drew a heated denial from President Roosevelt, today pleaded guilty to a violation of the penal code, which prohibits making public documents of officials. On recommendation of the district attorney's office and on request of Mr. Harriman, sentence was suspended.

RUEF'S SENTENCE DELAYED

Two Weeks Given Former San Francisco Boss to Get Affairs in Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Abraham Ruef appeared before Superior Judge Dunne in the auditorium of the Jewish synagogue today to be sentenced for extorting $175,000 from Joseph Malfanti, proprietor of Delmonico's restaurant, to which charge he pleaded guilty a fortnight ago. Assistant District Attorney Henry moved that the passing of sentence be postponed for two weeks. Turning to Ruef, who stood at the bar, Henry said: "You have no objection to that, Mr. Ruef?"

"None," answered the former boss. This order was accordingly made by Judge Dunne, and Ruef resumed his seat near Mayor Schmitz, whose trial on the identical charge to which Ruef pleaded guilty was about to be resumed.

THEODORE V. HALSEY, the agent of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, indicted along with Vice President Glass of that corporation on eleven charges of bribing the supervisors to vote against the granting of a franchise to the Halsey company, was called for arraignment on the last indictment returned against him. It charges that Halsey bribed Supervisor W. W. Sanderson in the sum of $5,000.

Halsey's attorneys are Delphin M. Delmas and Schlesinger & Humphrey.

Halsey stood up during the reading of the indictment by Clerk McManus, which occupied about five minutes. At its conclusion the clerk asked: "To this charge what do you plead?"

"If it please your honor," interposed attorney Schlesinger, "we desire until next Saturday to plead to this charge."

To this the prosecution consented. "We also ask for a copy of the testimony against Mr. Halsey before the grand jury."

The continuance was granted and Judge Dunne directed that a copy be supplied.

No attempt was made today in the arraignment of a jury to try Mayor Eugene Schmitz on the charge of extortion. Fifteen takers were examined but none was chosen. A special venire of fifty was ordered to appear next Friday, to which date court adjourned.

WOULD SELL DOWIE'S ESTATE

Petition Has Been Prepared for Submission in Court Asking Permission.

CHICAGO, May 29.—On the ground that the estate of the late John Alexander Dowie, now in the hands of Receiver John C. Hatley, is generally deteriorating in value in the present state of disorganization, a petition has been prepared for presentation Friday in the United States court asking for a decree granting authority to the receiver to sell the property without further delay.

An injunction will also be asked for restraining Mrs. Jane Dowie and the trustees, John and John A. Lewis, named by Dowie in his will as his successors, from exercising any rights in the property in the receiver's hands other than the property at Muskegon, Mich., claimed by Mrs. Dowie. It is said that this is a plan for reorganization of the Zion City property and that it is a complete overthrow of Willibut Glenn Yelva, who assumed ecclesiastical authority and temporal power over the church of Zion following the death of the founder, Dowie.

Trustee Lewis said today that no contest of the proceeding would be made by the receiver, but that the action of the receiver was for the purpose of reorganizing the property and eventually result in the restoration of peace among the Zion following.

Trustee Lewis said that if the property is sold as proposed it will be bought by creditors, most of whom are in the church.

WEST IS WITH ROOSEVELT

Would Like to Tender Him the Nomination Whether He Accepts or Not.

NOMINEE MUST STAND FOR HIS POLICIES

Victor Rosewater, Editor of The Bee, Talks Politics to Baltimore Sun Man—Jenkins Called Home to Explain.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(Special Telegram.)—The Baltimore Sun this morning prints the following regarding Mr. Victor Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, who is in the east with Mrs. Rosewater: "Mr. Victor Rosewater, one of the proprietors of The Omaha Bee and member of the republican state central committee of Nebraska, visited the building of the Sun yesterday. On an eastern trip last December, about a month after the opening of the new building, Mr. Rosewater inspected the plant from top to bottom and expressed himself as highly pleased with what he saw."

"National politics is engrossing a good part of the attention of most Nebraskans at present and Roosevelt sentiment is stronger than ever before in the central west," he says.

Mr. Rosewater was asked for an expression concerning the situation in his part of the country.

"The action of the Michigan state senate in indorsing President Roosevelt for a second elective term reflects the sentiment prevailing almost universally throughout the west. There is no question that the people of the entire section are thoroughly in harmony with the president's policies and appreciative of his achievements, especially in the direction of railroad regulation and corporation control. I believe that the disposition of republicans in our part of the country will be, where he has taken no action, to support him. It will be positively distasteful to him, to send delegations to the next republican national convention so far committed to him as at least to make him an offer of another nomination and give him an opportunity to refuse it. The opportunity to refuse a nomination for the presidency, with success assured in advance, has never come to anyone, and the mere refusal would give the president a unique position in American history."

"There is no thought that the president would accept another nomination unless conditions materially change, but the people of the west, who admire him and believe in him, would be glad to confer on him the distinction of another nomination, even if it has to be followed up with the selection of a new nominee, who will have to be, no matter what his personality, firmly committed to the Roosevelt policies."

Jenkins Called on to Explain.

John Jenkins of Nebraska, United States consul at San Salvador, is coming home to explain some things in relation to the recent clash between Salvador and Nicaragua. There are, it is understood, some real ugly charges fled against Jenkins by the Salvadoran government, which alleges that the Omaha man gave aid and comfort secretly to the Nicaraguans and permitted them to misuse his official capacity.

It is related of Jenkins, who is an immune from yellow and other tropic fevers, that he has taken some delight in out-touring the horrors of his position to would-be successors, and outlining what would befall them should they be appointed to his position. Thus far ambitious Americans desiring consular positions have fought shy of putting in an application for Salvador.

DE COSTA GETS TWO YEARS

Negro Convicted of Perjury in Connection with Hartje Case Sent to Penitentiary.

PITTSBURGH, May 29.—William R. De Costa, colored, who was convicted of perjury in connection with the trial of Richard Hoce, the negro coachman formerly in the employ of Augustus Hartje, was today sentenced to serve two years in the western penitentiary. Hoce is now serving a sentence in the same penal institution, having been convicted of perjury, and with the incarceration of De Costa this closes a sensational chapter of the sequel to the sensational Hartje divorce proceedings.

The next will probably be the trial of the libelant, Augustus Hartje and John L. Welshon on the charge of conspiracy, and when these cases have been disposed of there will remain only the indictments against Staabs and Anderson, the two detectives who have been granted a new trial on the charge of riding the trunk of Thomas Madine, the coachman co-respondent.

WEATHER IS STILL ABNORMAL

Further Drop of Temperature in North Dakota and Eastern Montana.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The weather bureau tonight held out no hope of any change from the abnormally cold weather, which has prevailed east of the Rocky mountains. The only material change reported was a further drop in the mercury in North Dakota and the eastern part of Montana. Cloudy and unsettled weather is also reported throughout the region of the cold wave, except in the vicinity of the lower Great lakes. The forecast for Thursday and Friday says: "Temperature changes will not be marked."

EL PASO, Tex., May 29.—Two and one-half inches of snow fell at Cloudcroft, N. M., 100 miles north of here, today and the prospects are that it will snow again tonight.

The California, Fort Geary and B. & N. are still tied up.

THE CITY HAS BEEN APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER OF THE UNITED RAILROADS.

SOCIALIST IN BOISE JAIL

Police Threatened with Violence if Armed and Disguised Man Is Not Released.

BOISE, Idaho, May 29.—There have been suggestive developments today in connection with the arrest of Carl H. Duncan, the young man found disguised on the streets yesterday. City authorities received an unsigned letter saying that he was a worthy young man and that unless he was turned loose at once violence would be done to the mayor and chief of police. H. S. Parks, the young socialist writer whose name was connected with that of Duncan by letters found on the latter, called on the police this morning and asked to be protected from Duncan, saying that he was in fear of harm from him. Duncan, when questioned, said that he and Parks were deadly enemies and that he had challenged Parks to a duel for things he had written and said about him. The police nothing but a denial of this story of enmity and are going to make a further investigation of it.

Duncan was subjected to a long examination this morning by Prosecuting Attorney Kolesch and the police and, according to them, he said he was a graduate of the University of Michigan. He said that his mother lived at Ann Arbor, where he has a younger brother attending the university and another brother is an electrician in New York. Duncan gave his birthplace as Plattburgh, N. Y., but said he left there when a boy.

Duncan is 24 years of age, has red hair, a full, round face is five feet nine inches tall and is of stocky build.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 29.—Investigation here develops that Carl H. Duncan, who graduated from the University of Michigan in 1904, started for the Klondike about eight years ago. At Seattle he met with financial reverses, being unable to proceed. His mother, Mrs. I. E. Duncan, a widow, and his brother, Robert W. Duncan, a student in the university, reside at 438 Maynard street. They heard from Carl a week ago from some town in Washington. He asserted that some other man is passing under his name. He never knew of Carl's having socialist sentiments.

Arrival of the President.

Theodore Roosevelt arrived at 12:45 p. m., and was driven immediately to the residence of Justice Day for luncheon. Among others at the table were Secretaries Root, Cortelyou and Wilson, Governor Harris and former governor Herrick.

Immediately after luncheon the president and party went to the McKinley home. The body, in its black casket, rested in its flower-embowered place in the so-called "Campaign office" in the place where the president McKinley lay. The roses which Mrs. McKinley favored filled the room, while many more, for which there was not room in the house, were sent to the cemetery ahead of the cortege.

President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks and Secretary Root, Wilson and Cortelyou occupied seats in the parlors. Relatives and immediate friends of the family were seated in the hall and adjoining rooms.

While the services were being conducted by the Rev. Dr. Buxton of the First Methodist Episcopal church and the Rev. Dr. Holmes, formerly pastor of that church, all business and amusement in Canton stopped. Retail stores, schools and places of amusement, both in the city and surrounding country, were closed and the street cars in the vicinity of the McKinley home ceased to run.

Thousands of persons lined the sidewalks and were pressed behind the ropes along North Market and Louis streets, and all along the route to West Lawn cemetery flags were at half-mast, and men and women here and there lined the way.

Profusion of Floral Offerings.

Flowers, with the roses which Mrs. McKinley loved, predominating, filled the house and their fragrance spread out of doors amongst the thousands who lined the walks. So numerous were the floral remembrances, not only from Ohio, but from all over the nation, that the greater part of them had to be taken to the cemetery after the funeral procession. The receiving vault which is still guarded by United States regular soldiers, will be the resting place of both Mr. and Mrs. McKinley until the magnificent McKinley mausoleum built by public subscription is completed, probably in September.

Among those present during the services were the following: Mr. and Mrs. George Barber of New York; Mr. Mabel McKinley Bar and her husband, Dr. Herman Baer of New York; Miss Helen McKinley of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Fayette McWilliams of Chicago, former Postmaster General Gary and his wife, Senator Knox of Pittsburg and Senator Dick and Mrs. Dick, former Comptroller of the Currency Charles C. Dawes and Mrs. Dawes and ex-Governor Herrick of Cleveland.

The sons of two former presidents met at the funeral—Webb Hayes of Cleveland and James R. Garfield.

Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of the vice president, could not attend, owing to illness, but sent a floral wreath.

The pallbearers were Judge Henry W. Hartner, John C. Dueser, Joseph Biechle, Robert Cassidy and George B. Freese, who were honorary pallbearers at the funeral of President McKinley, and Arthur Lynch, R. S. Shivers and Judge C. C. Bow.

When the services in the cemetery were over the presidential party returned to the Baltimore & Ohio depot, where the 4:35 train for Indianapolis was taken.

Despite the rumor that Michael Colquhoun, brother of the assassin of President McKinley, would be in Canton today, the funeral and the presidential visit of the president passed off without any sinister incident. The local police and secret service men from Washington exercised alert vigilance during the president's stay, but no trace was found of Colquhoun, nor any anarchist, although three strangers to the city were held in the jail until the president had left.

Short Address by President.
