AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Fire and Police Board Forfeits License of Bernard Krebs. CHARGED WITH SELLING ON SUNDAY

The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners revoked the first license under the policy pursued by the new board, last night that of Bernard Krebs, who runs a saloon on Railroad avenue and Madison street. He has ordinarily borne a good reputation with the police. The evidence produced was conclusive in the minds of the board members that the law had been infringed. The evidence was chiefly that of Detective P. H. Seidels, who made the arrest in the case. He said he had watched men going in and coming out of the place for two hours before he forced an entrance. When he entered he found men drinking beer and one of these rushed out the side door carrying some liquor with him. The officer captured some of the liquor and preserved it. All of the members of the family strenuously denied that any beer was either sold or given away in the place. The brother of Bernard Krebs, his father and mother testified that they live in the rooms attached to the rear of the saloon and that several people came to the door to buy eggs of Mrs. Krebs. Mrs. Krebs, sr., declared that her husband was sick and that he was drinking beer with the hope of curing his ailment. Bernard Krebs himself testified that he was at home in his own home fully half a block away and knew nothing of the things which went on in the rooms.

Internal revenue for the Nebraska district for the month of May, 1907, were $36,793.45, as against $25,763.65 for May, 1906.
