Too Many Boosters Gone.—The executive committee of the Commercial club held its regular meeting Tuesday noon, but, owing to the fact that many of the members are out of the city, no business of importance was transacted.

Apology to the Court.—A. O. Watson, who was committed to the county jail for contempt of court by Judge Sutton for removing the children of his father-in-law from the jurisdiction of the court, has been released by order of the judge. Watson made an apology for his conduct in court and an apology for the practice is stopped. The offenders are men and boys who have a swimming hole near the Swift ice house. The practice is very annoying to the members of the club and others who use the lake for boating purposes and it is announced that stringent means will be taken to put a stop to it. The complaint is signed by John A. Scott, president of the club.

W. Young Buys Cottages.—John W. Young has bought the three seven-room modern cottages at Sixteenth and Burdette streets from John D. Seitz of Kansas City for $10,000. The deal was made through the Payne Investment company.

Each Board Inspection Case.—The inspection case against the South Omaha Park board, in which an attempt is being made to prevent the purchase of certain property for park purposes, will come up before Judge Hedick Thursday morning.

More Boys Than Girls.—The statement of births in Omaha for May, 1907, shows a total of 171, of which eighty-eight were boys and eighty-four girls. There were two negroes in the list, one boy and one girl. The statement for May, 1906, showed a total of 165 births—eighty-six boys and seventy-four girls, the negro returns being identical with this year.

Gasoline Stove and Match.—A gasoline stove blowing up at the home of George A. Eastman, 2210 Webster street, caused a fire at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, but it was extinguished without extensive loss. The home of Charles W. Hinne, 4616 Davenport street, was threatened through the agency of a match which sent a spark into a closet full of clothing at 9 o'clock in the evening. The damage there amounted to about $50.

Aged Man Trying to Break Dead.—Julius Engelke, an aged German, is trying in Judge Kennedy's court to have a deed to some property set aside. His suit is against his son, Herman Engelke. He says he signed the deed with the understanding it would not be placed on record until after his death. Whether it was recorded in his life, some one, he contends, got into the safe and took it out and filed it. The hearing of the suit began Tuesday in Judge Kennedy's court.

Attempt to Break Will.—An attempt will be made to break the will of Frank Lettner, which was admitted for probate by Judge Lettner several days ago. In the will Lettner accused his son, Frank Lettner, Jr., and wife of calling him names when he demanded the return of $40 he says he loaned his son. The younger Lettner denies the charge made in the will and has filed an application to have the decree of the court admitting the will to probate set aside. It is understood the case will be carried into the higher courts.

Verdict for Insurance Policy.—V. W. Chapman secured a verdict for $1,140.25 against the Columbia Fire Insurance company and R. C. Peters & Co. on an insurance policy in which it was alleged an error had been made. The policy was

DANIEL MAY HAVE TO ACT

City Prosecutor Accused of Blocking Sanitary Reform.

TO BE FORCED TO DO HIS DUTY

Dr. Connell Says He Will Consult Bureau and See Whether City Prosecutor Can Let Violators of Law Escape.

"I hope to make the city prosecutor perform his duty," says City Health Commissioner Connell, democrat, of City Prosecutor Daniel, democrat. "I will consult with the city attorney and we will see if the city prosecutor can let violators of the law escape at his own will."

Dr. Connell is complaining that the nugatory attitude of Mr. Daniel thwarts his efforts at enforcing proper sanitary conditions.

Dr. Connell has received reinforcements in his contest with the city prosecutor to secure punishment for people who willfully violate the ordinances of the city. Tuesday morning John Pegg, city inspector of weights and measures, called at the office of the Board of Health and wished the doctor success in his undertaking. Incidentally he declared that the city prosecutor had redereed nugatory his efforts to force peddlers and merchants to sell only from just scales and measures.

The inspector said he had made many complaints to the city prosecutor, in form as required by law, but could never get a warrant for persons from whom he had confiscated false weights and measures.

Wagoner Will Help, Too. License Inspector Wagoner is another who wishes the health commissioner success, but he is not as keen as he was a day or two ago, for the city prosecutor has taken action in two instances before the board, when certain draying and express companies are accused of operating wagons without taking out the required license. For several weeks Mr. Wagoner has tried to get warrants and had practically given up the fight when, Tuesday morning, he was informed that warrants would be issued. He now hopes he hopes to get around to issuing warrants in cases wherein owners of automobiles are accused of operating without license.

"Now that the conditions have been made public," said Dr. Connell, "I hope to make the prosecuting attorney perform his duty. In fact, he is going to perform that duty, if there is any power in the land which will compel the enforcement of law. I will consult with the city attorney and we will see if the prosecutor can let violators of law escape at his own will. I will take the matter before the mayor, if no other method is open, and see if he will not appoint an acting prosecutor to enforce the law."

"The time is past for procrastination. The summer months are near at hand and it is only the peculiar season which has prevented Omaha residents from realizing, through their noses, the condition of some parts of the town. This department desires the co-operation of citizens in keeping the town clean. It does not want police court cases, but it will have the law observed, even if it becomes necessary to bring the most radical measures to bear upon the prosecutor to do it."

Both Blame Connell. That Health Commissioner Connell and his inspector are to blame for the cases of failure to remove garbage is the reply of Police Judge Bryce Crawford to the criticism of Dr. Connell of the way such cases are handled by the judge and city prosecutor.

"The inspectors don't bring in any evidence," said the judge Tuesday. "It is with the health inspectors as with those of the milk department. Every milkman whom I have fined has said he bought his milk from the big dairies and I have asked them to get samples from those places, but they don't do it. They always promise to, but never do."

The city prosecutor's office also laid the blame at the feet of the inspectors connected with the health office.

"The inspectors come here with complaints against reputable business men," said Prosecutor Daniel, "and when I go to the telephone to learn why the orders of the health department have not been obeyed, they tell me that they are using every effort to get the garbage company around to do the work, or else they inform me they have never received any notice of anything wrong."

LETTERS FROM BEE READERS

Another View of the Dog Muzzling Question is to Let Each Dog Stand for Its Own Acts.

Contributions on timely topics invited. Write legibly on one side of the paper only, with name and address appended. On request names will not be printed. Unread contributions will not be returned. Letters exceeding 300 words will be subject to being cut down at the discretion of the editor. Publication of views of correspondents does not commit The Bee to their endorsement.

OMAHA, June 3.—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: Dear Sir: There has been considerable controversy over the dog question, but there is one point which I have failed to see brought up and that is this: I think dogs, like men, should be made to suffer for their own individual crime and not for the crimes of others. Why not have dog commissions appointed, one in each ward, or two if necessary, paid a nominal salary to investigate the character of all dogs in their respective wards?

If dogs are found to be vicious they should be reported by the ward commissioner to the mayor, who could act as a referee and should say what was to be done with the dog.

I am a great lover of dog dogs, but do not like to be annoyed by noisy dogs. There is a young bull pup near us which has a habit of running at people and jumping on them. Several children have been very badly frightened. The owner says the dog is only playing, but it is a great annoyance to neighbors. This dog should not be killed, but placed under restraint.

Kindly give your views as to the advisability of appointing these dog commissioners. Yours very truly,
AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

NEW ORDERS FOR THE POLICE

Warned to Treat Public Civilly and Refrain from Clipping Prisoners.

Chief of Police Donahue Submitted to the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners last night a copy of a letter of instruction recently issued to the police department. The letter calls attention to the attitude police officers are expected to maintain toward the public, and enjoins them to be courteous and civil at all times. The clipping of prisoners is forbidden, except as a matter of absolute necessity. The letter says:

"It is the intention of the mayor and board of police officers at all times to have the officer who mistreats or abuses a prisoner, or who does not exercise due precaution for his safety, will be severely dealt with."

The board announced that a motion would be made two weeks from last night to have all slot machines removed from business houses.

Three new members of the police force were appointed last night, viz: James T. Murphy, Charles I. Easley and John McDougall.

Four new firemen were put on the reserve list, as follows: Thomas Hastings, Harry McCloud, Sam Carney and Edward Turner, the latter being colored.

Charles E. Seefus was appointed special policeman for the Northeast Improvement club.

Michael Mravence, a fireman, and Patrolman A. H. Jackson were granted each ten days' leave of absence.

Arthur Shields, who is Chief Donahue's secretary, acted as secretary to the board last night, and will continue to do so in the future.

CONTRACT FOR VINTON SCHOOL

Capital City Brick and Tile Company is to Erect the New Structure.

The Board of Education held a short and unimportant meeting Monday evening. The resignation of Thomas W. Shea as janitor of the Hancock school was accepted with remarks of regret. Shea held the position for nineteen years and it was stated that he showed great interest and took pride in his work.

The contract of the Capital City Brick and Tile company for the Vinton Street school was approved.

The claim of Charles Durdane for $12.50 janitor of the Walnut Hill school was paid out of his work by an order from the health department, which proved to have been made on an erroneous report. The board adjourned to meet next Monday evening.

After the adjournment Superintendent Davidson reported that he had just returned from a visit to the High School Cadets' camp and stated that it was the best site that has been selected in four or five years, being a slope which provides the best drainage and, in case of the heaviest rains, the campers will not be inconvenienced as they would on a level field. He also said the tents were all up when he left.

WOMAN TRIES TO HOLD THIEF

Mrs. E. McGinnis Displays Courage in Grappling with Young Negro Man.

Archibald Kelly, a young colored man living at 148 Sherman avenue, was arrested by Officer Mitchell and Sullivan after a chase of three blocks about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and locked up at the city jail on a serious charge.

The boy was said by Mrs. E. McGinnis, 918 North Eighteenth street, to have broken into her house while she was on the outside and was going through the rooms when she discovered him. She said she was busy in the yard with the washing when upon re-entering the house she came upon young Kelly ransacking the place.

Far from following the usual custom of women in similar positions, Mrs. McGinnis attempted to grapple with the intruder, but he broke away and ran, the woman following a short distance. The officers happened to be near and took up the chase when the thug was brought back to the station and held at sixteenth and Cuming streets they caught the fugitive.

Kelly was held as a suspicious character and his record will be carefully investigated before any crime is laid to him.

PARIS AS MORAL REFUGE

Child Sent from Mother in Omaha to Grandparents.

OMAHA TO THE FRENCH CAPITAL

Woman from This City Will Take Little Girl Over the Ocean, Ending an Affair of Some International Aspect.

Saturday Suite Bureau will start for her future home in Paris. This is the close of an incident in which officials of two countries have been interested for about two months. About eight weeks ago Probation Officer Bernstein received an anonymous letter in which it was stated that a girl of about 4 years of age was being kept at a resort on Tenth street, near Capitol avenue. The writer of the letter alleged that the child was a virtual prisoner, being kept in the house, out of sight of all persons except its reputed mother, and only permitted to take the fresh air after dark.

Investigation followed, and after some difficulty Susie Barret was rescued from the woman home. It was ascertained that the woman having her in charge was really her mother.

The little girl was paroled by the juvenile court in care of a farmer of the county and it was supposed she was provided for until she passed beyond the jurisdiction of the court. From remarks of the child it was learned she had grandparents in France and inquiry was made at the French capital regarding them. They proved to be industrious and respectable citizens of more than average financial standing, who were shocked when they learned the life being led by their son's wife in America.

Child Born in America. Susie was born in America, but with her mother had visited Paris and had only been in America six months when found in the Tenth street house. The grandparents expressed a desire for the child and when assured by French authorities that they were proper persons to have charge of her the probation officers looked about for a suitable person to take her across the water.

An Omaha woman is starting on a trip to Europe Saturday and she will take Susie with her. She will also take an order from the juvenile court setting forth the facts in the case, so that it will be impossible for her again to fall into the hands of the mother from whom she was taken.

PARTY RATES OPEN TO ALL

Commutation Passenger Rates Can Be Used by Any Body of Persons.

The railroads generally have united in throwing open to the general public the so-called party rates. Heretofore only organized parties, such as theatrical troupes, baseball clubs and such bodies could have the benefit of these rates, but now they are open to any party of persons. In parties of ten or more up to nineteen a rate of 25 cents is made and in parties of twenty or more a rate of 2 cents a mile. These rates are now in effect.

Wyoming is again stirred up over the report that the Burlington is about to begin building its line from Worland to Denver, making the Big Horn branch the main trunk line to the northwest. A party of Burlington officials visited Worland last week and this has set the natives to talking the new line again. Thermopolis is to be on the new road and the canyon route is the one to be used in the construction of this great road, which will open a direct line to the great markets east and south for the Big Horn basin products.

John Eyer, live stock agent of the Burlington, has returned from Texas, where he has been for the last few weeks looking after the first movements of the range cattle north. The cattle are now moving at a lively rate.
