THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omalia postoffice as second-

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Sunday Bee, one year..... Saturday Bee, one year.... DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Daily Bee (including Sunday), per week. Be Daily Bee (without Sunday), per week. Jor Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week. Jor Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week. Jor Address all complaints of irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Department. OFFICES.

OFFICES. Omaha-The Bee Suiding. South Omaha-City Hall Building. Council Buffs-15 Scott Street. Chicago-1640 Unity Building. New York-1508 Home Life Insurance Bidg. Washington-501 Fourteenth Street. CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed. Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company. Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or eastern exchange, not accepted.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION.

State of Nebraska, Douglas County as. Charles C. Resewater, general manager of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee print ad during the month of May, 1907, was as follows: 760

1	35,650	18
2	35,510	19	38,8
8	35,290	20	35,1
4	I A COMPANY AND AND A		35,6
5	Contraction of the second second	22	35,1
6	35,580	23	35,8
7	35,480	24	35,4
8	35,550	26	35.8
9	35,790	30	34.6
	35,290	27	35,4
10	20.0000000000	28	35,
11	35,390		36,0
32	34,550	29	35,6
13	35,480	30	35,6
14		21	0010
26	85,930	Contract The
16	$5,460	Total1,	090,0
17	35,360		1000
Less unsol	d and re	turned copies	9,6
Not taked	1.0		084.5
There and the			35;0
many average		C. ROSEWAT
CH	ARLING	General Man	ILES,
distances band	the later of	resence and sw
before me th	in my p	lay of May, 19	07.
(Seal)	na erat s	M. H. HUNGA	1.854
in the second seco		Notary P	ublic
The second secon		the second se	-

310

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Mr. Bryan says he is irrevocably against a third term. The first term seems to be irrevocably against him.

"Dollar making is not necessarily business," says Mr. Carnegie. No; it is a pleasure, denied to most people.

without injury to either the party or-Howard Gould is becoming suspiganizations or the people. cious that his wife married him just to teach him new ways of spending money.

Reports show that since Harry Orchard has been locked up the population of Idaho is increasing at a normal rate.

PAUCITY OF PARTY ISSUES. and a picture of Fancuil Hall now Rather remarkable progress has adorns the center of the official seal. seen made in this country in the last The staid Boston Transcript, comfew years in the matter of eliminating mending the substitution, says: great questions, affecting the welfare The beanpot's somewhat hasty adoption of the entire people, from the domain at the start indicated an absence of childish resentment against the ancient and of party politics. Mr. Bryan referred bewhiskered joke of identifying the clip to this fact, in a good natured way, the with that useful utensil, which may still other day when, in the course of an have its symbolic uses; but the sign by address to the New York legislature, which we expect to conquer should be associated with something of more dignity he said: and importance than the prevailing Sun-I find it increasingly difficult to make a day morning repast. If the enterprise is partisan speech. Whenever I make one, a serious one its symbolism should be of a before long President Roosevelt says the kind that the historian rather than the same things with more force and, elohumorist has made famous. No better sequence, and takes them out of the field of partisanship.

lection than the old and honored "Cradle of Liberty" could have been made. It The leaders of the two great parties stands for all that is most distinctive in are in very close accord, having very the larger civic life of Boston. Its fame similar ideas as to the nature of the has gone out to the ends of the earth, for government and the policies that from it has gone forth appeals for liberty should be employed and adopted. The in other lands as well as our own.

Now that Boston's virtue and patristatement applies, too, to the rank otism has been officially recognized, and file of the parties, as well as to the the work of advertising home-coming leaders. Today there is little room for bitter party strife. Partles are week may be resumed, but Boston should not delude itself with the idea does has also been short. simply a reflex of public sentiment and the people have become educated bethat the exiles are returning to gaze yond the point where they will blindly at Faneuil Hall, to get a new and affollow the organization leaders. The fectionate look at Bunker Hill monument or to lay in a new stock of patripeople have learned to think for themselves, with the result that there is otism at its fountain head. The wanlittle difference between republicans dering Bostonians are being irresistiand democrats on the question of bly drawn home by the vision of the beanpot and its succulent contents. finance, tariff, railway regulation, the control of trusts, the Panama canal or RAILROAD TAXATION. any of the questions before the public. The tabulation of railroad valuation Unquestionably, the general effect for the purpose of taxation in Neof the condition will be good. The braska shows the increase over last issues between the two great partles year to be a little more than $5,000,upon which it would be possible to 000, distributed throughout eighty-five arouse partisan excitement are becomcounties. This will give Douglas ing fewer and fewer and both organicounty, for example, an additional zations are realizing that their future value on the tax roll of about $140, appeals must be to the intelligence of 000, which is at a ratio of increase not the people, not to their partisanship. exceeding that of the general property There is liftle or no prospect that the of the county. The annual assessremoval of these public questions will result in the obliteration of party lines, been completed, and while the figures but there is a very certain prospect, are not available, yet the indications to already in fair way to realization, that are that a normal and healthy increase it will result in a confusion of poliin value will be recorded. The real ticians and party organizations. It estate valuations were corrected last will compel party leaders to select year and show a comfortable addition their most competent and worthy men to the tax roll. for office and will effectually bar the Railroad property will not be as-"yellow dog ticket" from success at sessed locally under the terminal tax the polls. It will be a good thing for assessment law this year on account the country when the voters reach their own conclusions on public quesof the failure of the bill to carry the emergency clause. Next year when tions and elevate men to office on account of their merit and integrity, occurs the railroad property will be returns! rather than because they wear the added locally. In the meantime the label of one party or another. "Party railroad complaint of excessive valuaorganization, under our form of government, is essential and desirable, but habit than of actual conditions. blind partisanship may be eliminated

THE POTENCE OF PIE.

fathers and fortify himself, before go-

Ray Stannard Baker, 'one of the original "Florodora sextette" of mag-MORE PAY FOR THE ARMY. azine muckrakers, who has been mak-A determined effort is to be made to ing a tour of the south and studying induce the next congress to pass a bill the negro question, sent something of increasing the pay of the officers and men in the army, navy, marine corps' a chill through the country in his last at least 57 per cent. and revenue cutter services. Friends article by declaring that the south is of the movement have already pre- rapidly breaking itself of the pie habit. and geologist of Washington, is one of the few men in the United States who have no policy of the popocratic administrations, when the foating debt was plied up and the state's money was buried in banks at the pleasure of the treasurer.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: MONDAY, JUNE 10, 1907.

Lancaster's county attorney is going after the street railway companies of Lincoln for lower fares. He has not apairing conviction of many men who will, made the mistake of going to the city or who might, vote for him, that he is council, however, but will take his foredoomed to defeat. To many of these suit directly to the State Railway commission. The outcome of the application will be watched with interest home on election day. He has represented in Omaha, where public concern in an issue in his two disastrous campaigns. cheaper fure is still keen.

The Society of Equity takes a slam at the government crop report. This and while he cannot hold all that came is the most-unkindest cut of all. Government crop reporters, as a rule, base their guesses on guesses originally him in 1900. furnished by the farmers.

One point in favor of the weather man is that so far the crop of torna-

Faker Fields Unworked.

Kansas City Times. It is strange that no gifted "nature faker" has yet written an account of a battle between a green bug and a lady bug, or given a vivid description of the long standing warfare between the boll weevil and the Guatemalan ant.

Straight Road is Best. Philadelphia Record. In the opinion of all railroad managers the straightest route is the best route. If they will only make the moral management of their corporations conform to the physical as to the straight way, demagogues will linquencies, > Scattering Japanese Money. New York Tribune.

Six prominent Japanese citizens have just enched this country with $10,000,000 in their pockets, one-half of which sum is to be spent here for machinery, armament and ment of personal property has just raw materials. The other half goes for men.

PERSONAL NOTES.

However, the June bride doubtless will be Secretary Taft is incapable of compromisup to the usual standard of sweetness, ing. Senator Foraker is incapable of surwhether the weather is or not.

The case of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould ment for president next year. Foraker wants the indorsement for senator next perely emphasizes the fact that people can year. Why not? "This party war is have lots of money and still be mighty un-lost.

futile," their friends considerately agree; happy. "let's all acquiesce in both indorsements." The Washington Herald notes with delight the unanimity with which the press of the Everybody is good, everybody will be land is rallying to the defense of Methuthe general re-valuation of real estate selah. That is right; no going behind the happy.

Prof. Eugene Wambaugh of the Harvard Law school has been engaged by the government since early in March compiling tion is really more the result of a information about statute law affecting corporations. He is regarded as one of the greatest authorities in America on constitutional law.

> Henry F. Shaw, the well known mechanical engineer of Roxbury, Mass., has recently had patented a new type of the famous balanced locomotive, which he maintains would, if adopted by all the railroads of the country on which high speed is made, reduce the liability to accident. W. J. McGee, the famous anthropologist pared a bill which has been forwarded. He asserted that ple had lost its place "given" names. That, is to say, his two The government proposes to start an to members of congress, together with as a fixed article of diet on southern initials serve as a gi , as they do not stand for names, as initials usually do. if they like the man in the lump. tables and that pie-biting had become Mr. McGee was named "W. J." in his inpractically a lost art. However, to the fancy, and "W. J." he is to this day. confusion of Mr. Baker, the Atlanta Stricken Valparaiso is undergoing rebuild-Journal thus records a recent incident ing troubles very much as Ban Francisco. A correspondent of the Boston Transcript says "building material and labor are very After pawning a typewriter for a piece Lumber is brought from southern of ple, thus strengthening the inner man high. Chill, 500 miles away. It has greatly risen and lessening the weight he was carrying, in price, and is still scarce at any price. Emory Carver, an athletic gentleman, who claims Canton, Cherolice county, on his Labor is still scarcer and higher than material. Workmen who were glad to get $1.50 home, gave members of the Atlanta deteca day a year ago now demand $6. Carpentive department a delightful exhibition of ters ask $8, and even $10, and a friend told printing. He outran two officers, distanced me of one workman whom he found lying two fleet-footed patriots, and might have in bed at 10 o'clock in the morning because been running yet had he steered clear of the best offer he had for his day's service an avenue traversed by a trolley car. was only $6."

A Democratic Platform.

St. Louis Republic (dem.). The democratic party is going into next year's presidential fight lined up on the safe and conservative principles upon which all its great victories have been won.

The rights of the states against federal aggression will be a ringing note in its battle cry.

A tariff that will bring revenue to the treasury and promote American industry without allowing predatory monopolies to intrench behind it, the democracy will instat upon.

Hostility to oppressive trusts and combinations in restraint of trade, no matter in what lines of business or industry, will be a strong declaration in the platform. Betterment of navigation in the inland waterways, especially those of the Mississippt valley, will be urged as the best of cease to find profit in denouncing their de- all promoters of commerce and the best possible regulator of railroad freight charges.

> Pence in Ohio. New York World (Ind. dem.).

STATE PRESS COMMENT. Peace again reigns in Ohio. The Foraker headquarters in Akron have been closed and Dick has packed up his kit of tools, Beatrice Sun: The man who rides upor Brother Charles in Cincinnati agrees that a pass should not be a deadhead in the tips to Pullman porters, waiters and cab- the Taft managers will guit fighting For- enterprise, and he will not be. If he is just beginning to give the proper ataker and bury the hatchet. The bloodless war is over. Not a political life has been thing to him. Of course both sides offer explanations.

rendering. Taft wants the state indorse- for the far northwest and put in a substitute in time to avoid the Frank Baker execution on June 15.

> refusal to stand the loss on diseased cattle. When we stop to think how quick most people are to sell anything when they make sure it is going to die.

Norfolk Weekly Press: Tom Allen has Roosevelt and Bryan. been given a clean bill of health on the Baltimore News. pass question by the Missouri Pacific man-

It is a striking phenomenon that is proagement, and stands acquitted. It was only Rented by the ascendency of the second loyalty and admiration from the personal loyalty and admiration for at least nine-tenths of the American people. Whatever the next presidential election may show, it is certain that, so case of Roosevelt and Bryan first, and the second to the making the capacity of the fount of knowledge of some of the Elikhorn valley editors. I would enjoy drinking in the inspiration that will flow in large allopathic doses. But the interstate Commerce commissioners must be blamed for my inability to atsented by the ascendency of these two men a courtesy extended him in deference to selves. Both, too, have phenomenal powers of work and of enduratice. Both have bookkeeping methods. When the companies

Washington Post (ind.).

NEW PERFECTION Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove Because it's clean. Because it's economical. Because it saves time. Because it gives best cooking results. Because its flame can be regulated instantly. Because it will not overheat your kitchen. Because it is better than the coal or wood stove. Because it is the perfected oil stove. For other reasons see stove at your dealer's, or write our nearest agency. Made in three sizes and fully warranted. Ravo Lamp for its bright and steady light, simple construction and absolute safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and beautifully nickeled. An ornament to any room, whether library, dining-room, parlor or bedroom. Every lamp warranted. Write to our nearest agency if not at your dealer's.

Use A

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (INCORPORATED)

can guess just about who are willing to make the race for the various offices by their congentality.

h

Aurora Republican: The Nebraska press docen't do something in return for the tention to the abuse of the postal frank-"courtesy," the "courtesy" will do some- ing privilege on the part of members of Harvard Courier: Governor Sheldon evi. ficit in the Postoffice department and the dently does not intend to get tangled up recent agitation for amendment of the in any pardon scandal, for he pulled out postal laws to reduce, that deficit have brought to light some good-sized leaks and one of the biggest of these leaks is in the use of the free government enaddresses and printed matter of a nature tending primarily to strengthen them with their constituency and only of secondary interest. If postage were paid on half of

WHIMSICAL FUN.

in any light to which they have given them-selves. Both, too, have phenomenal powers of work and of endurance. Both have their defects, but the American people are not prene to bother much about defects recently filed their list of passholders, as ide transaction or merely a trap to get a man before the grand jury."-Washington man before the grand jury. Star.

the federal congress. The growing de-

Carleton Leader: On second thought one velope by senators and congressmen to an hardly blame the packers for their send out letters making dates for public > this matter the postal deficit would be wlped out.

inquiry to ascertain if the Coal trust is an oppressive monopoly. It might The new bill provides for an increase interview a few consumers. ---

The young man who has had a lovely spring suit at home that he bought early in April has some excuse for exhibiting symptoms of pessimism.

Omaha bank clearings for the last week show conclusively that the activity that has marked the year in business has not in any way decreased.

The English insist that Richard Croker was not "a proper person" to win the derby. Croker may not be popular, but he has very taking ways.

Secretary Taft says he is, going to study the tariff question. It is refreshing to discover one statesman who does not claim to know all about the tariff.

"A solled hand looks as good to me as any other," says President Roosevelt. Sure.' "Dirty deuces" make a mighty good hand, if you have enough of them.

The Thread trust has put the price of thread up a cent a spool. The bachelor will not kick, however, so long as shingle nails and safety pins when every Bostonian feared by day remain so cheap.

vising Mr. Harriman to quit talking, present trouble, however, deals not the curlous Interstate Commerce commission threatens to go into the courts to make him talk

"Mr. Bryan will receive his reward in the long run," says the Memphia Commercial-Appeal. Don't know about that. He has already had two long runs without his reward.

The reading public should not become too enthusiastic over the announcement that Henry James' new novel will be published next month. It has not yet been translated into English.

The Department of Agriculture shows that water carries typhoid, milk holds the germ of tuberculosis and whisky indulgence produces paresis. A cheese lemonade seems to be about the only safe beverage left.

Japan may inquire why the United States becomes so excited over an httack upon American missionaries by Chinese boxers and pays so little attention to an attack on Japanese citi- and that so long as it was certain that in. zens by San Francisco boxers.

arguments in support of its adoption. of 10 per cent in the pay of the generais, 15 per cent for major and brigadier generals, 20 per cent for colonels, 25 per cent for captains and commis-in that southern metropolis: stoned officers below that grade and 30 per cent for enlisted men. It is difficult to understand the opposition of congress to the proposed increase of pay for men in the army and navy. Measures looking to that end have been introduced at every session of congress for years, but have in-Here we have unbiased testimony variably been defeated, and there has that the succulent pie still retains its been no change in the pay of the army pristine potency as a toxic and inand navy for thirty years. While the toxicant. Dietetic experts, students of pay of some of the officers of higher sociological conditions and faddists of rank is comparatively liberal, it is high and low degree may continue to admitted that the pay for enlisted men rail against the magical combination of and officers up to the grade of major fruit, flour and cook's skill, but the is not sufficient to secure the enlistman who wants to meet emergencies ment or retention in the service of the and overcome them in this work-a-day character of men desired. The proworld of ours, whether the emergency posed bill gives the highest increase assumes the form of a financial battle, where it is most deserved, and the a shrewd business transaction, barter prospect is that congress will look or sale, a fight or a foot race, will conupon the measure with more favor tinue to follow the example of his than it has in the past.

ing into action, with a wedge of pie. FANEUIL HALL VS. BRAN POT. They may destroy our idols and shat-Boston has not been so excited since ter our ideals, but they must not rob the days of the Spanish-American war, us of our ple. and dreamed by night that Cervera's fleet was going to drop into the harbor

The Omaha trade boosters have While the rest of the country is ad- and wipe the town off the map. The reached the limit of their outward trip and will now turn their faces home. It has been a novel experience with war or war's alarms, but is a proto many of them and a delightful extest against the action of a committee perjence to all. The reception acthat, in preparation for the homecorded them along the route indicates coming week, made an appeal to the in a measure the feeling in the Great stomach rather than to the patriotism Northwest for the Gate City, and the of Boston's sons and daughters who visit has simply served to augment are temporarily exfled in barbarian this friendly sentiment. It has had states or countries. The committee another effect that has not generally which had charge of the preparations been thought of and that is it has enadopted, in a thoughtless moment, couraged those who did not go to even with visions of the fixed Saturday greater efforts at home. The impornight dinner in mind; the counterfeit tance of such a trip cannot be overpresentment of a beanpot for the cenestimated. ter of the official seal. The committee hurried thousands of letters, bearing the seal, through the mails and then the storm broke.

The Colonial Dames rose in their wrath and protested, spiritedly contending that "it would be better if the city appealed through some patriotic subject rather than to the stomach." Some of the rasher members of the committee on arrangements argued that the Bostonian who was compelled to live elsewhere thought more of beans than he did of historic subjects, the beanpot was to occupy the center of the table during the home-coming Nebraska's floating debt has been State Superintendent McBrien is celebration there was no good reason decreased by almost three-quarters of after the school census staffers. He why it should not occupy the center of a million in the last six months-a reports having discovered one district the seal and figure in the advertising. reasonably creditable showing for the times as many breakages with the recently that padded its census to the extent Just about the time the debate had operation of the state treasury. This . of 67 per cent. Such a case as this reached the point where it threatened and the fact that the treasurer pubwould seem to call for something more to cause a suspension of everything lishes a monthly statement showing sovere than a more reprimand from but the cooking of beans, the commit- cash on hand and where it can be in connection with light rails, but a poorer tos relented, the beanpot was removed found is in contradistinction to the grade of material with heavier ralls, GREED OF BAIL MAKER.

Steel Trust Accused of Marketing Inferior Material.

large majority of all democrats in the going to North Platte and in passing there made these observations. Railroad Engineer in New York Times. The real reason for the present deplorinto the platform, whereupon the northern able condition of rails furnished for use delegates went to their homes feeling conon American railroads is the cupidity of on American railroads is the cupidity of the manufacturer in placing quantity of output above quality. The lack of com-petition in the manufacture of rails and the desire of the manufacture to make would have discutted the national democratic party in that convention at his mercy. The rejection of his dictation as to platform their names before the people are already getting their names before the people through vinced that a defeat awaited their party. the desire of the manufacturer to make would have disrupted the party as hopelessly as it was split in 1860. But, fully Republican last week contained the ana good financial showing entirely remove the incentive that formerly existed for sue from their action, so many delegates nouncements of four self-sacrificing men one manufacturer to turn out as good mavoted against Mr. Bryan's ultimatum that Two desire the office of county treasurer, terial as his competitor. This is clearly shown from the refusal in the last few he could only save himself from defeat years by the manufacturers to co-operate by one vote, which was generally credited the clerk's office, while the fourth would and work in harmony with the representa- to a titled personage from Hawall. There be county assessor. Over here in Pawnee tives of the railroads, to agree upon is not in the annals of parties in this county there is little stir as yet, but you specifications for steel rails that would be country a parallel to that sample of stu-

to the manufacturer. The manufacturer appears to be afraid to consent to the preparations of any specifications that will improve the quality of the material for fear that by so doing he will reduce the output of his mills. I am especially surprised at the statement credited to Mr. Gray of the United States Steel corporation that the manufacturer "receives exact stipulations and specifications as to their (rail) composition." It is true that prior to 1902 the manufacturers consented to roll rails for the road with which I am connected, according to our specifications, but subsequent to that date we have not only been denied any right whatever to formulate ur own specifications, but we have even been refused the five-year guarantee that had been customary for the manufacturers to give where their own specifications, rather than those of the railroad, governed. In other words, so far as my knowledge goes, at the present day the American

It is cheerful to contemplate the railroads are denied the right to prepare spectacle of a Methodist minister comtheir own specifications and are forced to ing to Omaha from Kansas City and take rails of the quality which the manutelling us that the world is growing facturer chooses to give. That this quality better and that the cities themselves is very bad I think will not need very much demonstration. are leading in the procession for bet-

At a recent meeting of the American ter life. This is so different from Railway association at Chicago the request what we are accustomed to hearing was made for the rising of the representafrom the pulpit that we will cheertives of any railroad satisfied with the quality of steel rails furnished by the fully endorse the further statement of the reverend gentleman, that the men, representing 240,000 miles of railroad. church is not doing all it might to not one stood on his feet. make the world a better place to live

I am furthermore surprised that Mr. Gary is represented as having said, "If rails were heavier less would be broken.

As a matter of fact, on the lines with which I am connected, without any increase in the weight of motive power or laid 100-pound rail as there have been with the old eighty-pound raff; thus clearly demonstrating that the whole trouble of the day is not one of heavy motive power required by law, T. S. Allen, recent chairman of the democratic state committee, and hosts of lesser legal lights, whose Bryan and the Majority.

names are reported by the railroads as passholders, every one came out with em-It occurred to Mr. Bryan the other day, phatic denials, asserting that their names at Richmond, to remind a large audience appear on the list through some sort of fine

that there are more democrats in the re- error. publican states at the north than there Logan County Pioneer: As evidence of are in the solidly democratic south. That the prosperity of Logan county one should is true, and it is a act of some moment. drive by J. H. Thompson's and observe It has been such a fact for a long time. the buildings of sod he put up less than Nevertheless Mr. Bryan ignored it at Kantwenty years ago, and they were good saw City in July, 1900. As the already ones then, are yet, then see the nominated candidate of the populist na- barns, the elegant new residence and gentional convention ha felt bound to keep eral air of prosperity and say whether faith with them by demanding reaffirma- there is money in farming. He started tion of the sixteen-to-one hoodoo, the rot- with his homestead and tree claim and ten-money proposition which was the tie now has a section, and Mr. Thompson that bound the populists to the Bryan is only one of many who have made a democrats. Therefore, against the protests success on the farm, but we mention his and votes of delegates representing a very because it is on the road all travel in

> Pawnee Republican: In Nemaha county, and in other Nebraska counties which are

> > G Pond's Extract Scap to guaranteed under Pure Foods and Drugs Act, June 30, 1986-as pure as its cream-white solor indicates. The name applars on cake and container. Ask your druggist.

who were willing to serve their country.

"Doctor, I suppose that cross-grained, grouchy old patient of yours is grumbling now because he can't complain of the heat." "Woll, I really can't say whether he is suffering with the heat or not." "What, in this raw weather?" "Oh, then, you don't know he's dead."-Philadelphia Press.

"Really, Mr. Dubley," complained the spoiled beauty, as the usher showed them to their seats, "I'm not accustomed to sit-

"H'm the balcony." "H'm er-to tell you the truth." stam-mered Dubley. "I wanted to get seats down stairs, but I didn't know whether to pronounce it 'parket' or 'parkay'."-Catholio Standard and Times.

ROMANCE.

Robert Lewis Stevenson.

I will make you brooches and toys for your delight Of hird-song and at morning and star-shine at night I will make a palace fit for you and me, Of green days in forests and blue days at

I will make my kitchen and you shall keep your room, Where white flows the river and bright blows the broom, blows the broom, And you shall wash your linen and keep your body white In rainfail at morning and dewfall at night. And this shall be for music when no one else is near. The fine song for singing, the rare song to That only I remember, that only you admire. On the road that stretches and the roadside fire.

Healthy Skin Means Pretty Hands

I, Whether Milady's hands are slim and tapering, or plump and dimply, they will be beautiful-

I, If the skin is kept Soft, Elastic, White and Clear-by the use of Pond's Extract Soap.

I, It is the finest of soaps, plus Pond's Extract. The two combine to form a new substance - cleansing, healing, soothing, stimulating.

thrills the little blood vessels beneath the skin - prevents that Red or Purplish appearance of the hands due to Congestion.

I. Keeps the surface soft, smooth and clear - encourages the skin's natural activities which permit no "lifeless" cuticle to linger.

I. Pond's Extract Scap kills the germa that cause Rashes and Humors.

ARMOUR & COMPANY Makers of Fine Toilet Saaps. Sole Licensees from Pand's Extract Co.

evitable destiny to, for the third time, go down in defeat. Senator Dantel's Boom. Minneapolis Journal. Senator Daniel of Virginia deprecates talk about democratic candidates just now, and especially about himself in that connection. But if Senator Daniel were a caudidate and if people would insist upon talking about him without his advice and consent, he would be free to say that he stands for the constitution and the people for justice, the law, the square deal and a few other things. He also is of the opinion that the candidate should be chosen regardless of the section of the country from which he halls. Having thus put a stop to the Daniel boom, Senator Daniel went fishing.

> Cheapened Cable Transmission. New York Tribune.

By the use of cortain new transmitting and receiving devices a saving of more than 15 per cent in time is said to have been effected in submarine telegraphy. The apparatus also makes it feasible to dispatch cable meanages at sea without cutting the line after picking it up. These and other improvements will doubtless render the cable companies more indifferent than ever to the threat of competition by wireless methods satisfactory to the purchaser as well as pendous bossing.

Warfield as a Running Mate. Baltimore American (rep.).

With Governor Warfield as a running mate the result in this state (Maryland) might possibly be different, but there is

Be on your guard against substitution. There are many so-called "witch-hazel" scape. artificially colored green, offored as "just as good."