SAMSON'S ARMY IS GROWING

Many Recruits Pass Muster and Get Their Names on the Pay Roll.

Samson's army was increased by a large number of enlistments last night, the recruits being an especially fine lot. In passing the physical examination and tests before being placed in the payroll, several of the aspirants for military honors found that the road is not altogether a simple one, but they made the rifle all right, and were taken to the front and sworn in as fighting men.

COMPONENTS OF TROUSSEAU

Some of the Costumes that Are Necessary to the Average Bride.

When it comes to the question of the bride's trousseau so much latitude is allowed that no two women will make the same choice. The choice must, of course, be regulated by the amount of money to be spent and the requirements of the social position in which the bride will find herself, but for the average woman—and this is for the woman of moderate income and position, the woman who dresses well but not extravagantly—certain general outlines for a trousseau may be readily suggested. The bride should have one well made tailored coat and street frock. If she can

A three-piece visiting gown in light color and rather elaborate design is an important trousseau item, though here again one may possibly prefer a dressy bodice and skirt frock with a handsome separate coat. Three-piece models in all grades of elegance are plentiful this season and many such models have already been pictured.

Marquiesette or sheer chiffon voile is a modish and practical choice for such a frock, and the coat may be of the same material or of silk. Many of these costumes are made in tulle or other silk with a blouse or bodice composed chiefly of net or lace, but nothing was better for the purpose than a fine sheer all wool voles.

One of the cuts pictures a frock of the type under discussion built up in white chiffon voile and flit net of the same tone of white. Tiny skirt had a wide band of the flit bordered by deep bands of handsome gulfure, and the gleam of the palest pink silk lining veiled by one layer of chiffon showed slightly through the open net.

The loose little coat was trimmed in gulfure and, as will be seen in the sketch, the transparent flit was cleverly introduced in the sides of the coat, while skillfully applied motifs of gulfure covered the flit of union between net and voile. The blouse was of net and gulfure and valencienne, with touches of the faintest pink at the throat and wrist.

VOILE, FLIT AND GULFURE

fitting under the sheer white, a tint which seems more like a faint glow than a color, is extremely attractive.

A lace coat with a lace-trimmed bodice and skirt of marquisette, chiffon, silk mousseline or chiffon voile is greatly liked, and a good lace coat, though necessarily expensive, may be used for a variety of purposes and with almost any dainty summer gown. The importers have brought over

BURIAL MEN IN CONVENTION

Nebraska Funeral Directors Welcomed by Mayor Dahlgren.

NO RECRUITS TO BALD HEAD CLUB

Colonel James Assures the Undertakers He Will Not Place Mustaches on Them While in the City.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Nebraska State Funeral Directors' association met in Creighton Medical college Tuesday morning with a large attendance and was called to order by President N. P. Swanson of Omaha.

The program opened with a selection by the Elks' quartet, consisting of Clinton Miller, Charles McGrath, John Lamson and Thomas Swift. The invocation by Father P. A. McGovern of St. Philomena cathedral followed, after which Mayor Dahlgren was introduced and delivered the address of welcome. Mayor Dahlgren said: "One of my hobbies has been to organize a hatless club here in Omaha as a cure for baldness and I had hoped that I might secure a number of members from this association, but in looking over the delegation I can not see that there are any bald-headed men among you. So there is no show of any recruits from this crowd. I have also been interested in the question of dog muzzling, and hoped to have all the dogs muzzled by the time you people reached here, but instead the muzzling ordinance is tied up and I am in court again."

Water as a Nerve Tonic.

"If nervous women would only drink more water they would not be so nervous," remarked a trained nurse the other day.

"It is true," said the doctor, "and a woman who is suffering from nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion to drink lots of water between meals, but many women who do not come under a doctor's care would feel better and look better if they would drink, say, a quart of water in the course of a day. Water is a nerve food. It has a tonic effect, really good when sipped gradually, as one can test for herself."

After the ceremony of enlistment had passed, Murfitt Bennett presided at the exercises, and introduced a number of speakers. Dr. C. H. Wagner of Minneapolis was among the list, and spoke in warm terms of the institution and its efforts. He praised the Omaha spirit and he said the work that is being done by Ak-Sar-Ben is worthy of the highest praise as being an important factor in the social and commercial life of Omaha. J. G. Stark of Elmwood, a banker, who has a high regard for the king and his followers, also lifted up his voice in commendation of the order. Judge Ben S. Baker was the last speaker, and poured forth his praise and counsel in eloquent sentences.

R. V. Cole of the Cole-McKay company announced the coming of the state undertakers to Omaha for the purpose of a convention this week, and it was determined that the enlisting station will be open on Thursday night that the funeral directors of the state may have a chance to get into the army. The examination will begin at 7:30 sharp. Postmaster Palmer announced the coming of the Iowa and Nebraska postmasters on June 23, which will be a Wednesday, and it was determined to give them a chance to pass muster if possible and fight for the king.

FIGHT OVER SALOON LICENSE

Protest Made Against Transfer of Location by A. E. Wylie.

Almost the entire session of the Fire and Police board meeting Monday night was taken up in the discussion of the matter of the application for the transfer of the saloon license of A. E. Wylie from 1513 to 1617 Farnam street. F. A. Brogan appeared for the protestants against the transfer of the license, they being the Myers-Dillon drug company, Lewis Henderson, florist, and the Walkover Shoe company. The protest was based on the ground that the business of the protestants would be injured by the proximity of the proposed saloon, and on the further ground that the license of the saloon which is illegal and that it is now owned and controlled by the Walter Molse Liquor company and the Willow Springs Brewing company, and not by A. E. Wylie, the latter having sold his business in January last to H. V. Hayward and transferred the license to Hayward, that the saloon might be operated by the Molse company, of which Hayward was a partner. W. J. Connell appeared for A. E. Wylie and I. G. Dunn for Molse & Hayward.

Several witnesses were examined and the board retired for half an hour and then announced that it would not decide upon the matter until next Monday evening.

The resignation of W. A. Morrow from the fire department was accepted and several leaves of absence were granted to firemen.

Owing to the lateness of the hour the board took an adjournment until 1:15 Tuesday to pass upon certain current bills and communications.

CURFEW LAW TO BE REVIVED

Association to Call Attention of Fire and Police Commission to It.

The Curfew association of Omaha held a meeting Monday night in the assembly room of the Young Women's Christian association building, at which Alexander Hopland, president of the National Curfew association, was present. W. McCormack presided and L. R. Smith acted as secretary.

Rev. Joseph B. Cherry of the Third Presbyterian church addressed the meeting. He thought the churches and the parents were not doing what they should to provide the right sort of amusement for boys in the evening, and he said "the best place to fix up the basement as a place where the boys can come at night and pass a pleasant evening. I believe the best way to keep the boys off the streets at night is to provide a place for them to go and enjoy themselves."

Other speeches were made, and it was the general opinion that the curfew law is not being enforced in Omaha as it should be. A resolution was passed which the secretary was instructed to forward to the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, asking them to co-operate in all possible ways to secure a better enforcement of the curfew law.

YOUTH STARTS ON WRONG FOOT

Nebraska City Boy Makes Mess Trying to Play the Detective Game.

"You started out with the wrong foot when you got into this town. Next time see that you step out with the right one."

Such was Judge Crawford's parting advice to Jesse Goldsmith, a young man from Nebraska City, who was arrested early Monday morning at Union station, where a policeman picked him up for trying to pass himself off for a detective. A tin badge was found on his breast corroborating his verbal assertion that he was a "really, truly" fly cop, but the policeman thought that it required more than a mere piece of tin to make a plain clothes man.

Young Goldsmith had explained that he had just struck town and would be only too glad to be given a chance to get right out again. His honor gave him the chance.

Gained Ten Pounds in Six Weeks

Mr. Radnor Wild, of West Philadelphia, Pa., who is 73 years of age and has recently celebrated his golden wedding, says that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the best stimulant and tonic he has ever known. It increased his weight ten pounds in a very short time.

The Wilds came to this country from Oldham, England, 37 years ago, and moved to No. 6202 Grays Avenue, where Mr. Wild still resides.

"I am 73 years old and recently celebrated the golden anniversary of my wedding. I am taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and find it the best stimulant and tonic that I ever used. I gained ten pounds in six weeks since I commenced using it. I have recommended it to a great many people and will continue to do so, as I regard it as a Godsend to suffering humanity."—RADNOR WILD, West Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 15th, 1907.

Mr. Wild's experience is similar to that of thousands of men and women who have been restored to health, normal weight and vigor by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed.

MR. RADNOR WILD.

WRONG KIND OF IMPORTING

Arthur Williams Arrested on Charge of Procuring from Europe.

FIRST SUCH CASE IN THREE YEARS

Officials Expect Sensational Developments from This Arrest and Others May Follow in Many Cities.

March 3, 1907, which was given its especially strenuous features through the attempted importation of women from France into the United States, just prior to the opening of the St. Louis exposition. It was then found that a well organized chain of agents for the procurers extended across the entire country and was backed by strong financial influences. The women were shifted from one place to another as soon as they were suspected with being in the country and the untiring efficiency of the immigration bureau was noted in breaking up the nefarious traffic. Arrests were made in all of the western cities as well as in the eastern cities and the most important one was that of the woman in Omaha, who gave the immigration bureau valuable information which resulted in breaking up the gang and sending the leading procurers to the penitentiary.

The arrest of Williams and the two women here Monday evening, it is believed, will result in some sensational disclosures relative to the existence of another band west, acting as agents for the more wily eastern manipulators in this traffic for supplying brothels from the European cities.

STREETS WHILE SUN SHINES

Principle on Which City Engineer is Doing Paving Work Just Now.

When the street repair force started to work Tuesday morning there were not enough men for the work to be done and the superintendent of the work was compelled to lay off four wagons because he could not secure laborers sufficient.

The engineer's office is putting forth every effort to repair both paved and unpaved streets while the sun shines and every man who can be used is being put to work. The demand for laborers is heavy in every direction in Omaha at present, due to a great extent by reason of the delay caused by recent wet weather, and any man who can supply muscle and hand employment either on public or private work.

BIG STEEL FIRM FAILS

Receiver is Asked for Milliken Brothers, Incorporated, of New York.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Application for receivers for Milliken Brothers, Incorporated, one of the largest manufacturers of structural steel, bridge work and construction of steel frame buildings in the city, was made today to Judge George C. Holt in the United States court. The liabilities are given as $5,500,000 and assets at $3,750,000.

Just before the closing of the office an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against the concern by McDonald & Bostwick, attorneys. Late tonight Judge Holt held court in his chambers in the rooms of the Bar association and listened to arguments upon the subject.

William Nelson Cromwell appeared for the corporation of Milliken Brothers and Dwight McDonald of McDonald & Bostwick appeared for the petitioning creditors, who appeared in the court earlier in the day.

Mr. Cromwell stated that he had in contemplation a plan for the speedy reorganization of the company and intended to submit it to the creditors at an early date.

The Milliken company maintained offices in London, Antwerp, Johannesburg, Cape Town, Havana, Mexico City, San Francisco, Portland, Ore., and Honolulu. The business of the concern covered structural steel and general construction work throughout the world.

The firm has the contract for supplying the structural work of the Pennsylvania terminal in the largest contract of the kind ever let in New York, and for many buildings in the reconstruction of San Francisco.

Milliken Brothers have a plant covering twenty-five acres on a plot of 168 acres for the making of structural steel and bridge work on the northern shore of Staten Island. The plant afforded opportunity for twenty-one furnaces in all, with a capacity of 1,000 gross tons per day.

RULING IN FAVOR OF SCHMITZ

Case of Prosecution Closes Abruptly and Defense Will Begin Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—An important ruling by Judge Dunne in favor of the defense early this afternoon brought to a sudden and premature close the case of the prosecution against Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz for extortion. The defense, taken by surprise, was not ready to begin the introduction of evidence, so Mr. Campbell, after a fifteen-minute conference with his associates and their client, made the opening statement to the jury in behalf of the mayor and adjournment was ordered until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Abraham Ruef, indicted jointly with Mayor Schmitz, and who has pleaded guilty, though paradoxically proclaiming himself innocent of the charges, will not be called upon to testify against the case of the city's chief executive and his former political partner.

The ruling by Judge Dunne that resulted in cutting short the state's case was the sustaining of an objection to the introduction of a mass of testimony tending to show that the mayor made a common practice of playing fast and loose with restaurant and saloon licenses and had ordered a number of them held up out of ulterior motives.
