ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUMMER SCHOOL Maybe you are waiting until "next fall" to take up a course in Boyles College. Why

To get a start you must pull yourself together to make an effort. No one ever circulars. VISITING CARDS FREE. got a start by drifting, except a start the river. He who makes no sacrifice achieves no success. He who sits passively on a dry goods box during the summer thrusts his hands into empty pockets. To get a start you must learn to do something that the world wants done. There is no better avenue to the business 6 cents. Each insertion made on odd world than the thorough courses given at Boyles College, which include all Bustness and English branches, Shorthand. Typewriting and Telegraphy; and if one advertisement is inserted under any seeks profit, prominence or power, the one of the elassifications given below. business world offers the best opportunithe special idea in view of making our summer course pupils comfortable. The cellings are 14 feet high. Large windows allow grateful breezes to fit through the entire building. The cool basement is fitted up for a gymnasium for both ladies and gentlemen. The Boyles building is positively the coolest building in Omaha. It won't pay you to delay. A month idled away during the summer season means a month's salary lost in the fall. Write, call or 'phone for a catalogue,

The Van Sant School of Shorthan

Southwest Corner 18th and Farnam Sts., opposite the Court House.

> The school has removed to its new quarters in the building just completed at the corner of 18th and Farnam streets. The entrance is opposite the court house on 18th street.

This is a private specialty school of shorthand, typewriting and office practice. Its teachers are practical and expert stenographers. No teacher is employed who has not had practical experience as a stenographer as well as thorough training in teaching. All the teaching is done by teachers, and not by student assistants.

The graduates of this school are filling lucrative positinons as amanuenses, court reporters and teachers in commercial schools. Although a small school, it has a national reputation.

Students may attend the school a week before enrolling or making any payment, and if they do not wish to continue in the school, no charge is made for this week. This offer enables the student to determine the character of the school before making any investment. Money for unexpired tuition will be refunded to students who for any reason wish to leave the school. Payments may be made monthly if pre-
