During the first hour the feeling in the pit was very bearish. About the middle of the session sentiment changed suddenly owing to the appear-ance of a number of damage reports from Kansas. The gist of this news was that hot winds are preventing the proper "filling but" of the maturing grain. Shorts be-came active bidders, which quickly forced prices more than 2c above the low point of the day. A large part of this gain was subsequently lost on renewed profit tak-ing.
