THE OMAHA DAILY BEL

õ

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER.

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omaha postoffice he second-class matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Dally Bee (without Sunday), one year. $4.00 Dally Bee and Sunday one year. $00 Sunday Bee, one year. 1.30 Saturday Bee, one year. 1.50 DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Daily Hee (including Sunday), per week. 15c Daily Hee (without Sunday), per week. 10c Evening Hee (without Sunday), per week. 10c Evening Hee (with Sunday), per week. 10c Address all complaints of irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Department. OFFICES.

OFFICES. Omaha-The Bee duiding. South Omaha-City Hail Building. Council Buffs-15 Scott Street. Chicago-1440 Unity Building. New York-1508 Home Life Insurance Bidg Washington-501 Fourteenth Street.

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addreased. Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

Remit Department. REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bae Publishing Company. Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or eastern exchange, not accepted.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss. Charles C. Rosewater, general manager of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of May, 1907, was as follows:

1 35,850 18 35,760 2 35,510 19 33,800 3 35,290 26 38,370 4 35,410 21 35,630 5 34,300 32 35,510 6 34,300 32 35,500 7 35,480 23 35,500 8 95,580 25 35,600 9 35,720 26 24,600 10 35,480 28 35,610 11 35,480 28 35,610 12 34,850 28 35,610 13 35,480 29 36,610 14 25,390 21 35,610 15 35,420 21 35,610 14 35,320 21 35,610 15 35,460 Total 1,098,620 17 35,360 Total 1,098,620 17 35,360 Total 1,098,620 17 35,360 Total 1,098,620 17 35	the rate laws enacted by the states are to go into force at once and remain in as,500 as,500 as,500 as,500 are to be suspended forthwith pend- ing litigation and the railroads given as,600 a free hand and an incentive to pro- tract and delay the final decision as long as possible. If the prompt action of Nebraska's attorney general serves to save to the people of this state the benefits of these laws unimpaired until passed on by the United States supreme court, it will have accomplished a great deal
16	people of this state the benefits of these laws unimpaired until passed
Net total	it will have accomplished a great deal and he will be entitled to great credit.
Subscribed in my presence and swora to before me this fist day of May, 1907, (Beal) M. B. HUNGATE, Notary Public.	NEW RAILROAD SECURITIES. The complaints made by George

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Not poking any fun at the iceman now, are you?

Anyway, no one can justly accuse Harry Orchard of being a mollycoddle.

The peace conference at The Hague opens tamely. Not a fight has yet been reported.

A little more weather like this will go a great ways in helping the vegetation to catch up.

Count Boni says he hopes the American people will forgive him. They would rather forget him, if he would let them.

A New York baby fell sixty feet and scaped without a hurt. They have to gin very young in training for life A New York baby fell sixty feet and per cent of the total, while in 1906 ment and increase of rallway facili-escaped without a hurt. They have to they constituted hearly 40 per cent. ties. The very fact is guarantee that Mr. Bryan's plan, we understand, to be found in the next national party continue of the presidency, but the only state that.

corporation. He also served as vice time's ministering angel among world The application of Attorney General president of The Bee Publishing com- powers, the big brother to the poor Thompson on behalf of the state for pany, and as such was acting head of and the weak?" The question is restraining the railroads operating in absence of Mr. Rosewater.

PLAYING THE FIRST CARD.

state courts instead.

Nebraska from carrying out a conspiracy to violate the rate laws en-"END OF REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT" acted by the state legislature means Suffering from a particularly acute attack of pessimism, James J. Hill, that the state is playing the first card. and leading trumps at that. The st- the railroad magnate; expresses the were an innovation which first saw torneys for the railroads naturally ex- fear that "the government eventually the light of day in connection with the press surprise because they figured on will be forced to lend its credit to the present trade excursion to the Puget that when he had a pass, he worked it on dealing the cards themselves, but had railroads in order to finance their nenot yet quite finished stacking the cessities," and that such action might ever, wore his silk hat long before he decks. The railroads would prefer to lead to government ownership, which figured on becoming a globe trotter have the United States courts umpire "would mark the end of republican and introduced it to Omaha at the the game, while the action of the at- government in this country." All this, time he presided over the meeting in torney general threatens to force them according to Mr. Hill, is owing to the the interest of Russian freedom. Then, to submit to the jurisdiction of the railroads being "away behind" with too, unlike his predecessor, Governor needed improvements and unable to Sheldon never promised in advance if the lines are rapidly forming for a credit has been seriously impaired," silk hat nor to don a spike-tail coat. stubborn legal fight to determine while an exasperated people are dewhether the authority of the states to manding that they build more lines, regulate railroads as to their traffic enlarge their equipment and prepare discarded superintendent of schools, between points within state boundaries can be made effective and enforcecountry. able, and this litigation will not stop short of appeal to the United States from a wrong premise. The credit of Wisconsin. Perish the thought! This supreme court as the highest tribunal the American railroads has not been great educator always has his mind so ruined. The trouble, as Mr. Hill must closely centered on the work of the in the land. What is involved in the preliminary sparring is this, whether know, is with the railroad managers schools with whose supervision he is the rate laws enacted by the states are themselves. He admits, dolefully, that entrusted that he could not possibly to go into force at once and remain in the railroads are ten years behind the spare a thought for politics. force until upheld or nullified by the development of the country. That is court of last resort, or whether they not the fault of the country. In the are to be suspended forthwith pend- ten years that the country has been plication of the attorney general for ing litigation and the railroads given making such remarkable strides the an injunction to prevent them from a free hand and an incentive to prorailroads have not been keeping pace. tract and delay the final decision as They have not been laying new rails Nebraska legislature is a confession on by the United States supreme court, ding improvements and equipment ac- turn. it will have accomplished a great deal cording to their needs. Now they are learning that it is much more difficult keep up. With the exposure, in the last two

Gould, James J. Hill and other railway managers that the "hostile attiing methods employed by the railroads tude of the public" against railroads in unfair treatment of patrons and inhas made it well nigh impossible for vestors, the "exasperation of the pubrailway corporations to secure money lic," of which Mr. Hill complains, be- Harriman, Hill or Gould. ty bond issues or otherwise, for came manifest in congress and in state needed improvements, are not suplegislatures. Railroad credit was imported by the reports of the issues of paired, because of the overwhelming new securities placed on the market evidence of its misuse and the public since January 1. The New York demanded that a stop be put to con-Journal of Commerce has compiled sta- ditions that made such misuse possitistics showing that from January 1 to ble. Expert railroad men now admit of money is involved which those who May 30 this year the railroads and in- that the effect of the legislation called dustrial corporations have issued se- for in the new rate law, and the ex- rassing to be compelled to cough up. curities aggregating $1,106,738,900, as tension of the power of the Interstate compared with $882,370,214 issued in Commerce commission, have been the same period in 1906, and $1,637, good, both for the public and for the 000,000 for the twelve months of last railroads. Under such conditions, even a Kansas editor. Perhaps it affected year. In other words, the securities Mr. Hill must admit that whatever issued in the first five months of this damage has resulted from the ex- Rockefeller knows one billionaire year total almost as much as the en- posure can not long outlast the abuses. tire issue of last year. Nearly all the Mr. Hill points to the enormous busiissues this year have been by railroad ness to be done, the necessity of spend-companies, the securities offered by ing at least $100,000,000 a year for the the industrials comprising less than 20 next five or ten years in the improve-' ership of railroads "would mark the that there are some important differences the party felt strong enough to organize of us are too busy trying to find out what the score is in the last inning.

Governor Sheldon's silk hat is being Sound country. The governor, how-

As already indicated by The Bee, finance a recovery because "their made chief executive not to sport a

It is intimated now that Omaha's to handle the enormous traffic of the Carroll G. Pearse, had a finger in the political pie out of which was drawn

The railroad attorneys think the apviolating the rate laws passed by the and buying new equipment, but have of weakness on the part of the state. If the prompt action of Nebraska's been combining, issuing new watered Be that as it may, it is a confession of attorney general serves to save to the stocks, floating bonds through syndi- strength of the railroad pull on the people of this state the benefits of cates and piling up great fortunes for federal courts and a determination of these laws unimpaired until passed individual manipulators, instead of ad- the state to protect itself at every

> A Wabash conductor down in Misto catch up than it would have been to souri has actually put a passenger off his train for refusing to pay more than 2 cents per mile established by the years, of the rebates and discriminat- Missouri 2-cent rate law. That conductor will surely be in line for promotion and may even aspire some day to become a right hand man for

> > From the number of lawyers representing the defendants in the suits brought by the county to recover fees from delinquent county judges the inference is inevitable that a whole lot pocketed it would find very embar-

"The president's speech made every millionaire's hair stand on end." says the millionaires that way, but John D. whose hair will not stand on end over a president's speech or anything else.

James J. Hill says government own-

NEBRASKA PRESS COMMENT.

Carletan Leader: It looks as if our politicians were of the modest sort in an order from the supreme court re- the corporation a few times during the ferred to Senator Beveridge. The rest this county. Most every other county has several announcements running. while we have failed to discover one in any of our county papers.

Beatrice Sun: When you see a kick from a newspaper man because of the adoption made the butt of the jokers, as if it of the cash basis for railroad advertising, just put it down in your little book that that editor does not place a high estimate upon his advertising. You will also know the limit.

Central City Nonparell: The filing of the list of Burlington pass holders with the State Board of Transportation has brought out several fervid denials from some of the attorneys who were credited with carrying pasteboards. All of which indicates that it isn't as popular to "tote" a pass as it used to be.

Springfield Monitor: The Missouri Pacific has suffered enough loss through the many wrecks on its lines in this part of the state lately to have kept several hundred section men steadily employed. But the wrecks might have occurred anyway, as it will take more than section men to put the road in anything like shape.

Wood River Sunbeam: What a pretty Mr. Hill makes the error of arguing a United States senatorship plum in sight is grand old Nebraska these days. With her fields of dark green waving alfalfa, the broad acres of wheat, just beginning to head, the thousands of acres of corn, growing splendidly, and here and there a green pasture filled with sleek horses and cattle-truly it's a sight that would make the average easterner who is used to tiling his rock-ribbed soil, weep with joy. Nebraska is "it."

York Democrat: One of the sad facts apparent to the discriminating person is that railroad management is sinister. The old maxim that honesty is the best policy has wery scant recognition in railroad circles. Truthfulness is not the surest passport to promotion in the railroad service. The policy generally pursued is one of evasion and insincerity toward the public. Instead of being frank and open, railroad officials are secretive and misleading. It is hard to find responsibility or to get a straightforward treatment of a business propoaltior

Diller Record: There seems to be a very general agitation throughout the country on the subject of pure milk, induced, perhaps, by the recent pure food legislation. If we are to have pure drugs and pure whiskey and pure sausage, why not also pure milk? Moreover, it is widely believed that many contagious diseases, especially those that inflict infancy, are have been interesting even to those of the taining more than one-half million of bac- and its personal associations. A majority teria to the gallon is not safe. Well, we of the presidents of the United States have should say not, unless bacteria in milk, belonged to it, beginning with Washington, like microbes in cheese, are necessary to the first grand master of Virginia. In re-excellence. Lincoln News: "The people are spotting the passholders whose names have been and Roosevelt. Garfield rose to high rank published in the newspapers," said Repre- in the fraternity. Roosevelt received the contative Marshall Harrison of Otoe county master's degree while vice president, at while in the city yesterday, "and you can Oyster Bay, among those assisting at the safely bet that mighty few of them will ceremony being Governor Guild. His succome in for any political preferment here- cossor, Mr. Fairbanks, has also taken the after. Where it used to be a mark of dis- degrees since he was elected to his present tinction for a man to have a pass, it is office. It is just eighty years since the anti-now a reproach. In my part of the state the sentiment is very strongly in favor of Masonic movement and party were organpledging candidates for the next legislature ized, consequent upon the Morgan sensato an anti-pass law of the most rigid kind. then, the same who for some time after It seems to be the universal feeling that was quoted as "a good-enough Morgan unthis is the one place where the last legis- til after election." It assumed quite forlature fell down." Battle Creek Enterprise: While appar- and drew into its ranks such men as Thur-

ently there is, as The Omaha Bee points low Weed and William H. Seward, who out, a paucity of issues for the next presidential campaign, it must be remembered

$21,300,523.40 Is a Large Sum

It represents the amount of death claims paid by this Company in a single year-1906. This was not the result of investments made by care-free, well-to-do people. It came very largely from men who went from slight inconvenience to great self-denial to keep up the policies that would when needed keep up the home. Of such, largely, is the membership of

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

Their confidence and their patronage have made and kept it the largest and staunchest life insurance company in the world. The vast sum saved and being saved by the new management must benefit all policy holders, and cannot but attract those who seek the greatest protection, and therefore make its agents welcome everywhere.

> The Time to Act is NOW. For the new forms of policies consult our nearest agent, or write direct to The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, N. Y.

NATIONAL FREEMASONRY.

Members.

Boston Transcript.

over a million Freemasons and to them and President Harrison and one of that executheir immediate friends and families the tive's last official acts was to appoint him participation of President Roosevelt in the laying of the cornerstone of the new Masonic temple at Washington was one of the most interesting of the many activities to brought about and spread from the use of unaffliated who are yet familiar with the where her family lived. She played the impure milk. We are told that milk con-public history of the order in this country part of the duke of York in "Richard III."

"High, nothing," responded the fair plaintiff, bilthely. "I agree to keep away from him, don't 17 Let him pay for his luxuries."-Philadelphia Ledger. cent times its representatives in that exalted office have been Garfield, McKinley

She-Thère, you are so far out of your way by stopping to help me. You have lost fully a mile in y ir auto match. He-Well, I've got you, and a miss is as good as a mile.-Baitimore American.

"The only decent razor I've got," com-plained Gabbie, "is getting into very poor condition. I believe it's tired. You know, they say razors get that way." "Ah, yes," replied Knox, with a yawa, "tired of your chin."-Philadelphia Press.

"So you are Ananias!" said the recently midable proportions in western New York and drew into its ranks such men as Thur-low Weed and William H. Seward, who found it a convenient re-enforcement of political strength along other lines. In 1832 the party felt strong enough to arrest leave of absence, and General Obaldia, the minister of Panama to the United States, Distinguished Public Men Among Its is expected to act as president from June 25. Colonel Ellijah W. Halford, deputy paymaster general, is about to be retired for There are probably today in this country age. He was private secretary to the late secretary to the pay corps of the army. Mrs. W. G. Jones, the oldest actress of prominence since the death of Mrs. Glibert, died on Thursday in New York. She began which he has lent himself. It must also her life as an actress on March 5, 1845, in

LAUGHING GAS.

"But," said the lawyer, "don't you think begin very young in training for life in New York.

The ministers who have opposed the doctrine of total depravity may change their minds after reading Harry Orchard's testimony.

Secretary Taft's present visit to Nebraska is not his first one. He has been here before and should feel himself perfectly at home.

The price of wheat on the Chicago Board of Trade has slumped enough to and loafing on its job.

Bryan's Commoner, "that Mr. Watterson's 'dark horse' is a chestnut." Your next move, Mr. Watterson

Having deprived Eugene Schmitz of his power as mayor, San Francisco proposes to spoil his equipment as a fiddler by compelling him to have a haircut.

"The fashionable have adopted a new umbrella," says a woman's page item. The difference between adopting an umbrella and borrowing one is not clear.

Dr. Wiley says abstinence from ple for one year will greatly improve the health. The democratic party has abstained from pie for eleven years, but is showing no signs of robustness.

General Corbin once advised army officers not to marry. The West Point officials who are having that row with among other things: Mrs. Ayres doubtless wish the advice had been followed in Colonel Ayres' CASO.

If the brewers had been advised by the same lawyers as the railroads they would probably have been asking for injunctions to prevent the authorities tion of the beautiful building at Sevenfrom enforcing the provisions of the Gibson law.

Mayor "Jim" might with propriety business associate of Edward Roseadvise Young America in Omaha to substitute cracking the whip and tion should be made before any false throwing the lasso for setting off giant firecrackers in celebration of the Glorious Fourth.

Had the Missouri legislature known | two shares out of 400 and his interest the program of law defiance which the in The Bee Building company consists railroads were to adopt it might have of two shares out of 860. What he hitched an emergency clause on to its contributed most valuable to the up-2-cent fare law the same as did the Nebraska legislature.

Baltimore's mayor inspected a job rabbed of their "vested rights."

While the railroad securities have the money for the work will be forthbeen offered in large volume, the coming, because the country and its roads mark the beginning of demomoney market has been peculiar in business will not stop growing from many respects and the railroads have lack of money.

Popular confidence in the stability been compelled to offer much of their new issues in the form of short time of railroad securities will return, as notes instead of in the form of bonds quickly as it departed, when the counor stock, formerly so popular. This try is convinced, as it is rapidly comcondition has not been the result of ing to be, that an end has been put to the habit so strong that they cannot the "hostile attitude" of "either the the evils that have flourished in the break it after they return home. legislatures or the public, but has been transportation business. There will be caused by the greater demand for no difficulty in "financing a recovery" money for investment in more profit- when the public learns that railroad able channels. The effect of this con- men are devoting their energies to leindicate that the green bug is gorged dition has been felt by municipalities. gitimate methods of building up their gone out of style, having been supplanted cities like Philadelphia, Boston and St. Louis finding greatest difficulty in rights and claims of the public. The "There are growing evidences," says floating gilt-edged bonds offered for threatened loss of our republican improvement purposes. All enter- birthright is not going to scare the prises requiring money for any purpublic much.

rose have suffered with the railroads from the conditions of the world's DISTRIBUTING THE IMMIGRANIS Secretary Straus of the Department money markets. The record furnishes of Commerce and Labor is planning convincing evidence that the railroads an innovation in the matter of dishave fared unusually well, all things tributing the immigrants arriving in considered, in their efforts to float new this country, and his program promsecurities. The investor has not been ises a correction of one of the most exhibiting any special prejudice against glaring defects in the present immirailway securities, but has taken advantage of the demand to place his gration system. Under authority money in the most profitable market. granted by the last congress, Secre-The attempt of the railroad managers | tary Straus is preparing to build federal immigration stations at Galveston, to blame the public for the conditions New Orleans and Charleston for the existing in the money markets is unpurpose of diverting immigrants from warranted.

TO CORRECT AN ERROR.

An obituary of the late George W. tion bureau shows that the mass of the Lininger in the Westliche Presse, which pays deserved tribute to his high character and public spirit, says,

For the newspapers he always had a is experienced in inducing them to warm spot in his heart and showed it most seek employment in the sections of strikingly in that he was from the beginthe country where labor is in constant ning the true friend and benefactor of Edward Rosewater and one of the main sup- and increasing demand. porters of The Bee and remained so to his death. For many years he served as prealone and the co-operation of foreign dent of The Bee Publishing company and governments has been enlisted in profurnished originally the means for the crecmoting its success. The immigrant steamers will not stop at New York, teenth and Farnam streets.

While it is true that Mr. Lininger was for many years a close friend and water, it is only fair that the correc impression is spread that Mr. Lininger furnished the financial basis of Mr. Rosewater's enterprises. Mr. Lininger's interest in The Bee consists of building of these two institutions was ment. bis sound business judgment and disinterested advice, which made him a most serviceable member of the boards Republican, "founded in the love of ing for several blocks torn up because He was for many years vice president of its weaith, lifted to grand heights needed relief to the world's credits, and the work had not been properly done. of The Bee Building company and by the freedom of individual thought One by one, the contractors are being after the death of Edward Rosewater and itself the highest concept of govlast year was made president of that ernment yet born to earth, to stand without aid from the government.

make government ownership of railcratic government.

Omaha business boosters indulged themselves in the luxury of a bath in the Great Salt Lake. If they stop at any more bathing resorts they may get

New Name for Old Method. Chicago News.

Writers of polite railroad literature should note that the term "merger" has properties with a due regard to the by the more euphonious "interchange of traffic facilities."

Spread on Mighty Thin. Washington Post.

The thinnest thing in the world, according to the Medical Journal, is the film of a soap bubble. But that is thick compared to some of the excuses for daily increasing the prices of necessities of life.

A Great American Senator. New York Sun.

The senate will not be guite the same with John Tyler Morgan passed over to the selves make a vigorous kick against it. majority. Like George F. Hoar, he upheld and cherished its traditions, commanded the respect of his colleagues, took his dution seriously and was master of its business. His claim to remembrance as a great American senator will not be challenged.

Averaging Down. New York Mail.

Nature has the habit of striking averages Bumper crops every year would mean overproduction, which, like overpopulation, New York, where they have been nature abhors, and regulates in its own time and way. It would be false optimism not to recognize the fact that this is one of the years chosen to offset and average down such fat seasons as that of 1906, when foreigners who come to this country the products of the soil glutted every market and choked every avenue of transporta-York City, and that greatest difficulty

PESSIMISM BECOMING CHRONIC.

Ratiroad Magnate Hill Afflicted with the Blues.

Wall Street Journal. For two or three years Mr. Hill has been a pessimist. He has been predicting all sorts of trouble for the country. Even now, although he says the crop situation is all right, he declares we are in for a long period of trade reaction. He talks as if he actually wanted it to come to pass. It would be well to discount a part of Mr. Hill's fears. The railroad problem is in-"deed that of how the capital may be obtained to build the extensions needed to take care of the tremendous traffic of the country. But Mr. Hill does not explain that the railroads themselves are more to blame than President Roossvelt for their condition of inadequacy. Prosperity is more to blame than either. Nor does Mr. Hill explain that the condition of credit is not local to this country, but international, and not the result of lack of confidence so much as lack of liquid cap-

Mr. Hill says a slowing up is necessary of "employes" a whole regiment of pass-This is probably true. There are indeed holders and political boosters will be still some signs of a slowing up now. But that doing business in Nebraska, contrary to there is anything radically wrong with the the purpose of the legislature to stop it. of street paving and ordered the pay- of directors of the two companies. liberty, made generous by the plethora tie slowing up will be apt to give the The publicity part of it will work the country is inconceivable. Moreover, a litremedy. The public, being familiarized with the situation, will demand of the next with this relief it may be taken for granted that the railroads will get what session of the legislature an amendment they need for extensions and improvements to the law to carry out the original intent and purpose the democratic party that agrees very generally with a large element in the republican party, but neither democrats nor republicans are cherishing a very strong feeling of harmony among themselves There is strife enough in the country, with strength on both sides, and however the parties array themselves the next two years will see a battle royal. Moreover, on large grounds democrats and republi cans have plenty of room for controversy. Beatrice Democrat: It is a pleasure in looking over the list of pass-holders as revealed by the statement made by the railroads, to note the absence of the name of any newspaper man. What a great many papers have in reality acted as attorneys for the railroads in the past, being prompted to do so by the bribe that goes with a pass, they are not on the attorney list now. They do advertising for cash, step up to the ticket office and buy their tickets, and when the conductor comes around with his little punch, they hold up their heads like men, instead of sneaking out a small pocketbook and secretly disclosing the number of a pass, after rubbering around to see that no person is looking. The railroads have really given character to their business relations with the newspaper, although the papers them-

Grand Island Independent: A remarkable showing is made, in several instances, of the vast amount of legal business trans acted by the railroads, as shown by the pass record. One road leading into Schuvler, for instance, is said to have pears to be done by "attorneys" who have not been admitted to the bar. Certainly tion of all ethics of the profession

sion of an earlier time. Washington was made a Mason in 1753 and attained a higher dignity in the order than any of the other presidents, though

Andrew Jackson was grand master of Tennessee, the state which now holds one of the highest Masons in this country, ex-Congressman Richardson. The gavel and trowel used at the laying of the cornerstone of the United States capitol, September 18, 1798, and the Bible upon which he took his obligations when being admitted to the several degrees was also in service on this recent occasion, in reverent charge of its custodian, the Fredericksburg lodge

PERSONAL NOTES.

n Milwaukee, but while "Filipino Punch president and vice president but a mafority of his administrative family and of congress are Masons. The same is true of the members of the state government of Massachusetts, the prosperity of the order being particularly marked in this ommonwealth. masonry has a distinctive character of its own, its relations with that of England and Scotland are close and cordial, while the contrary is true of a considerable branch of French Freemasonry, which famous."

tion of their time to railroad litigation, four attorneys. This is to be presumed, by reason of the fact that the law requires that railroads cannot issue free passes to attorneys unless it can be shown that such attorneys or surgeons devote the major portion of their time to the company's business. Litigation that will require the major portion of the time of four attorneys in a county in which the railroads have as little business as they do in Colfax county must, indeed, be fierce. And, indeed, it must withal be quiet, secret business, for the public another makes public its list of "employes" entitled to passes who are serving them as surgeons and lawyers, it keeps growing on the average citizen that a travesty is being made of the anti-pass law enacted last winter and which went into effect before the ink was dry with which the governor signed ft. The Union Pacific alone has filed a list of something like one hundred and fifty of these influential citizens who are expected to come to the rescue when the company's interests are threatened in the courts or at the primarles, or its employes, passengers and others are injured in a wreck or at crossings. Multiply that number by the number of roads doing business in the state and it will be seen that under the disguise stone Saturday were the same used by President Washington in laying the corner-

It has been stated that not only the excludes a principle that is here held to be fundamental and vital. The coolest thing in all Orchard's wicked transactions was selling "hall insurance in its employ, devoting the greater porto farmers. Sooper or later Naturalist Burrougha will rebuke some nature writer for the as sumption that a duck will swim. In the state of Washington a man stola freight train, but he did not stay in the class of high financiers long, for he brought the train back.

While American Free-

gets to learn little of it. It does not even get into courts. Indeed, some of it ap-this might bear closer investigation, as it would appear to be in appalling viola-

Fremont Tribune: As one railroad after

Three years later it dissolved even more quickly than it was formed and since then has been as dead as the whichcraft delu-

"Ah!" said the doctor, "nervous dyspep-sia. Is it a case of long standing?" "Yes," replied the patient, "that may have something to do with it." "What do you mean?" "Long standing. I'm a motorman."-Washington Herald.

"There is no such thing as perfection," observed Mr. De Lush. "Tou're right," answered Mr. McSosh. "Even the best whisky, I understand, is more than 50 per cent water."-Cleveland Londes

"There never was a time in my life, fel-ow citizens," exclaimed the candidate, when I hadn't the courage to call a spade

"Yes," spoke up an old farmer in the su-dience, "and there never was a time in your life when you had the courage to take one in your hand!"-Chicago Tribune.

Nell (scornfully)-I wouldn't marry accently. Belle (loftily)--My flance, I would have you know, is a man of great deeds. Nell--Indeed! What kind? Belle (triumphantly)--Title deeds.--Balti-more American. onenity tore American.

A DEAL IN BANANAS.

T. A. Daly in Catholic Standard. No like da skeenny olda man Dat com' to dees peanutta-stan No like da skeenny olda man Dat com' to dees peanutta-stan' Today an' huy da wan banan'. He mak' me seeck! Ecf evra customer ees go For maka treecks an' talka so Like heem, you bat my life, I no Gat reecha queeck.

Wal, deesa man he com' an' say;

Wal, deesa man he com an as "How moocha for banan' today An' so I tal beem right away: "Ees two for fl." "O! my, I mus' be gattin' deef Or you ees talka like da t'ief!" He say to mo, an' look as eef He gona cry.

"Ees two for ft'," I say agen. He shak' hees head at me an' He tal me: "Mak' eet ft' for ten an' den

He tal me: "Mak eet n' for ten An' tak' da mon." "All right," I say, "I guess weell ds." Den "F" for ten ees wan for two," He say, "here ees two cents for you, I taka wan!"

They gave Secretary Taft a good dinner He tak' da beegges' wan of all! Ha! w'at you theenka dat for gall?

appeared on the bill of fare, there was n He ees so meana man, so small, mention of that "which made Milwauke He mak' me seeck Eef evra customer ees go For maka treecks an' talka so Taka heem, you bat my life, I

Like heem, you bat my r Get reecha queeck. The Panama legislative assembly has granted President Amador six months but will go direct to one of the southern ports, and their passengers distributed from those ports to the points where labor is in the greatest demand. The difficulty heretofore has been in distributing the immigrants capable and ready to work in the fields that landing at the rate of about 1,000,000 a year. The history of the immigra-seeking work expect to find it in New

The new plan is a comprehensive awaited them. The south is clamoring for immigrants, in every department of activity, and it is believed that the new plan will operate to the advantage of both the immigrants and the authorities charged with their manage-"Is this nation," asks the Denver