ANNOUNCEMENTS

DOING AND BOYLES

On a memorable May day a few years ago Dewey said to the captain of his flagship. "Gridley, fire when you're ready." Gridley fired when he was ready and Gridley was ready to fire at the right time. TO BE READY is the thought. To be ready at the right time. The right time to be ready to take up a Stenography, Bookteeping or Telegraphy position is when the gemand for Stenographers. Bookkeepers and Telegraphers is greatest. The demand is greatest when after the usual summer duliness business houses and railroads again bustle with activity.

BOYLES COLLEGE

now you will be a qualified Stenegrapher. Bookkeeper or Telegrapher just at the time Stenographers, Bookkeepers or Telegraphers are most needed.

Another thought along this line that is of utmost importance to the young man or young woman who is determined to make his or her knowledge of Stenography. Bookkeeping or Telegraphy a stepping stone te greater things is the fact that all smployers know that the young man or young woman with grit and determination and power of self-denial sufficient to take up a summer course and thus forsake the lidle joys of summer loading will make an amploye to whom nothing is too difficult—to whom every responsibility can safely be igusted and to whom success is almost sure to come.

The moment an employer knows that trusted and to whom success is almost sure to come.

The moment an employer knows that his young man or young woman has had the wisdom to take a summer course that employer marks that young man or young woman employe for promotion.

Why not come in and talk with us about this, or at least send for our free catalogue?

BOYLES COLLEGE, H. B. Boyles, President
