

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Stronger Undertone and Increased Foreign Demand at Opening. NO SELLING PRESSURE IN WHEAT. In South, Where Threshing is in Progress, Rain is Falling—Nervous Tendency in Market.

OMAHA, June 22.—The market opened with stronger undertone, foreign demand increasing and reports from Germany of very unseasonable weather in the south, where threshing has begun, it has been well maintained. Wheat opened firm with no selling pressure at all, and was up easy the first five minutes. The market showed a nervous tendency with no particular feature and the bulls were inclined to support it in small way, July wheat opened at 84c bid and closed at 85c bid.

Corn opened firm and a shade higher. Receiving houses say news from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio is growing more daily on corn and oats. July corn opened at 84c bid and closed at 85c bid. Oats opened at 43c bid and closed at 44c bid. Primary wheat receipts were 45,000 bushels and shipments 44,000 bushels. Receipts for July were 27,000 bushels and shipments 23,000 bushels. Corn receipts were 1,000,000 bushels and shipments 44,000 bushels. Oats receipts were 1,000,000 bushels and shipments 44,000 bushels.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, June 22.—The wheat market displayed considerable strength today, despite the fact that trading was light and included little outside of the regular close September wheat was 40c to 45c higher, corn was up 1/4c, oats were 1/4c higher and provisions were from 1/4c to 1/2c higher.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT. Showers Probably Sunday and No Change in Temperature. OMAHA, June 22, 1907. Market is Dull and Price Movement is Inconsistent. BANK STATEMENT FAVORABLE. Cash Decrease is Smaller Than Was Anticipated and Slightly Falls Below Its Appearance—Close is Easy.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The stock market was practically as a standstill today. There was no movement in the market and prices were unaltered and upward without any apparent reason. The appearance of the bank statement which proved less unfavorable than was expected, and the fact that the cash decrease was much smaller than was anticipated, it was taken for granted, however, that the week's exports of gold would be small, and the proportion of their real effect leaving that effect to be transferred over into next week's statement. The sustained strength of the London market was without transactions, closing unchanged as follows: July, 61c; September, 62c; December, 63c.
