Club Women Have Picnic at Bellevue and Fort Crook.

COUNTRY CLUB CONTINUES GAY

Many Luncheons for Ladies' Day Occasions Continued Entertaining, Bringing Some of Smartest Parties at the Close of Week.

Thursday was almost a repetition of Wednesday at the Country club, an unusual number of luncheons being given among the larger parties was that given by Mrs. Will Paxton Jr., who entertained Mrs. W. J. C. Kenyon. Her guests were Mrs. Kenyon, Mrs. J. E. Summers, Mrs. Ward Burgess, Mrs. Mary Wilkins, Mrs. Charles T. Kounice, Mrs. du Bois, Mrs. Joseph Barker Jr., Mrs. Arthur Remington, Miss Ida Sharp and Miss Mildred Max.

Mrs. John S. Brady entertained four guests in honor of Mrs. Smith of St. Louis, guest of Mrs. W. H. McCord. Mrs. George Palmer had eight guests. Mr. Luther Drake gave a dinner at the country club Thursday evening in honor of Miss de Cistue of Granada, Spain. A guests were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Low, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers, Mrs. and Mrs. E. S. Westbrook, Mrs. Voss, Miss de Cistue, Miss Bonnie Yates, Miss Marie Mohler, Miss Mae Hamilton, Dr. Bridges, Mr. Earl Gannett, Mr. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. E. M. Fairchild and Mr. C. Spens.

Covers were laid for: Miss Louise de Cistue, Miss Stella Hamilton, Miss Mae Hamilton, Miss Millard, Miss Bonnie Yates, Miss Marie Mohler, Miss Weister, Mrs. W. J. C. Kenyon, Mrs. Voss, Madame Berglund and Mrs. Leonard Everett of Council Bluffs.
Mrs. E. H. Sprague entertained at luncheon Friday at her home in honor of her guest, Mrs. Haskell of Chicago. Yellow and white daisies made an attractive centerpiece and the plate cards were decorated with the same flowers. At the table were: Mrs. Haskell, Miss Margaret Wood, Miss Cranmer of Denver, Miss Bonnie Brady, Miss Ada Kirkcaldy, Miss Mary Lee McShane, Miss Jeanne Wakefield, Miss Ella Mae Brown, Mrs. John L. Kennedy, Mrs. W. T. Burns and Mrs. Louis Nash.

The Current Topic department of the Omaha Women's club gave a picnic at Bellevue Friday, when members of the entire club were invited. About 100 accepted and went on a delightful picnic. They met at 10 o'clock at Twenty-fourth and N streets in South Omaha and went direct to Bellevue college, where they had luncheon at 1 o'clock. Following luncheon an informal program was given with Mrs. C. W. Hayes, leader of the Current Topic department, in charge. Mrs. Mary G. Andrews, Mrs. J. E. Summers, Mrs. C. V. Hayes and Mrs. C. R. Glover gave very interesting five-minute talks. Miss Blanche Johnson and Mrs. C. D. Cameron sang solos and Mrs. W. H. Challa gave a recitation. Following the program the party went to Fort Crook, where they enjoyed inspecting the fort and watching the drill.

Mrs. Lottie A. Yates and Mr. Frederick C. Haynes were married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Little, at 82 North Forty-second street. The house was decorated with smilax, pink peonies and pink roses. The ceremony was performed in the parlor under a canopy of asparagus ferns and Rev. Clyde Clay Cistue officiated. Mr. Percy Haller played the Lohengrin wedding march and there were no attendants. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed with Valenciennes lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses and wore a wreath of the same flowers in her hair. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes have gone east on their wedding trip and will be at home after August 1 at 520 Georgia avenue.

Mrs. George D. Trout entertained the last meeting of the season of the O. C. C. luncheon club Friday afternoon at her home. The guests were seated at one large table which had a centerpiece of lobster, so effective in the different shades of blue. Red roses and ferns were placed in the other rooms. High five was the game of the afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. W. E. Palminter, Mrs. W. A. Shropshire, Mrs. Spangler, Mrs. Charles Gratton, Mrs. F. F. Porter, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Charles Craig, Mrs. Hasbrouck, Mrs. John Bryan, Mrs. Joseph Zipes, Mrs. Howard Oehlert and Mrs. William Truett.

Peasant Party.
Complimentary to Mrs. Jack Coburn of St. Louis, Mrs. Charles Marley gave a novel progressive peasant party Thursday afternoon. Glass bowls were placed in the center of the table and each one present was given a hat pin and a paper bag, one with which to fish the peanuts and the other to deposit them in after securing them. At the close of the afternoon the nuts were counted and it was found that Mrs. S. G. Griswold had succeeded in capturing the greatest number, for which the first prize was awarded, and Mrs. Elmer Conley was given a consolation prize. Those present were: Mrs. S. G. Griswold, Mrs. Elmer Conley, Mrs. Joseph Polcar, Mrs. John O. Yeiser, Mrs. Russell McKelvey, Mrs. W. P. Heiler, Mrs. Frank Goodell, Mrs. Thomas Kelly, Mrs. W. C. Byrne, Mrs. George Van Orman, Mrs. James E. Kelly and Miss Ruth Byrne.

North Platte Reception.
Mrs. Orrin B. Whipple entertained the North Platte club Thursday afternoon at her home. The rooms were fragrant with pink and white roses and the same combination of flowers formed the centerpiece for the dining room table. The afternoon was spent in needle work. Those present were: Mrs. I. H. Aray, Mrs. George S. Weingand, Mrs. F. W. Drew, Mrs. Charles Freese, Mrs. Arthur W. Baldwin, Mrs. Frederick Elliott, Mrs. Frank McCall, Miss Bertha Eliot and Mrs. Whipple. This club only meets once a month and for their July meeting they will give a picnic July 4 at Hansson park, when the husbands of the members will be invited.

Small Affairs.
Mrs. John Pearson gave an informal party Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Dorothy Hultin of Waboo.
Mrs. John Bastin gave a matinee party Thursday afternoon at the Royal, followed by supper at Florence.

One of the enjoyable events of the past week was the reception given by Mrs. A. L. Brooks at her residence 230 Lake street to the members of the Ohio Street Kensington club Wednesday afternoon.

The American flag played an important part in the decorations which were tastefully arranged. Miss Elsie Moberg contributed several musical numbers and various games aided in making up a very pleasant afternoon's entertainment.

Prospective Pleasures.
Mrs. John L. Kennedy will give a dinner at the Country club Saturday evening in honor of Miss Stone of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is the guest of Mrs. Coningham at Fort Omaha. Covers will be laid for twelve.
Mrs. J. E. Summers will give a luncheon at the Country club Monday in honor of Mrs. W. J. C. Kenyon, who will leave shortly to reside in Chicago.

Come and Go Gossip.
Miss Eloise Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Wood, who has been spending the last year in Berlin at the Conservatory of Music, has been touring for the last two weeks in France and England with Mrs. Nathan Merriam and Miss Merriam. The party sailed from Southampton, England, Friday, for home. Miss Wood will stop enroute and visit friends in Boston, arriving in Omaha the latter part of July.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trimble, who have been spending the last two weeks in California, will return home the early part of next week.
Mr. F. X. Dellone returned Thursday from a few months visit with his daughter, Miss Loretta Dellone, who has been harpist of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra for the last four years.
Miss Carrie Robertson will leave Saturday for Chicago and other eastern points.

Methods on Breathing.
"I cannot too forcibly insist," says Mrs. Melba in the Century, "that the mere possession of a lovely voice is only the basis of vocal art. Nature occasionally starts one by the prodigality of her gifts, but no student has any right to expect to sing by inspiration, any more than an athlete may expect to win a race because he is naturally fleet of foot."
"Methods of breathing," "attack" and the use of the registers, must all be perfectly understood by the successful singer, who should likewise be complete master of all details relating to the structure and use of those parts above the voice box, and be convinced of the necessity of a perfectly controlled chest expansion in the production of tone.
"For perfect singing, correct breathing, strange as it may sound, is even more essential than a beautiful voice. No matter how exquisite the vocal organ may be, its beauty cannot be adequately demonstrated without proper breath control. Here is one of the old Italian secrets which many singers of today woefully lack, because they are unwilling to give the necessary time for the full development of breathing power and control. Phrasing, tone, resonance, expression, all depend upon respiration, and in my opinion musical students, even when too young to be allowed the free use of the voice, should be thoroughly taught the principles of breathing."

SUMMER WRAPS AND FROCKS

New Wraps Are Picturesque and Coquettish and Some Are Extravagantly Elaborate.

The thin summer frock has had but little chance to flaunt its beauties during June, but in Paris and in London, where the social season is at its height, women have been wearing the filmy, diaphanous frocks in defiance of temperature and consulting themselves with the thought that the wraps of the season are all that there is of the most chic and becoming.

It is hard to keep away from the subject of those wraps. Short or long, voluminous or closely clinging, simple or elaborate, they are all picturesque and coquettish. Some of them, of course, are beyond the calculations of the average woman and represent extravagant expenditure, embellished by elaborate and exquisite hand embroideries or superb laces, but on the whole the fashionable wraps of the summer have their possibilities for the woman of moderate means.
The enveloping capes of chiffon broadcloth unlined or lined with supple satin and endowed with individuality by clever variations of cut and draping are as practical as they are lovely, and though the early models of this type from artist makers were by no means cheap, these models have been taken up by the manufacturers and copied at prices exceedingly reasonable.

In white, ecru, biscuit and kidred tones

Tussor is immensely popular, but it must be hand embroidered in ecru-tone to be truly chic, and hand embroidery is, of course, distressingly expensive. A touch of such embroidery embellishes about every smart frock, but there is a vast difference between the tussor frock heavily embroidered on skirt and bodice or coat and the little frock with mere modest bits of embroidery introduced into its trimmings.

A SUMMER COAT.

such wraps will be found eminently useful throughout the summer, and Parisians fancy darker and more vivid tones as well, the cassid brown, old red, raspberry, the modish green tones, etc.

More pretentious, but very attractive, are the braided and embroidered chausse coats, the less new, but still admired Japanese cloaks, and the many odd and quaint forms of the loosely fitting redingote which appears in cloth, silk, linen and even mousseline handsomely embroidered in styles and patterns trimmed only in big passementerie ornaments, pendant and fashenings.

One of the best dressed women in New York appeared at dinner in a fashionable restaurant last week wearing a naive color marquisette made with a slight suggestion of the empire lines in its shortened waist.

The long, full skirt, falling in graceful lines, was weighted down by a deep band of self-colored soutache embroidery exquisite in design and beautifully executed, the fine braid being set on edge. The body crossed in simple surplice folds into an empire girde, but had the wide kimono sleeve effect.

Sleeves and surplice were trimmed in braiding, as was the girde; the guimpe and under sleeves were of beautiful lace. There was an elegant simplicity about the costly frock, which was the perfection of taste and for relief to the soft monotone coloring was one of the large high crowned hats of which we have spoken in black crin, with superb white plumes.

An opier white tussor heavy with embroidery and all in self-tone save for the guimpe and the inevitable under sleeves was another exquisite gown noticed in the same party with the costume just described.

Because food that stays too long in the Bowels decays there, just as if it stayed too long in the open air.

Well, when food decays in the Bowels, through delayed and overdue action, what happens?

To Get More Strength from Your Food.

WHEN the Bowels are filled with undigested food we may be a great deal worse off than if we were half starved.

Because food that stays too long in the Bowels decays there, just as if it stayed too long in the open air.

Well, when food decays in the Bowels, through delayed and overdue action, what happens?

The millions of little Suction Pumps that line the Bowels and Intestines then draw Poison from the decayed food, instead of the nourishment they were intended to draw.

This Poison gets into the blood and, in time, spreads all over the body, unless the cause of Constipation is promptly removed.

That cause of Constipation is Weak, or Lazy Bowel Muscles.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them, not "Physic" to pamper them.

There's only one kind of Artificial Exercise for the Bowel-Muscles.

Its name is "CASCARET," and its price is Ten Cents a box.

So, if you want the same natural action that a six mile walk in the country would give you, (without the weariness) take one Cascaret at a time, with intervals between, till you reach the exact condition you desire.

One Cascaret at a time will properly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue.

Don't fail to carry the Vest Pocket Cascaret Box with you constantly.

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."
