THIRTIETH TO THE ORIENT

Nearly Six Hundred Soldiers Leave Fort Crook for Philippines.

SAIL FROM FRISCO JULY FIFTH

Some Patriotic Scenes Are Witnessed as the Troops Bid Goodbye to Friends at the Port.

Headquarters, field staff and band of the Thirtieth United States infantry, with the First and Third battalions, consisting of Companies A, B, C, D, Bussell to San Francisco and Colonel E. B. Pratt commanding, left Fort Crook Saturday morning by special train on the Rock Island for San Francisco to sail July 5 for the Philippines. The Sixteenth infantry will come from the Philippines in September and be stationed at Fort Crook.

The train consisted of two sections of eleven and twelve Pullman sleepers, tourist and baggage and freight cars, respectively. It goes directly to Pueblo, from where it will take the Colorado Midland to Grand Junction and from there to Ogden over the Denver & Rio Grande, and thence over the Union Pacific to San Francisco.

Many Omaha friends were at Fort Crook to bid the boys goodbye, and numerous patriotic scenes were observed in the farewells.

In the first section was the Pullman sleeper Glenary, with officers and their families; tourist cars 2508, thirty-five members of the band; 2541, Company B; 1239, part of Companies H and A; 1264, Company A; 1064, Company C; 1092, parts of Companies C and D; 1014, Company D; a kitchen and four freight cars. In the second section was the Pullman sleeper Fryburg, with officers and their families; tourist cars 1204, officers and families; 1150, Company L; 1682, parts of Companies I and J; 1015, Company I; 1240, Company K; 2545, parts of Companies K and M; 2414, Company M; a kitchen and two freight cars.

Detail of Command. The command consists of twelve officers and 281 enlisted men in the first section and thirteen officers and 298 men in the second section. The officers are:

Colonel E. B. Pratt, commanding the regiment; Major Charles Byrne, William R. Abercrombie, Captain Isaac Erwin, regimental adjutant; Captain W. Welch, regimental commissary; Captain Ralph R. Rogsdall, regimental quartermaster; Captain C. W. Castle, regimental surgeon; Captain H. L. Threlkeld, commanding Company B; First Lieutenant Charles C. Allen, commanding Company C; Second Lieutenant George E. M. Kelley, commanding Company D; Second Lieutenant C. B. Elliott, commanding Company E; Captain Guy G. Palmer, commanding Company I; First Lieutenant E. L. Stroff, and Second Lieutenant E. L. Fitch, commanding Company C; First Lieutenant E. P. Kueker, commanding Company K; Second Lieutenant Bloxham Ward, Company K; Second Lieutenant G. R. Guild, commanding Company L; Second Lieutenant W. Anding, commanding Company M; Second Lieutenant E. Turner, Company M; First Lieutenant J. O. Stone, Adjutant and Second Lieutenant S. A. Howard, quartermaster and commissary first battalion; Contract surgeons W. H. Myers and F. V. Lengendorfer; Regimental Sergeant Major J. J. O'Connell; Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant Wallace Jacka; Regimental Commissary Sergeant Charles M. Ferguson; Regimental Novice and Edward Klug; Battalion Sergeant Majors L. F. Pangel and Conway.

Officers with Families. The officers accompanied by their families were:

Colonel Pratt, Major Abercrombie, Captain Erwin, Captain Welch, Captain Stogdall, Captain Threlkeld, Captain Palmer, Lieutenant Stroff, Lieutenant Fitch, Lieutenant Ward, Lieutenant Guild, Lieutenant Stone, Lieutenant Carleton, Lieutenant Howard, Quartermaster O'Connell, Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant Jacka and Color Sergeant Klug.

Captain Ayres of the Thirtieth infantry will remain in command of Fort Crook for the present. He will soon be promoted to major and may be assigned to the Eleventh infantry, now in Cuba, and for that reason did not accompany his old regiment Saturday.

Captain Joseph C. Minus, Sixteenth infantry, is also stationed at the Thirtieth until the arrival of his regiment. In addition to his duties as post quartermaster and post commissary, he is post ordnance officer, engineer officer, signal officer, post librarian, officer in charge of the prisoners and post treasurer.

Contract Surgeon C. W. McMillan remains in charge of the Fort Crook hospital.

Other officials at the post are Post Quartermaster Charles Yeager, who has been in the army thirty-seven years and at Fort Crook ever since it has been a post; Post Commissary Sergeant John Salter, Ordnance Sergeant Daniel W. Elam, who will leave in a few days for Fort Williams, Me., and Sergeant First Class Henry Roepke of the hospital corps.

Garrison at the Port. Twenty-seven men of the Thirtieth infantry, who have been ordered transferred to the Sixteenth infantry because of their short term of service, remain to garrison the post.

Company I, Eleventh infantry, First Lieutenant W. E. Parsons commanding, and Second Lieutenant Joseph E. Barzynski are expected to arrive at Fort Crook Saturday evening from Fort D. Russell to assist in garrisoning the post until the arrival of the Sixteenth infantry in September.

The Thirtieth infantry arrived at Fort Crook from the Philippines in December, 1904, having relieved the Twenty-second infantry, that had been stationed at Fort Crook for three years previously. The Thirtieth regiment has been almost completely recruited since at Fort Crook, as at the time of its arrival in 1904 the terms of most of the enlisted men had or was about to expire, and since then almost the entire enlisted personnel of the regiment has changed, and those departing Saturday were practically all new men to the army, having enlisted at various recruiting depots during the last six or seven months.

AMERICAN SOLDIER KILLED

Row at Holguin, Cuba, Over Alleged Refusal to Pay for Drinks Results Fatally.

HAVANA, June 28.—During a clash with police at Holguin, Santiago, last night, resulting from the alleged refusal of four American soldiers of the Eleventh infantry to pay for drinks, Corporal P. J. Green was shot and mortally wounded and his companions were arrested.

BIG DEAL IN SUBURBAN LOTS

Thirty-Four Sold in Two Weeks in Residence District.

PAIR OF HEAVY CASH SALES MADE

J. W. Thomas Buys Lot for Six Thousand Dollars on Which He Builds House Costing About the Same.

Thirty-four lots sold in two weeks out of the fifty-two platted in Patrick place, the new residence subdivision at Twenty-fourth and Lake streets recently placed on the market, is nearly the record mark in real estate transactions in Omaha this spring and is an evidence of the marked increase in investments of a permanent character. Nearly all of the lots sold were bought by persons with the intention of beginning immediately the construction of substantial dwellings and very few of the lots were bought for speculation, the home builders having the preference. The new subdivision was formerly owned by Mrs. A. L. Patrick and was placed on the market only two weeks ago by George & Co., with the above result. The lots are now being staked out and many homes will be begun within the next thirty days.

F. A. Rinehart, the photographer, moved Saturday from his old quarters at Sixteenth and Douglas streets to the rooms in the new Wead building at Eighteenth and Farnam streets, which were specially prepared for the photographic business. The new rooms are finished elaborately in Flemish oak paneling, the arts and crafts style of interior decoration, including heavy studded beam ceiling, being followed throughout. The rooms at Sixteenth and Douglas streets have been leased from F. D. Wead by the Peoples' Credit Clothing company of Columbus, O., and the stock of the new company was partially installed Saturday.

The D. V. Sholes company reports the sale of two large vacant lots for spot cash. One of the lots is situated at the northeast corner of Thirty-eighth avenue and Farnam street, was bought by J. W. Thomas, formerly a member of the fire and police commission, for $1,000 cash. The lot is 56x127 feet; located at one of the most desirable corners in the West Farnam street district and very few of the lots were bought for speculation, the home builders having the preference. The new subdivision was formerly owned by Mrs. A. L. Patrick and was placed on the market only two weeks ago by George & Co., with the above result. The lots are now being staked out and many homes will be begun within the next thirty days.

Another cash sale reported by the D. V. Sholes company is that of a lot 60x135 feet in size between Jackson and Leavenworth streets and running through from Seventeenth avenue to Eighteenth street. This lot was sold for $4,975 cash to Peter Soderberg, a contractor, who will build two 81. Louis brick flats on the property, one fronting on Seventeenth avenue and the other on Eighteenth street, representing a total investment of about $15,000. The D. V. Sholes company also reports the sale of three cottages and a large lot at 1315, 1317 and 1319 Vinton street, for $2,000, to L. F. Crofoot, who bought for investment; a lot 50x118 feet in size near the northeast corner of Thirty-eighth and Cuming streets for $1,800 to Charles B. Wright, who contemplates building a $5,000 residence on the lot this summer, and two lots, 80x135 feet in size, on Sixteenth street south of Vinton street, for $1,050, to two houses on the lots this fall for investment. Another lot at Forty-third and Cuming streets was sold to J. B. Garland for $200.

Deeds were recorded Friday transferring the title to the Pollock flats near the northwest corner of Twenty-fourth and Farnam

Do You Think For Yourself? Or do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Do you see an intelligent thinking woman in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine—a medicine that is sold by druggists for the cure of women's ailments. The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. No other medicine for women's ailments has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. It is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration? A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any sender name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
