guments on both sides may be limited to what the jury will be allowed to consider as evidence. In adjourning court this, afternoon until next Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Judge Wood said that he hoped the interval would be utilized by counsel in preparations that would prevent further delay and bring the case to as speedy a It is now expected that the rebuttal evidence in behalf of the state will commence on Wednesday, and possibly on Tuesday, much depending on the extent of the crossing to admit the possibility of a verdict or Some uncasinoss on the part of the jurynen, as a roshit of their long confinement developed this afternoon. will have the honor of commanding the fleet. It is believed now that the route will be about as follows: Leaving New York or Hampton Roads in the early fall the battleships would probably steam straight to Culebra, where coal would be taken on. The next stop will be Rio Janeiro and from that point the vessels would not halt until they reached Sandy Point in the straits of Magellan, Here again the coal supply would be replenished for the run to Callao, Peru. The next stage would be from Callao to Panama and from that point the ships would procood without a stop to San Francisco. It is believed that after reaching Peruvian waters the movements of the vessels will be much more deliberate than up to that point. Although the reason for this statement is not officially obtainable, it is apparent that the explanation is to be found in the fact that the battleships will be within easy reach of San Francisco; in other words, they could in an emergency arrive at that port before another fiest could.

Question of Coaling Fleet.

Naturally the question of coaling the floot is a very parious one Two methods of doing this has been provided for in the plans of the general board. The first is to send with the battleships a sufficient number of colliers to enable them to replenish their coal supplies. In this case a fleet of no less than twenty colliers will be necessary because something like BALTIMORE .... Frankfurt 77,000 tons of coal will be burned on this SOUTHS.

In the second case the plans provide for free use of merchantable coal along the route, which of course would diminish the need of colliers.

Under the latter plan it is probable that the five colliers already attached to the Atlantic floet will be sent forward to Sandy Point. Coal at that point is scarce and extremely had.

Amiral Evans will, it is expected, start with sixteen battleships busides the coltiers. The armored cruisers Washington and Tennesses which are now in French waters are under orders to return, refit and proceed to the Pacific coast to form part of an armored cruiser squadron to be assambled there. It is possible that they will he detained and accompany the battleships otherwise, except for the absence of th on the cruise. When Admiral Evans arrives off the coast die fiest will be ingreased by the addition of the battleship Frank Parmales of Omaha, was won by Nebraska, newly commissioned and simply awaiting the rounding out of her skeleton of which amount Miss Smith, a young the late fir Charles Palmer, the grew. The hattleships Wisconsin and Oregon, now at Bremerton navy yard. Puget sound, will probably have completed their extensive repairs by next March so that they too may be added to the fleet which will then comprise nineteen hattleships. bosides the armored and protected cruisers of the Pacific ficel.
