DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Settled Warm Weather Improves Business Outlook Still Further.

STEEL AND IRON ARE FIRM

Consumption Exceeds Production Despite Large Imports from Great Britain - Shoe Factories -Are Busy.

NEW YORK, July &.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Despite the interruption of a holiday and Despite the interruption of a holiday and the usual inventories and midsummer stoppage of machinery for repairs, a vast amount of business was transacted during the past week, and the cutlook improved still further. Settled warm weather has reduced stocks of summer fabrics at many points where congestion was threatened, and in some cases supplementary orders from wholesalers replenish depleted stocks that it was feared would be carried over to 1968.

Midyear dry goods clearance sales were matisfactory, local jobbers selling freely to the interior where deliveries could not be secured from the mills. Sales of fireworks were estimated at twenty per cent larger than last year.

Activity was continued at most iron furness and steel plants, except where re-were estimated at twenty per cent larger than last year.

Activity was continued at most iron furnaces and steel plants, except where repairs were imperative, and the tone of the leading markets is firm. Smelters are constantly in need of pig iron, the enormous activity in capacity of domestic furnaces being supplemented by liberal imports, and Eritish shipments for the months of May and June have just established a remarkable sixty day record. Inventories at steel mills show no surplus stocks, but specifications are in excess of capacity and numerous complaints are heard regarding tardy deliveries. Some mills making rallway equipment report that orders are being overtaken because the transportation companies have not been able to raise funds. This financial problem will probably postpone new work, but extensions and improvements now under way will be completed. Practically no interruption to activity occurred on July 1 on account of labor controversies, wage scales being amicably arranged in most cases.

Quiet conditions in the primary markets for cotton goods are more largely due to the indifference of manufacturers than the holiday season or stock taking. Results of inventory are very satisfactory, disclosing no accumulation of stocks in the hands of producers or Jobbers. Medium lines of men's wear. Few duplicate orders for the heavy weight have yet appeared. Raw wool is firmer in tone and it is expected that the London auction sale next week will open at an advance over the previous sale. The new domestic clip comes forward on consignment, producers instaling on full prices.

Inventories by shoe manufacturers have sale. The new domestic cilp comes forward on consignment, producers insisting on full prices.

Inventories by shoe manufacturers have prevented any aggressive efforts to get new business during the past week. The result for the six months has been larger shipments from Boston than in any previous year except 1906. Prospects are new considered bright for fall business, and factories have been cutting in preparation for large orders, of which a substantial quantity has already appeared. Reports from the St. Louis section are more favorable than those from New England. Leather is quiet, but activity is expected after the middle of July. Local tanners have had fair orders for hemlock sole, chiefly for export. Hides have not developed the activity for June saltings that packers anticipated, tanners having apparently supplied their needs for the present, and the tone of the whole market is depressed by efforts to dispose of the long halred hides.

buying movement is expected to set in.

New business in finished lines is not large, but specifications are hoavy. Demand for deliverles on old orders is so urgent that the annual summer shut down of mills will be short. A southwestern road has placed an order for twenty-five tons of open-hearth steel rails, the specifications being such that a special price was paid.

Structural material was in moderate demand, specifications are heavy and some good business is in prospect. Trade in steel bars and steel pipe is good. Manufacturers of wire are unable to accumulate stock in preparation for call trade. Deliveries of sheets and plates are improving and premiums on the latter are not so freely paid. While buyers of copper are still holding off in the hope of obtaining lower prices, quotations are unchanged from last week, but some reports indicate that oasting grades are weaker in price.
