Lar Allowed to Retain Five Hundred sen is in the county jail pending his preliminary haring, and the reason for the several continuances has not been made known. Larsen, when arrested at Cheyenne, was working as an air brake inspector in the railroad yards, and yesterday County Attorney Hess received a letter from Larsen's foreman inquiring as to how soon Larsen would be allowed to return to work. From the letter it is apparent that Largen had conveyed to the writer the same impression that he tried to convey to Sheriff Canning-namely, that there was nothing to the charge which had been filed against him here, and that it would be only a matter of a few days before he would be back at work. The letter also contained the information that Larsen's place is being held open for him. Hereafter the two justices in Council County Attorney Hess, in his reply to the Bluffs will receive $1,200 a year each letter, stated he was unable at the present whether the fees of the office reach that to say when Larsen would be likely to be amount or not, and the constables will draw able to return to Cheyenne, but that the $1,000 a year each. Judge McPherson Fixes Tuesday as Date of Hearing of Petition to Enjoin Enforcement of Two-Cent Fare Bill.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, July 6 .- (Special.) -- Manufacturers will fight the pure stock food bill, passed by the last legislature. H. R. Wright, state food and dairy commissioner, has received word from a large number of them to that effect. Three have paid their license fee of $100, but paid it under protest.

From information in the hands of the state food and dairy commissioner, it is evident that the fight is to be made all along the line. The matter has been turned over to the attorney general, and Mr. Wright will proceed under advise from that official. But he stated today definitely that the law is to be inforced. The law provides that manufacturers of stock foods must pay to the state an annual tax of $100 for being allowed to do business inside the state. They are also required to comply with certain provisions of the bill, including that of publishing on the outside of the package or box or can of stock food a complete list of the ingredients of the stuff. The injuries of the state have not all been reported yet, but the indications are that a large number occurred. This is the last year Iowa will celebrate under the unrestricted program. Beginning Janu ary 1, next, the official anti-firecracker bill goes into effect. It provides that no firecrackers over five inches long and threefourths of an inch in diameter can be sold inside the state and prohibits toy pistols and cannons and dynamite cartridges.
