

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Business brisk, with bears on the top side again. PRICES LOOSE ALONG THE LINE. Bulls start fast enough, but the steady selling sends them to cover in demoralized condition.

At opening, market showed some strength on steadiness in northwest markets and stronger cables. However, little strength is apparent and prices slide back later, on heavy selling.

Wheat shows little strength and local bulls bought at opening, but commission market had a good start. Market became demoralized. September option opened at 87 1/2c bid and closed at 87c bid.

Corn was weak with wheat and heavy selling of May options, market went lower. September option opened at 47 1/2c bid and closed at 47c bid.

Clearances were 418,000 bushels of corn, 25,000 bushels of wheat and four carloads of soyabean meal.

Chicago, July 8.—Ideal weather for harvesting in the southwest, but the price of wheat here today, at the close of the September delivery was 1 1/2c lower.

The wheat market here became demoralized as a result of the heavy selling of May options, market went lower.
