Omaha made but one hit off Sir Robert, while Pueblo was managing to get a hit every other inning or so. Each team had several splendid chances to win the game, but the "hit they longed for never came." Pueblo had a man on third in the seventh inning, but Corhan could not hit out the ball. Autrey reached" third in the ninth inning on a hit, a sacrifice and an infield out, but Graham could not connect safely just at that time, elthough he made two hits during the game. In the fifteenth inning Melchoir opened with a hit and stole second, and still the hitters following him could send him along no further.

Tough Luck of the Game.

The real tough luck story came for Omaha in the ninth, when two singles were made and still the coveted goal could not be crossed. 'The "game ball" was hit by Graham in the fifteenth inning. He landed on one of those kind you like to read about and it looked to be surely safe for three sacks. It would have been if one speedy Grand Island boy, named Ryan, was not perched out in left field and being jealous of Grand Island Graham's prowess, thought he would take some of the honors imsolf. He sprinted and then soared in the air and when he straightened up, after turning several sommersaults, it was dis-covered he had the ball in his band. That was not the only phenom play Mr. Ryan made in the game, either. He made one hard sprint to near third base, which brought forth applause from the women, turning several sommersaults, it was dis-after Hall had been retired. Beiden lined one through Mr. McGregor, which that esteemed gentleman did not choose to handle, and went to second on Franck's infield out. Autrey saved the day by hit-ting a double to leff field. From the sixth to the seventeenth inning. Omaha made but one hit off Sir Robert. Welch, Ryan, Drill. Stolen bases: Austin, McGilvray, Melchoir. Double plays: Hall to Franck to Dolan; Franck to Dolan; Ei-wert to Belden to Elwert. Time: 2:50 Notes of the Game. Three fast doubles helped to enliven the game. The bit and we welch to the store to the the store to the store t

The hit and run game worked the only time it was tried.

In the thirteenth inning all three outs were made on files to Autrey. Graham made his first hit by sheer speed. He hit toward third and beat it out clean

H out clean. Drill hit the ball so hard once he broke his bat and that was the nearest he came to making a hit.

Donald McGregor was credited with a peculiar assist. He pushed the ball over to Belden with his foot.

Captain Franck also pulled off a fine stunt. He ran clear to second to capture a grounder, juggled the ball and then was able to nail the runner at first.

Magnificent fielding was done all the way through the game. The only sign of a wabble was when Bader miscued on Hall's grounder. He nearly caught the lengthy pitcher, at that.

In the eighth inning, with McGilvray on second, Bader singled, the ball going to Belden. Mac tried to sprint for home, but he forgot who was in right field and Belden got the ball back in plenty of time for Gonding to make the put-out. NEW YORK, July 15.-Ewing proved too much of a puzzle for New York in today's game and Cheinnail won by a score of a to 2. The local team had to resort to a change of pitchers. Amos re-placing McGinnity in the ninth. Score: CINCINNATL NEW YORK. Grand Island Graham pulled down one fly in the sixth that was a corker. Bader hit the ball toward Belden and Graham sprinted toward right. When he snw Belden was not going to be able to cap-ture the ball he simply flapped his wings and flew up and got it.
