

WATER BOARD PLANS COUP

Working on Scheme Which Brings Engineers to City.

SOME FRENZIED FINANCIERING

Financial Records Show Among Other Little Bills About Fifteen Thousand Dollars to Two Lawyers.

The Omaha water commissioners are preparing a coup de main in the contest with the Omaha Water company and a proposition for the construction of a new plant may be submitted to the voters of the city in a short time.

For several weeks those who have been in touch with the subject have known that the members of the board have been at work on the matter and have been rather liberal in expending cash to advance the object.

Wednesday E. L. Cooley of Chicago and J. T. Panning of Minneapolis were in the city, and a few days ago M. L. Holman of St. Louis, all engineers, visited Omaha and made a rapid survey of the city.

What the Record Shows. The only public record of these trips is the financial record in the office of the city comptroller. This record is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Date, Amount. Includes entries for February 3-Costs paid United States marshal, February 27-Costs paid United States marshal, etc.

Total $244.45. In addition to this itemized account to Mr. Wright, the board allowed $7,500 to John L. Webster for legal services in the same case.
