War Sanders had decidedly the best of the argument. Drill tried out one of his new ones but be was no McGregor, and the Rourke family took undue liberties with his delivery to the extent that Manager Drill sent him under cover after the second inning and troited out Col. Hatch, who was right pert for the remainder of the game. But it was no use for Sanders refused to	collision as that which injured Elwert yesterday. Lincoln Overlooks Chances. LinCOLN, July 17Lincoln did not take advantage of the four errors made by Denver today and lost the game as a rosult. Lincoln had a chance to score in the second inning, but failed, and ill ad- vised base running cost another score.
